

NEWS of SOCIETY

One of the most beautiful programs ever given in the Grande took place Friday evening at the high school auditorium when Mrs. Fred Wells and daughter, Miss June Wells, presented their pupils in dance recital. The songs, songs and costumes were elaborate and with the gracefulness of the dancers the program was excellent.

When the curtain was lifted five girls, Twilla House, Guida Ashby, June Stange, Judith Siegrist and Sally Siegrist, were dressed in huge sea shells. They arose from their stumbers and gave an artistic dance representing Sea Nymphs. They wore costumes of green esquis de chine. The second dance was given by Elva Mortimer, of Pendleton. She represented a Rosebud and her interpretation was wonderful. In the third dance 14 girls appeared, June Stange and Guida Ashby represented Irish Maids, Sally and Judith Siegrist, Russian Peasants, Twilla House, Dutch maid, June Stange, Royal Russian and Twilla Ashby, Hawaiian maid. Miss Ashby was accompanied by Elva Mortimer in Hawaiian costume. They were: Phyllis Seranton, Lois Nelson, Betty Cochran, Margaret Baker, Ruth Lewis, Joan Williams, Yoda Price, Wilma Gandill and Ornelia Grey.

The next five numbers were solo dances. Guida Ashby represented "Faust," June Wells appeared as an "Old Fashioned Maiden," Sally Siegrist gave the "Dance of the Rainbow," Judith Siegrist gave the "Garden Dance" and June Stange appeared in "Vaiette." Following this group Miss Gladys Miller gave a piano solo.

Nine girls took part in the next dance with Sally Siegrist as soloist. The dance represented the "Awakening of Spring," and was beautifully interpreted. Betty Jean Carney, of Pendleton, was Queen of Springtime. Spriged Grace Wells was Queen of Spring Skies and Sally Siegrist was the Flower Fairy. The Flower Fairy was brought onto the stage in a basket of flowers. She gave a pretty solo dance assisted by the other girls. Judith Siegrist, Twilla House, Guida Ashby, and June Stange were the Fairy attendants and Barbara and Ruth Stoddard were butterflies. June Wells gave a clever dance entitled "Dainty Miss," after which Twilla House gave a novelty toe dance, Sally and Judith Siegrist gave a Pierrette dance, after which Guida Ashby appeared as "Folly Girl."

The second part of the program opened with a scene in the "Garden of Seville." Twilla House appeared as the flower girl, Judith Siegrist, as the fortune teller, Sally Siegrist was Carmen, Guida Ashby and June Stange, Tango dancers and Elva Mortimer and June Wells, Apaches. Following this number Lois Nelson gave a piano solo, after which June Stange and Guida Ashby, assisted by Twilla House, Sally and Judith Siegrist gave a clever little song and dance entitled "Peter Pan." The last three girls were dressed as Peter Pan.

The "Dying Swan" by June Wells was one of the most beautiful dances given. She was dressed in an elaborate white costume with white ostrich plumes and gave a beautiful interpretation. Following this was a "Scene From The Orient," with June Stange and Guida Ashby as Haron Girls and Twilla House, Sally and Judith Siegrist as slaves. The next three numbers were: "Halloween Girl" by Elva Mortimer, "Double Dance" by June Wells and Guida Ashby and "Miss Blue Bird" by Twilla House. The program closed with "Playmates" with Guida Ashby and June Stange as solo dancers, assisted by Twilla House, Sally and Judith Siegrist as schoolgirls.

The stage was artistically decorated with a profusion of flowers of the season, flowers (wreaths) being attractively arranged. Palm trees were also used. Each little dancer appeared with much grace and ease and interpreted her part beautifully.

Much credit is due Mrs. Wells and her daughter for the recital. It is through their efforts that the program was possible. The orchestra accompanying the dancers was in charge of Andrew Lamy, Junior, and the exquisite decorations and lighting effect was arranged by Harley Richardson. The elaborate costumes were designed by Mrs. Wells and her daughter and made by mothers of the pupils.

Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe charmingly entertained the members of the Thursday Auction Bridge Club-Friday evening at her home on Main Avenue. Three tables were at play during the evening with Mrs. C. P. Newlin winning high score.

