

The Observer Want Ad Page

The Market Place of Union and Wallowa Counties

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Three room modern apartment, 1202 Eighth street, Phone 473 M. 10-5-11-21p

FOR RENT—Modern six room house, Call at 1405 T St. 11-5-9-41p

FOR RENT—2-room modern furnished downstairs apartment, 1017 Fourth, Hub Apartments. 10-5-9-11

FOR RENT—2-room apt. and garage, Inquire at Wardrobe. 10-5-9-61p

FOR RENT—Furnished apt. Easternholm Apts. 6-4-20-11

FOR RENT—Apt. in Foley, Inquire J. J. Foley. 5-4-22-11

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—House, 75-foot lot, Inquire at 1819 Adams Ave. 10-5-11-61p

FOR SALE OR RENT—Brand new 4-room modern house, Liberal terms, Call 248 W. 14-5-11-21

FOR SALE—Good car, lots of speed and power, Will take photo or photograph as part payment, Eastern Oregon Music Co. 10-5-11-11

WANTED

WANTED—Pasture for 2 cows, Phone 456 J. 7-5-11-21

WANTED—Sewing nearby done, Phone 434-W, Mrs. Nora Webb. 9-4-17-11p

WANTED—RAGS—Clean cotton rags at the Observer office, Bring them in. 5-27-11

It's Clean-Up Time

And it should be the occasion for you to get rid of articles that have been discarded from your own use but that still have value. Check them over as you help with the Clean-Up—then call us on the phone and give your Want Ad. It will sell them in a hurry—and the cost is so small as to be negligible.

"An Observer Want Ad Will Do It."

"AN OBSERVER WANT AD WILL DO IT."

Experts say a third sex will result from women's entry into business. Then, men using cigarette holders will make a fourth.

New York miller was awarded $75,000 damages, so now he can spend a week or ten days ashore.

Flirting with death in the path of several large automobiles trucks sighted down with heavy cargoes and traveling thirty-five miles an hour—a speed at which it is difficult to control the road behavior—was the pleasant pastime indulged in by Raymond McKee during the filming of "Contraband." Alan Crosland's latest Paramount production, with Jack Conroy as the hero, is based on the absorbing novel by Clarence Buding Kelland.

In this scene, which was made at night, McKee is shown gathering up a bundle of order blanks that had been blown from his hand and into the road. While gathering them up in an absent-minded way, he was nearly run down by the trucks, the skill of the hand-picked drivers alone being responsible for the averting of such a catastrophe.

The driver, particularly careful regarding his own well-being, was selected for the most hazardous task which he accomplished perfectly. He wanted the steering wheel first to one side and then the other, avoided McKee by an eye's whisker and finally crashed into the bank at the side of the road. He cheerfully announced afterward that he was not even shaken up.

This is only one of the many spectacular thrills in the picture which bristles with melodramatic action revolving around the efforts of a young newspaper editor to break up a political and rum-running ring.

Besides McKee, the featured players include Lois Wilson, Noah Berry and Raymond Hatton. "Contraband" will be the feature at the Star theater Thursday next to remain for two days.

Gloria Swanson Coming in "Madame Sans Gene"

"Madame Sans Gene," Gloria Swanson's latest Paramount production and the one and only motion picture to play on Broadway at five dollars a seat, arrived in town at the Grande theater today.

The picture, filmed in France, unfolds against a background of the Paris of Napoleon's day, the tale of a young French laundress, who by her wit and beauty rises spectacularly to become a power behind the throne.

The play is a classic of the stage, having been acted by the foremost feminine stars here and abroad.

Gloria, as Catherine Hubscher, nicknamed Madame Sans Gene (Madame Devil May Care), because of her free and easy way with her customers, runs a laundry in one of the back streets of Paris. One of her customers is Napoleon, when that individual is considered a mere nobody by his associates.

Sans Gene meets and falls in love with one Sergeant LeFebvre, played by Charles de Roche. With the French Revolution come many changes. The establishment of the first Empire puts Napoleon on the throne of France, makes LeFebvre a marshal of France and finds Sans Gene, the one-time laundress, a duchess.

Her high and haughty position, however, fails to change Sans Gene and she goes about mimicking the icy court mannerism of the lords and ladies. She is called to account for her unbecoming conduct by the emperor, but when Sans

Gene recalls the old days to him and reminds him of her many kindnesses to him, he quickly forgives her.

The arrival of Count de Neipperg on a mission from the Austrian emperor, serves to complicate matters not a little. Empress Marie Louise, wife of Napoleon, is at once attracted to the handsome Neipperg, and Napoleon is instantly jealous, suspecting the worst. He orders Neipperg thrown out of the castle, but Sans Gene saves him just in time from committing such a grave diplomatic error as to show that his suspicions haven't a leg to stand on and so establishes herself more firmly than ever in his favor.

A fight that would seem destined to live as a classic among filmed encounters is one of the high-lights in "Baree, Son of Kazan," the James Oliver Curwood story at Sherrys last time tonight.

