The Laughing Hit, "Charley's Aunt," At Sherrys.

Adapted from the hilarious stage farce that started its run thirty-three years ago, "Charley's Aunt" is unquestionably the funniest comedy ever screened. It cost a fortune to bring it before the movie public but it is a fortune woeily spent.

Youth Is Caught In Woman's Wiles In "One Way Street."

To be loved and damned by the same woman within twenty-four hours is the lot of "Hobby Austin," a part played by Ben Lyon in "One Way Street," a photoplay of English society, which opens at the Arcade today.

Four Fascist Newspapers in U. S.

ROME (AP)—There are 21 Italian language newspapers outside of Italy devoted to the cause of Fascism, the Fascist party recently announced. Of these four are published in the United States—in New York, Newark, Boston and New Haven—while the others are scattered among various countries of Europe and South America with one in Canada and one in Egypt.

Women Passenger Pilots Barred

LONDON, Eng. (AP)—Women have been barred from any employment in the operating crews of airplanes engaged in the transport of passengers by the International Commission for Air Navigation which met here recently. In making this decision the commission reaffirmed a conclusion reached by a medical sub-commission some time ago.

Merida, Yucatan (AP)

Method in restoring Yucatan's dominance of the sisal industry will be discussed early in May at a congress of producers and government officials. Political and economic causes have seriously undermined the industry, with resulting losses to producers, exporters and the state treasury, and the congress will endeavor to find means to regain the millions formerly received from the wheat regions of the United States for supplies of binder twine.

27 YEARS AGO

Daily Morning Observer, May 3, 1888—William Miller has purchased a handsome span of mules, a new buggy and harness and can show his customers our valley with ease.

Jack Gahardt, who was arraigned before Justice Van Hise Monday, charged with robbing the Clifton house of $250, was discharged. Frank Taylor, who was held as a witness was discharged and was afterwards arrested on another charge. Attorneys Sargent and Knowles conducted the prosecution and C. H. Finn the defense.

A few of the intimate friends of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Key took occasion of the fact that yesterday was the anniversary of Mr. Key's birthday to call in the evening without previously notifying him of their intention, however they were all made at home. Refreshments were served and a most pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Teichle, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Thorn-ton, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Haworth, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pitts, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Worland, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. McLain, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Lewis, Mrs. T. Ormon and son and daughter, Rev. T. S. Dunn, Mrs. S. M. McLain, Mrs. H. T. Lemmons, Mrs. McDonald, W. N. West, Hon. J. A. McAllister and Johnny and Dall McLain, Misses Christina Larin, Edna Scott, Mamie Moon, Flora McShane and the little Misses Mae and Fae Haworth.

Before the ringing of the last bell for the evening service at the Baptist church of this city Sunday evening the house was packed with an expectant audience to witness the marriage of A. J. Pitts and Miss Alice Hartle, an estimable young couple of La Grande. While the smiling audience waited, their notes between the father and pastor, then a beautiful wedding march on the organ and violin by Mrs. Green Key and Miss Edna Scott, heralded the approach of the wedding party. With pleasing grace, attended by John McAllister, the groom marched down the aisle on the left, while the bride, attended by Miss Grace Crockett, marched down the aisle, meeting at the center aisle. They faced the audience by Mrs. Green Key administering the holy cover. Again the instrument pealed forth, their wedding march and the happy pair proceeded to the home of
