

NEWS of SOCIETY

The fourteenth annual breakfast of the La Grande Neighborhood Club was held yesterday morning at twelve o'clock at the Country Club. The beautiful gold and white flowers laid in the decorations radiated the purity and glow of "The spirit of spring," which was carried out throughout the luncheon.

A delicious two course breakfast was served, during which Miss Sally Reigart appeared in a light fantastic dance as "The Messenger of Spring." The program for the day was based on the Song Cycle "The Morning of the Year" by Charles Wakefield Cadman, which provided the beautiful musical numbers and furnished the inspiration for the toasts.

The following delightful musical numbers were interspersed with the toasts:

Quartet—"Spirit of Spring," Mrs. A. L. Richardson, Soprano, Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp, Jr., Contralto, Mr. Elmer L. Stoddard, Tenor; Mr. Raymond O. Williams, Baritone; Mrs. E. L. Holmes, at the Piano.

Solo (Baritone)—"I Mactius Am," by Ray Williams.

Solo (Alto)—"The Moon Behind the Cottonwood," by Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp, Jr.

Aria (Soprano)—"Welcome, Sweet Rose," by Mrs. A. L. Richardson.

Quartet—"O Spirit of Spring, delay."

Mrs. Robert Edlin presiding as emcee introduced the following speakers, who in their responses compared the growth and development of the club to the development of spring. The following women gave toasts:

"Vision," Mrs. C. H. Seranton.

"Dawn," Mrs. H. E. Weston.

"Gleanings," Mrs. H. A. Zurbick.

"Memories," Past President, Mrs. C. J. Eberhard.

The success of the day was due to the following committees:

PROGRAM:
Mrs. A. L. Richardson, Chairman, Mrs. Bruce Dennis, Mrs. E. L. Holmes.

DECORATION:
Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp, Mrs. Ray Murphy, Mrs. Clyde Sells, and Mrs. Anna Polach.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Stange, who are visiting here from Merrill, Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Stange entertained with a bridge party Monday evening at their home on Walnut street. The home was artistically decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers of the season and during the evening eight tables were in play. Mrs. W. C. Perkins won high score for the ladies first prize and the ladies second prize went to Mrs. George T. Cochran, T. J. Seranton receiving the gentlemen's first prize and the second prize went to Mr. A. L. Richardson.

At an appropriate hour an excellent two course luncheon was served.

Miss Marguerite Chandler and Miss Lala McNeve, whose marriage will be an event of this summer, were the inspiration for a delightful party last evening given at the home of Mrs. Dallas Green by the teachers of the Greenwood school and Mrs. H. A. Wilkerson.

The party was in the form of a silverware shower and both Miss Chandler and Miss McNeve received many beautiful gifts. Twenty ladies were present and part of the evening was spent embroidering tea towels for the brides to be.

The home was attractively decorated with wild flowers and a delicious two course luncheon was served before the evening was brought to a close.

Miss Chandler will become the bride of E. A. Foster, principal of the La Grande high school, sometime in June and Miss McNeve will be married to Mr. Hutchins of California, sometime during the summer months.

The Ladies Auxiliary to the U. of L. P. and E. met last evening at the K. of P. hall for annual roll call. Although there was not a very large attendance a delightful evening was spent, after which refreshments were served.

Members of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen met last evening at Eagles hall for their regular meeting. An interesting evening was spent during which time it was decided that the organization meet during the summer months once each month instead of twice. The meeting will be the first Tuesday in each month.

Dress Subtracts Pounds

A FRONT panel of long fringe and a fancy cotee of white satin make an unusual creation out of this sleeveless black satin frock. The long lines and the straight cut are admirable for the generous figure, as they subtract pounds and add chic.

BY SISTER MARY

Breakfast—Stewed figs, cereal, thin cream, crisp rye toast with peanut butter, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Asparagus with buttered crumbs, whole wheat bread, hearts of lettuce, cottage pudding with strawberry sauce, milk, tea.

Dinner—Plinket salad, new carrots in cream, cabbage and pineapple salad, rolled oats bread, rhubarb pudding, milk, coffee.

Potatoes are included in the fish dish. Hot ridged potatoes seasoned with butter, beaten egg yolks and milk are forced through a pastry bag around the edge of the plunk.

There are no dishes mentioned in the menu for the day that a healthy normal child of four may not eat, or course, care must be taken that the portions of dessert served are small and the salad must be finely chopped and simply dressed.

Asparagus With Buttered Crumbs
One bunch of asparagus, 6 tablespoon butter, 24 cup bread crumbs from soft part of loaf, 2 hard cooked eggs, 1 tablespoon minced parsley.

Wash and scrape asparagus and cut off tough ends. Cook in boiling salted water with heads up for fifteen minutes. Lay flat with heads under water for ten minutes or until tender. Lay the water spoon away as much as possible without danger of burning. Arrange asparagus on a hot platter. Melt butter in a frying pan, add bread crumbs and try a golden brown. Pour over ends of asparagus, leaving the heads uncovered. Sprinkle lightly with salt and pepper and add slices of hard cooked eggs. Sprinkle eggs with minced parsley and serve.

The heads of the asparagus without the buttered crumbs should be served to children under school age as the buttered crumbs are difficult for small children to digest.