Neipperg (Alden Stewart) is surprised in her father's cabin by McTaggart (Clark Curtis), the unscrupulous post factor, and he is in the act of embracing the girl when Neipperg's father, Pierrot (Joseph Richman), suddenly appears in the doorway. Pierrot attacks McTaggart and the liveliest mixup ever filmed follows. It's the real thing in a fight, and persons who see it in the picture are left to wonder how either of the actors actually escaped with his life.

Comedy showing, "Honey-moon Hardships."

LIQUOR FOUND IN OCEAN

ASTORIA, Ore.—Thirty cases of bonded liquor were pulled from the depths of the Pacific ocean by the Point Adams coast guard crew under direction of Captain Wicklund in charge of the station.

The coast guard commander noticed a small boat a short distance off the mouth of the river. Becoming suspicious, Captain Wicklund ordered a boat to put out. The small boat fled as the coast guard men approached. Crashing about the spot, Captain Wicklund noticed a floating plank. This was picked up and a small rope was found around the plank, tied in a deeply cut notch. A tug or two at this brought up a larger rope, and then a few "heave ho's" brought it to the surface from six fathoms of water. The liquor cache of 30 cases. The liquor has been turned over to Deputy Collector Lamb of the local customs office, who has it under safe waiting order from Customs Collector McFarland.

Ben Franklin Club Meets

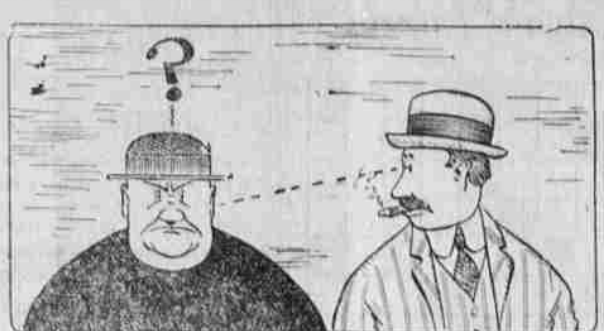

SALKM, Ore.—More than 20 members of the Ben Franklin club assembled here for the quarterly banquet of the organization. The club is composed of commercial printers from all sections of western Oregon. The next meeting will be at Cottage Grove on June 20. A picnic will feature the Cottage Grove session.

About 900 tons of sugar burned aboard a freighter, smelling just like a husband was making candy.

Famous detective says woman are poor investigators. We say we doubt if he is married.

You can't be wise in all ways. Even a wisdom tooth has its aches.

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE By Condo

WELL, WHO ARE YOU LOOKING AT? YOU MEAN WHOM ARE YOU LOOKING AT? "WHO" IS NOT CORRECT.

NEITHER IS STARRING!!!

La Grande Theatres

Great Thrill Scenes in "Contraband."

Gloria Swanson Coming in "Madame Sans Gene"

"Madame Sans Gene," Gloria Swanson's latest Paramount production and the one and only motion picture to play on Broadway at five dollars a seat, arrived in town at the Grande theater today.

The picture, filmed in France, unfolds against a background of the Paris of Napoleon's day, the tale of a young French laundress, who by her wit and beauty rises spectacularly to become a power behind the throne.

The play is a classic of the stage, having been acted by the foremost feminine stars here and abroad.

Gloria, as Catherine Hubscher, nicknamed Madame Sans Gene (Madame Devil May Care), because of her free and easy way with her customers, runs a laundry in one of the back streets of Paris. One of her customers is Napoleon, when that individual is considered a mere nobody by his associates.

Sans Gene meets and falls in love with one Sergeant LeFebvre, played by Charles de Roche. With the French Revolution come many changes. The establishment of the first Empire puts Napoleon on the throne of France, makes LeFebvre a marshal of France and finds Sans Gene, the one-time laundress, a duchess.

Her high and haughty position, however, fails to change Sans Gene and she goes about mimicking the icy court mannerism of the lords and ladies. She is called to account for her unbecoming conduct by the emperor, but when Sans

Gene recalls the old days to him and reminds him of her many kindnesses to him, he quickly forgives her.

The arrival of Count de Neipperg on a mission from the Austrian emperor, serves to complicate matters not a little. Empress Marie Louise, wife of Napoleon, is at once attracted to the handsome Neipperg, and Napoleon is instantly jealous, suspecting the worst. He orders Neipperg thrown out of the castle, but Sans Gene saves him just in time from committing such a grave diplomatic error as to show that his suspicions haven't a leg to stand on and so establishes herself more firmly than ever in his favor.

A fight that would seem destined to live as a classic among filmed encounters is one of the high-lights in "Baree, Son of Kazan," the James Oliver Curwood story at Sherrys last time tonight.

