FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

La Grande Theatres

Famous Dog Coming to Sherrys Sunday Afternoon.

You had to be a world famous beauty to play a part in this picture!

"The Dressmaker from Paris," a Paramount picture, coming to the Arcade Monday and Tuesday, which marks Louise Joy's return to the screen after an absence of almost a year, is said to present a parade of beauty and fashion which surpasses anything that has yet been brought to the screen.

Fourteen mannikins, chosen from world centers of wealth and fashion for their surpassing beauty, wear luxurious gowns and costumes created especially for this picture by one of the foremost designers of Paris brought to Hollywood expressly for this purpose.

"The Dressmaker from Paris" is an original screen story by Adelaide Heilbron and Howard Hawks. Miss Joy and Ernest Torrence are featured. Others prominent in the cast include Allan Forrest, Mildred Harris, Larry Gray, Charles Crockett, Rosemary Cooper and Billie "Spice" O'Donnell.

According to Paramount, this production is a forerunner of the smartest fashions of the coming season and is produced on a lavish scale that should make it one of the most striking pictures of the year.

Miss Joy is "The Dressmaker" in the picture, of course, and the fourteen beauties are her models, who exhibit her creations to the pop-eyed citizens of the little town of Clanton, Ill., where she gives a fashion show to stir up trade for the Emporium, the department store, owned and managed by the dose-listed Angus McGregor, played by Torrence.

Forrest is leading man in the production. Miss Joy first meets him as an American army captain in France, and later as junior partner in the Emporium.

Adelaide Heilbron is credited with the screen play.

Famous Beauties in "Dressmaker" Film at Arcade.

Wolf, who plays the title role in "Bare, Son of Kazan," the photoplay special opening at the Sherry Theatre, Sunday, is probably the most remarkable dog alive. He is a world war hero and a wearer of the Croix de Guerre. This decoration was pinned to his collar by Marshal Foch himself, that occasion being the only one on which a dog was ever personally decorated by a French marshal.

Anita Stewart, the star in the picture, wishes she might have been always so attached to him. She became so when the filming of outdoor scenes for "Bare, Son of Kazan," was in progress near Donner Lake, Cal. Wolf took a deep liking to her also and to show his affection acted as her special escort and guardian when the company was trekking through deep snowdrifts to the California mountains. He was more at home in that severe climate than the star.

When the end of the production work was approaching, Miss Stewart took steps which she hoped would make it possible for Wolf to remain with her for a long time to come. She tried to buy the dog from her original owner, but this had not been made suitable, but Miss Stewart raised the bids repeatedly until $5000 was reached. The owner refused to be tempted even by this sum, however, much to the star's disappointment.

Comedy showing, "Honeymoon Hardships."

"The Desert Hawk" Showing at Sherrys Today Only.

"The Desert Hawk," Arrow "Great Western," starring Ben Wilson, will be the attraction at the Sherry Theatre today.

Every reel chock-full of Pep-Punch-Action.

Ben Wilson is "Hawk" Hollister, branded an outlaw for another's crime, acts the part of a chivalrous knight to Marie Nichols just out from the East to claim her heritage—a burning ranch, but reputed to contain hidden treasure.

Every high light and shadow of the romance and drama that has made the great west so colorful is woven in this entrancing story.

Mildred Harris, versatile star of many successes, is added attraction as Marie Nichols. He became, while Yakima Canutt, world's champion cowboy, costs the part of one of the conspirators with great gusto.

Comedy showing, "Half a Hero."
