

SOCIAL NEWS OF THE COVE

COVE (Special)—Miss Frances Troy closed a successful term of school in the Bangui district last week. The parents and friends of the school children were entertained with a picnic.

A. L. Henry has been away on business. Farmers of this vicinity enjoyed the warm showers of last week. Grain and hay are looking fine. Some are planting corn this week.

T. H. Johnson and A. J. Becker have been shearing sheep. Mrs. J. P. Phipps is staying at the N. P. Knight home.

Mr. Ingram and family, of Starkey, have rented the Johnson farm. They moved down from Starkey on May 15. Several people attended the Commencement Exercises of the Cove High school Friday.

Howard Gossett and Dalton Clark started for Indian Creek last Sunday on horse back. They went to the top of the mountain where they had to leave their horses and go on foot because the snow was so deep. They say there is about five or six feet of snow on Indian Creek.

John Chadwick and family and Miss Smith, of Union, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Knight Sunday.

Adolph Pochler and family, of Ladd Canyon, spent Sunday at the Johnson home. Mrs. Nelson Knight is slowly recovering from a recent illness.

RICH COUPLE IS INVITED
SEASIDE, Ore.—The season of 1925 promises to be a "celebrity" year at this summer resort city. At a recent meeting of the Seaside commercial club it was decided to extend an invitation to Mr. and Mrs. Meriwether Milton, recently married in New York city, to spend a portion of their honeymoon here.

The bridegroom is a direct descendant of Meriwether Lewis, one of the Lewis and Clark expedition, which historic party wintered in Seaside 129 years ago. The bride is the only daughter of John D. Rockefeller Jr. It is understood Mr. Milton has expressed a desire to visit the northwest and Seaside at his earliest opportunity.

Vice President James will be asked to visit here this fall while in the west. It has also been proposed to extend an invitation to King George of England, who is at present convalescing at a Mediterranean wintering place.

Sails Ocean in 25-Foot Sloop

A trip from Victoria, B. C., to London, along in the 25-foot sloop, "Hait Moon," is the adventure undertaken by Eustace B. Maude, 77. He expects to reach Panama by July 1. His boat is equipped for calm days with an auxiliary engine. Assistance since fought pirates in the China sea and saw action on the Malay peninsula when Commander of U. S. S. Tegetmeyer.

$2000 GIVEN UNIVERSITY

THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Ore.—The University of Oregon is the recipient of a $2000 gift, the income of which will be used each year as prizes in local public speaking contests. The gift was donated by a Eugene person, whose name is being withheld by request. The gift will be known as the W. F. Jewett prize fund.

FISHING GOOD AT THE PARK

THE PARK (Special)—H. K. O'Brien, Frank Harris and J. H. Hunter passed through here, returning to La Grande from Medical Springs. They motored around by Tolocant and the Lyons Hill road. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. South, of Medical Springs.

Mrs. George Lowery was visited by the stork recently, leaving a baby boy.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Hunter and their son Jack, are visiting in La Grande with their daughter, Mrs. Ursula Wilson.

George W. South, of Medical Springs, passed through here en route to La Grande Friday. Fishing was very good last Sunday on Catherine Creek. The water is still clear spite of the high water many trout are being caught.

Mr. Bonny, of the Fish Hatchery, was one of the lucky fishermen last week. Sheep from the Ed Miller shearing camp will be taken to the Paddock ranch on Catherine Creek the first of the week.

The weather is warm with occasional showers, which mean much to the growth of the grain and grass.

Will You Always Have Money For Your Insurance Premium?

Now, when your earning power is greatest, you are carrying life insurance—or plan on carrying some—with comparative ease. You can afford it now, probably, and create a surplus. But what of the premiums to be paid ten or twenty years from now?

If sickness or decreased earning power make the payment of premiums a burden or an impossibility, you must guard against loss of your insurance. To do so means to protect your estate—means proper care of your dependents.

Building an investment in the La Grande Building and Loan Association sufficient to pay your life insurance premiums is the safe way. By putting a small amount in this investment each month, in less than nine years you will mature stock that will pay enough interest to meet your insurance premiums the rest of your life without worry or expense to you.

For example: If you wish to take out, or now have a $5,000 life insurance policy, pure protection only, it costs you $69.00 per year at age 28. By investing in Building and Loan $7.00 a month for 104 months, at the end of that period you have accumulated an investment of $1,000 paying 7% interest—sufficient to pay your insurance premium the rest of your life. In case you die, your beneficiary will receive the face of your policy, $5,000, and the amount of your Building and Loan investment, $1,000, in addition. Yet you have to pay nothing on either investment or insurance after the first 8 years and 8 months. During that period your insurance costs you $69 a year and your investment $84 a year, a total of $153.00.

What more ideal way can you imagine for building an estate that will not be a burden on you in later years? This is but one of the many things you can accomplish with a Building and Loan investment. Ask us more about it today.