Neipperg (Alden Stewart) is surprised in her father's cabin by McTaggart (Clark Curtis), the unscrupulous post factor, and he is in the act of embracing the girl when Neipperg's father, Pierrot (Joseph Richman), suddenly appears in the doorway. Pierrot attacks McTaggart and the liveliest mixup ever filmed follows. It's the real thing in a fight, and persons who see it in the picture are left to wonder how either of the actors actually escaped with his life.

Comedy showing, "Honey-moon Hardships."

LIQUOR FOUND IN OCEAN

ASTORIA, Ore.—Thirty cases of bonded liquor were pulled from the depths of the Pacific ocean by the Point Adams coast guard crew under direction of Captain Wicklund in charge of the station.

The coast guard commander noticed a small boat a short distance off the mouth of the river. Becoming suspicious, Captain Wicklund ordered a boat to put out. The small boat fled as the coast guard men approached. Crashing about the spot, Captain Wicklund noticed a floating plank. This was picked up and a small rope was found around the plank, tied in a deeply cut notch. A tug or two at this brought up a larger rope, and then a few "heave ho's" brought it to the surface from six fathoms of water. The liquor cache of 30 cases. The liquor has been turned over to Deputy Collector Lamb of the local customs office, who has it under safe waiting order from Customs Collector McFarland.

Ben Franklin Club Meets

SALKM, Ore.—More than 20 members of the Ben Franklin club assembled here for the quarterly banquet of the organization. The club is composed of commercial printers from all sections of western Oregon. The next meeting will be at Cottage Grove on June 20. A picnic will feature the Cottage Grove session.

About 900 tons of sugar burned aboard a freighter, smelling just like a husband was making candy.

Famous detective says woman are poor investigators. We say we doubt if he is married.

You can't be wise in all ways. Even a wisdom tooth has its aches.

Professional Directory

This directory is especially handy for the newcomer or for the out-of-town reader who may want the name and address of some professional man. It has been carefully prepared and will prove to be a ready aid to any reader in obtaining prompt professional service.

Classified For Quick Reference

Attorneys

HUGH E. BRADY—Attorney-at-Law, Office West-Jacobson Building, Telephone Main 111.

COCHRAN and EBERHARD—Clerk, T. Cochran and Colonel H. Eberhard, Attorneys at Law, La Grande National Bank Building, Telephone Main 92.

H. E. DIXON—Attorney at Law, Rooms 20 and 22, New Foley Building, Telephone Main 25.

ROBERT S. EAKIN—Attorney at Law, West-Jacobson Building, Telephone Main 574.

CARL G. HELM—Attorney at Law, Room 20, New Foley Building, Telephone Main 275.

Dentists

Dr. YERNE JOHNSON—Dentist, 96, Foster Building, Telephone Main 96.

Dr. R. B. MILLER—Dentist, Rooms 9 to 15, Palmer-Roach Building, Telephone Main 70.

Dr. E. F. MOSSMAN—Dentist, Suite 2, over Red Cross Drug Store, Telephone Main 717.

Dr. RAY MURPHY—Dentist, Room 1, Schuyler Building, Telephone Main 757.

Architect

C. B. MILLETT, Architect, Room 7, La Grande National Bank Building.

Physicians & Surgeons

E. G. KEENE, M. D., Physician and Surgeon, Telephone Main 22.

STELLA N. BOOMER, M. D., Rooms 10-11, Sommer Building, Telephone Main 559.

HARLEY HOLLY, M. D., Practice limited to diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, Telephone Main 31.

RICHARD F. LANDIS, M. D., Physician and Surgeon, Gardner Building, Telephone Main 96.

W. P. MEADORY, M. D., Physician and Surgeon, Telephone Main 63.

C. K. MOORE, M. D., Physician and Surgeon, Telephone Main 19.

F. L. HAINSTON, M. D., Practice limited to diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, Sommer Building, Telephone Main 758.

A. L. RICHARDSON, M. D., Surgery, Rooms 16-17, Sommer Building, Telephone Main 15.

Osteopathic Physicians

J. L. INGLE, D. O., General Osteopathic Practice, Telephone Main 105.

MARGARET INGLE, D. O., Practice limited to care of infants, Sommer Building, Telephone Main 105.

HIGHWAY DELAY LOOMS

ALBANY, Ore.—Delays in obtaining rights of way for eliminating curves and low places in the Santiam highway between Albany and Lebanon are pressing. E. E. Humphreys' statement of preliminary surveys shows, Mr. Humphreys has completed the survey of the road but said that because of the low grade in many places land would have to be bought to build the road up to grade.

Unless this land is obtained quickly the contracts for the grading and surfacing of the road will not be let in the May meeting of the state highway commission, Mr. Humphreys said.

Famous detective says woman are poor investigators. We say we doubt if he is married.

You can't be wise in all ways. Even a wisdom tooth has its aches.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

MOM'N POP

ADVERTISING

WHY is telephone advertising valuable? BECAUSE it reaches the people every day and it will not be destroyed. Our new directory will be issued soon.

Home Independent Telephone Co.

How's This One?

