Snappy Vaudeville Bill Arranged For Sunday.

Vaudeville in popular demand, another one of our brilliant offerings, much fun, beautiful song hits and novel ideas will be seen at the Avenue theatre on Sunday next. The feature attraction honors are held by the Balder Brothers in "Art in the Athletic," neatly executed strength and balancing feats and acrobatic posing. The act is brilliantly staged, black & Ray, late with "Hitchy Koo," in an original comedy novelty "A Jug of Laughs," a comedy surprise combined with clever situations and dialogues. Hedra Margot & Co. in "An Evening at the Studio," music, singing and colored pictures. The offering is greatly enhanced by gorgeous scenery and costumes. The Killarney trio, "Three Girls from Bohemia," known as the Irish serenaders, an act charmingly and tastefully presented. There are songs, new and blending in beautiful harmony with youth and amiable personalities. Jack Krump, "The Smiling Monarch of Sycapation." He synthesizes the latest popular hits accompanied by his band. It is one of the best singles we have offered this season. Orchestra and pictures also featured on the bill.

"Troubles of a Bride" Full Of Thrills.

"Troubles of a Bride," the William Fox production running at the Star theatre is so full of thrills that it is hard to tell which one is the greatest amount of rope fish. Standing out a little apart from the rest, however, is the scene of the blazing runaway train. You really fear for the life of Mildred June, who plays the part of the heroine in the film, as she clings to a bar on the rushing inferno. How she is rescued is one of the most remarkable and daring episodes ever photographed. See it and be convinced.

Robert Agnew, the hero, shows skill and daring in this scene and his death-defying actions will win for him the eternal admiration of screen fans.

Famous Farce, "Charley's Aunt" Now on Screen.

"Charley's Aunt," with Syd Chaplin, the big feature farce which has been looked forward to with great anticipation ever since it was announced that the screen rights to the famous old stage play by Brandon Thomas had been purchased by Ideal, will be shown for the first time here on Sunday when it will begin a three day run at the Sherry theatre.

The fame of "Charley's Aunt" is world-wide. On the state it earned three million dollars, playing continuously for thirty-three years.

In London, it ran for four consecutive years, being given 1866 times. The Charles of Hollywood in conjunction with Ideal Films Ltd. of London, are said to have given the farce an elaborate screen production and brought out its hilarious situations to their full worth.

latic Jensen, Ethel Shannon, Mary Akin, David James, Priscilla Bounier, Jimmie Harrison and Lucien Littlefield. Scott Stacey directed. Also showing the comedy "Murd Boiled."

Can a Horse Talk? Neigh! Neigh! Is the Answer.

That old classic in slang, "Nothing above the bars" can never be applied to Silver King, Fred Thompson's equine lead in the popular Star's new series of P. O. H. productions. Now, that he, except literally, for even when Silver King lays his ears flat and starts to assume the "Heh! heh! heh!" expression of an equine villain, there is truthfully nothing above his ears. But Silver King's skill place is not merely a parking place for the stars of a new stage later it from his proud owner! And the following story is proof of it.

Mr. Thompson was talking one day with a group of friends on the P. O. H. job and Silver King, un-terred, was rambling over a few stray tufts of grass which he had found a few rods away. At that moment Director Emory Johnson came into the auto entrance in a vintage 1900 Cadillac which he was going to use in one of his pictures. The old antique wheezed, coughed and gasped its last just as it rattled up to the group. "A horse! A horse! My kingdom for a horse," remarked Mr. Thompson sarcastically quoting the late Richard III. Whereupon Silver King, who had been taking no interest in the proceedings, lifted his head from the nearly grass-plot, snorted, and approached it a gentle canter! Nor was this all. The big white horse inspected the ancient dilapidated buggy from its combal dash board to its antiquated tonneau, sniffed it, and turned away with very obvious disdain. Fred Thompson claims that he actually lifted his upper lip in a rather sour smile.

BIRTH CONTROL LEAGUE CONVENES IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO (AP)—Birth control leagues are becoming "respectable" even in the eyes of conservative people. Dr. Alice Hamilton, professor of medicine at Harvard university, Wednesday told the annual meeting of the Illinois Birth Control league here.

"Like the fight for woman suffrage," she said, "the fight for the scientific dissemination of the scientific facts of birth control is working its way slowly to a successful conclusion. Not where suffrage has won the victory, the birth control fight is just beginning to see victory."