Beautiful bouquets of various spring flowers were artistically arranged throughout the home and at the close of the play a dainty two course luncheon was served.

At the opening day of the annual convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs at Marshfield today Mrs. George T. Cochran, of La Grande, member of the state board of the Federation, gave the response to the addresses of welcome. Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, state president of the Federation and Mrs. A. Y. Myers, president of the Marshfield Women's Civic club, presided over the meeting.

Six other La Grande women besides Mrs. Seranton are in attendance at the convention.

The Luther League of the Lutheran Church met Friday evening in the community room of the church. This was the regular social meeting of the club and a delightful evening was spent. Delicious refreshments were served before adjournment.

Kentucky Caves Rank Among The Finest in the World

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The largest and most extensive caves in the country and perhaps in the world are found in Kentucky, according to Dr. W. D. Finkhouser, zoologist at the University of Kentucky, who with the cooperation of Dr. Willard Rouse, Illinois state geologist, has made exhaustive studies over several years.

Declaring that these caves hold many secrets of old and even prehistoric days, Dr. Finkhouser said Kentucky is neglecting a great opportunity to contribute to the field of science, which European explorers, coming to this state, might grasp to "bring to light important data which have been for years within our reach, but for which we have neglected even to search."

Dr. Finkhouser was Governor Floyd's scientific representative at the time of the Floyd Collins tragedy at Sand Cave. The military court of inquiry, appointed by the governor, has just declared Collins to have been imbedded in Sand Hole instead of a cave. His report declared Mammoth Cave, for the establishing of which as a national park a movement is underfoot, and other caves "are safer than Main street."

None Entirely Explored

Naming Mammoth Cave, Crystal Cave, Onyx Cave, Colossal Cavern, Horse Cave and Grand Cave, Dr. Finkhouser said "none of these caves has been entirely explored and their extent is problematical."

"Most of them extend for miles under the surface of the earth—passage after passage, chamber after chamber, with branches in many directions, offering rare displays of stalactites and stalagmites and dazzling surfaces of crystal and ornamental rock."

In virtually all parts of the state wherever limestone of any thickness and the men have found large subterranean caverns, besides thousands of smaller caves and "winks" which often are the entrances to caves.

Most of these caves have been formed by the dissolving out of the

Sister Mary's Kitchen BY SISTER MARY

Breakfast—Halves of grapefruit, fish puffs, corn bread, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Shrimps baked with tomatoes, rolls, jelly, morning-glaze custard pudding, milk, tea.

Dinner—Broiled sirloin, steak-diced potatoes in cream sauce, buttered spinach, pineapple and cabbage salad, fresh strawberries, sunbake cake, milk, coffee, whole wheat bread.

A cream soup should be provided for infants under ten years of age to take the place of the shrimp and tomato dish and crisp toast be substituted for the rolls.

Shrimps Baked with Tomatoes.

One pint shrimps, cracker crumbs, 2 cups cooked tomatoes, salt and pepper, butter, 1 teaspoon sugar.

Clean and freshen shrimps if necessary. Put a layer of cracker crumbs into a well buttered baking dish, add a layer of shrimps, cover with tomatoes, season with salt, pepper, and sugar and dot with butter. Add another layer of cracker shrimps, tomatoes and seasonings. Cover with crumbs dot generously with butter and brown in a moderately hot oven. Canned or fresh shrimps can be used for this dish and fresh tomatoes cut in slices take the place of canned ones. Canned tomatoes should be as solid as possible. A few drops of onion juice and 1 tablespoon of soft parsley can be added if wanted. Minced celery is another possible variation.

Bread crumbs can be used, but cracker crumbs are preferable since the soda tends to neutralize the tomatoes.

Minerva Says---

A few weeks more and the Children's Sale Shoes will all be gone. One woman bought three pairs for herself and two for a neighbor. Another lady bought two pairs of the 2 to 5 at 75c. We sold five pairs of the 6 1/2 to 8 run and two pair of the 4 1/2 to 11 at $1.75. We also had a good run on our new shipment of Spun-tex Silk Hosiery, Guaranteed.

It just beats the band how business keeps up. A fine picture show will draw a big crowd. The low prices on shoes will do the same.
