The Silent Columns

ARE marching again. Marching in our memories as we pause to observe Memorial Day. And their silent "tramp-tramp" reminds us to keep faith with them.

They smilingly and unselfishly gave up the most valuable and most precious thing man has to offer his country—his life. They did it for but one reason. And that was—the preservation of American Ideals and Freedom.

We, who remain behind to benefit by the sacrifices of those departed heroes, must fulfill the duty we owe them. We must keep the faith by standing solidly behind and always ready to defend those great ideals for which they fought and died.

Let that be your uppermost thought and silent tribute to the nation's defenders on this Memorial Day.
