

NEWS of SOCIETY

Honoring the forty-five students graduating from the eighth grade of Central school this spring their parents entertained last evening with a party in the gymnasium of the high school building. The party was given at various games and dancing. Balloons were given those present as favors.

A Chic Sports Frock

At an appropriate hour the party went to the domestic science department of the high school, where tables, beautifully decorated with various flowers of the season, were arranged. Delicious refreshments were served.

Besides the students the teachers of the class and the school board were guests.

Mrs. C. H. Eberhard was general chairman of the affair. Mrs. H. R. Hanna was chairman of the refreshment committee and Mrs. William Wilson had charge of the entertainment.

Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Halton entertained the members of the City Club and a number of friends last evening at their home on N. Avenue. The home was attractively decorated with bouquets of purple iris and apron and during the evening seven tables of bridge were at play. Mrs. Norman Freese and Dr. J. L. Ingle won high scores for the club prize and among the guests, Mrs. R. E. Washburner and H. E. Dixon received high scores.

An excellent two-course luncheon was served.

Little Hobbs Jester, of Klamath Falls, Oregon, celebrated his fourth birthday anniversary at the home of his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jester, Tuesday afternoon. He entertained Master Tony Horman, Lewis Horman, DeLoe Hale, Albert Pollard, Donald Shade, Charles Nye, and Bert Becklin. The afternoon was spent in playing games. Party refreshments were served, a feature of which was a birthday cake.

Before departing each little guest received a basket of candies as a favor.

Honoring Miss Ethel Harrison, who will leave La Grande for Spokane, Washington, to spend the summer, Miss Marjorie Harris and Miss Edna Muhlolland entertained a number of friends last evening at a dancing party at the home of Miss Harris.

At an appropriate hour dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. Ed Ebell was hostess to the Loyal Sisters of the Christian Church Wednesday afternoon. Approximately thirty ladies were present and after the business session the afternoon was spent socially, after which refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. L. S. Weeks and Mrs. T. J. Vaughn.

Besides the members present there were six visitors, Mrs. Danisha, Mrs. H. P. Gross, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Price, Mrs. Toppel and Mrs. Gerber.

Owing to the illness of Mrs. Nye mother of Mrs. Harry Turner, the members of the Women's Relief Corps were entertained at the home of Mrs. Fred Braden, 1411 T Avenue, yesterday afternoon. A program consisting of several readings by various members of the corps was given, after which refreshments were served. Mrs. Stine, Mrs. D. W. Carr, Mrs. Rhodens, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. May Noyes were hostesses.

HOT LAKE—(Special)—Victor DePinto, violinist, was entertained at Hot Lake Sanatorium at dinner recently, after which he consented to entertain the patients and guests playing a group of selections. Among the group was "The Swan" by Cygne and "Souvenir" by Bedini. He responded to several queries. The guests and patients were unanimous in requesting that he play here again soon.

Mr. DePinto has studied extensively abroad, also in Chicago and New York. At the present time he has a studio in La Grande.

Mrs. Edithson, of La Grande, accompanied Mr. DePinto at the piano. Mrs. Heine Sears, of Union, opened the program with two excellent selections.

ELGIN—(Special)—Miss Ruth Breckners was hostess at a party in honor of her tenth birthday Saturday, May 2. The affair was in the form of a lawn party with the usual games and events. Miss Breckners picked a number of gifts. A pink and white color scheme was used and an excellent luncheon was served.

The girls and boys present were: Grace Buckley, Bernice Humgardner, Maud Reed, Elmer Mattone, Edith and Elma Hallgarth, Francis and Ralph Glasson, Frederick Hill, Junior, Phillip and Betty Jene, and Ruth, Anna, and Richard Breckners. Assisting: Mrs. Breckners wife Mrs. Frank Hallgarth, Mrs. Lynn Hill and Mrs. Berna Hauk.

BY SISTER MARY

Breakfast—Orange juice, whole wheat cereal cooked with dates, thin cream, crisp rye toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Cream of spinach soup, chouxons, cheese sandwiches, pineapple Bavarian cream, milk, tea.

Dinner—Braised porterhouse steak, new potatoes in cream sauce, sautéed asparagus on toast, beet and cabbage salad, junket ice cream with strawberry sauce, rolled oats bread, milk, coffee.

If the cheese is melted over hot water before being used in the sandwiches, it is more easily digested. The cheese must be cooked at a low temperature and thoroughly melted.

Pineapple Bavarian Cream

One pineapple, 1 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons granulated gelatin, 1-2 cup cold water, 1 cup whipping cream, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, few grains salt.

Fare and grate pineapple. Save and use the juice. Combine sugar, pineapple and lemon juice, and bring to the boiling point. Soften gelatin in cold water for five minutes and add to boiling mixture. Remove from the fire and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Let stand until cold and beginning to jelly. Fold in cream whipped until stiff with salt and turn into a mold first dipped in cold water. Let stand several hours until well chilled and firm.

If convenient grate the pineapple and sprinkle with sugar several hours before cooking. The juice of the fruit should make the addition of water unnecessary and if for any length of time the juice is drawn out and the sugar dissolves, making quite a quantity of liquid.

Women Seeking Beauty Warned of Tobacco Evil

LONDON, (AP)—Tobacco used by women has a tendency to destroy their attractiveness, according to Dr. Cecil Webb-Johnson, one of England's best known specialists on diet and obesity. In his new book "Women and Beauty," health and beauty go hand in hand, declares the author, and a grave warning is given to women smokers and drinkers, whose theory being that it is difficult for the women of today, and the men as well, to smoke or drink within what ordinarily is termed moderation.

"A man often will have his allotted daily ration of so many pipes, cigars or cigarettes, but a woman is more unstable and less capable of self-control than a man," the author contends. As a rule, he believes, a woman smoker does not appear to know what moderation means, any more than a woman drinker.

Concerning the effect of excessive cigarette smoking upon a woman's beauty the doctor says: "Observe a girl who smokes excessively, and you will notice that she also looks undernourished, with staring eyes and a yellowish skin. To make matters worse the smoke-dried throat experiences a false thirst, and thus more liquid than is necessary is consumed and an alcohol habit set up. The cocktail and the cigarette always go together."

Alcohol generally, Dr. Webb-Johnson maintains, spoils beauty
