LADIES EFFECT BARBER SHOPS

Best. No more rough talk is heard in the shop and the men are more courteous, the barbers declare.

Although some barbers say that it takes just as long to shingle both a woman's hair as it does to shave a man and cut his hair, others are of the opinion that if a woman comes to the shop with her hair straight and clean it is not so difficult as a ladies shingle is more difficult than a man's hair cut. Women are getting educated to where they know what they want when they come to the shop. At first they were more or less a nuisance to the barber because they did not know what kind of a hair cut they wanted when they came to the shop and they and their friends would try to tell the barber how to do it, the barbers state. Now, however, they are getting so they let the barber do the work as he thinks best and as a result more women are satisfied as are the barbers.

The majority of the barbers in this locality are for bobbed hair for women and don't think it will ever go out of fashion. They state they are an ready to cater to the ladies trade as well as the men.

ATTEMPTS TO CHECK MOVE FAIL

Abolished by order instead of congressional action exist. One does not apply to this office in the least, according to Mr. Peare, and the other has not applied since January 17th, when the two branches were consolidated. The latter order provides that when the expenses exceed one-third of the receipts, the office may be closed down. Since January 17th, the expenses have been approximately one-fourth of the receipts, Mr. Peare stated today. He seems the matter up with the opinion that although the secretary of interior and the president know that the closing order is unjust, the final action was taken so that it would not appear to other states that favoritism was being shown.

The La Grande office has always been recognized as the geographical center of the east Oregon district, which is another reason, Mr. Peare advances against the closing order.

Telegrams Received

Two telegrams were received by Mr. Peare late yesterday, reading as follows:

"I today received from the secretary of the interior a message reading as follows: 'After consultation with the commissioner of the general land office I regret to say that we cannot consistently change our first decision as we are being attacked for discrimination in favor of Oregon and Colorado as against other western states. The personal reasons I regard this situation although as an officer I feel that we are not far from right in the matter because of the reduction of our appropriation of $417,000 for the general land office and for the additional reason that the land offices should have been reduced several years ago.' This action seems to be final unless overruled by the president and will give you a little later. We exceedingly regret the attitude of the interior department and feel that an injustice has been done. (Signed) Senator McNary, Congressman Simmt."

(Final message) I have just been notified by the secretary to the president that after a conference with the secretary of the interior this afternoon the president felt he should have to stand by previous orders of abolishment and of course that means moving your office records and equipment to

LEGION DRIVE LEADER NAMED

PORTLAND, Ore. (Special)—Robert A. Booth of Eugene, pioneer lumberman of Oregon, past district governor of Rotary and one of the best known citizens of the state has accepted the chairmanship of the state committee having in charge the American Legion endorsement fund campaign for Oregon and the canvass for subscription for the Doernbecher hospital maintenance fund for crippled children. Announcement of the selection of Mr. Booth and his acceptance was made here Saturday by George P. Griffith, department commander of the American Legion in Oregon.

The choice of the Eugene man was decided upon by a committee composed of George P. Griffith, Salem; Harold C. Jones, Portland, chairman of the child welfare committee of the legion and Paul Davis, Boise, Idaho, field secretary, representing national headquarters, Indianapolis, Ind. This committee was authorized, at a recent meeting of the state executive committee to appoint the campaign chairman and to make arrangements for conducting the campaign.

With the chairmanship determined, work for the campaign which has for its object the raising of $50,000 as Oregon's quota of the national endorsement fund for the support of the Doernbecher hospital, will be started immediately.

The legion is raising throughout the nation a fund of five million dollars, the annual income from which will be used to carry on the organization's program of disabled men's rehabilitation and child welfare.

Paul Davis, field secretary, has just received a report from national headquarters announcing that three southern states, Kentucky, Arkansas and Tennessee have already subscribed their quotas to the fund.

The legion is asking the endorsement fund from its own members and the American public jointly. The motto, adopted by the organization, "Temporary Care—Permanent Cure," for war victims and "A home for every homeless orphan of a veteran," who fell in the world war, have the wholehearted support of the nation-wide organization.

MYSTERY OF IDENTITY OF GIRL ENDED

His home with Woodward a week ago.

The capture ended a week's search through wooded hill sections. Lucille, rescuers said, wept when they took her away, protesting she was afraid to go home. Woodward defended his action in taking her away, saying the child was afraid of her father. He said he had planned taking the girl to New Hampshire where she would be properly cared for.

If he advertises it, he knows it's good.

and fighting big fires come from other lands and varies according to the requirements, but averages about $47,000, bringing the total annual disbursement of the forest up to $30,000.

The revenue annually derived from sales of timber, grazing fees and special use amounts to an average of about $37,500. Of this amount 25 per cent goes to the road and school funds of the counties in which it is collected. Ten per cent more is expended on roads and trails in the state. The remaining 65 per cent goes into the general treasury of the government as miscellaneous receipts.

The depreciation in the market value of these securities this year, together with continued unfavorable earnings by the Union Pacific in the first quarter, are believed to have contributed to the recent decline in its common shares from a 1923 high price of 153 1/4 to current levels around 120.
