cutting slipped off the ax while it was in the air and fell upon his head, inflicting a very painful scalp wound.

John Wells and family arrived in this city yesterday from Salt Lake City, Utah, and will make La Grande his home. Mr. Wells left Salt Lake the first day of May, consequently was just one month on the road.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson, near Princeton Sunday, May 22, 1898, A. V. Ouyer of La Grande and Miss Minnie Wilson were married. After visiting in Portland, The Dalles and other points, they arrived in this city Tuesday morning and are now receiving the congratulations of their numerous friends. Mr. Ouyer is well known throughout the state as one of the leaders of the People's party. Miss Wilson lived in La Grande several years ago.

H. E. Courtney, middle-of-the-road candidate for congress in the city, Mr. Courtney has many friends in this county, however, he will not receive many votes as he has no chance of election and few can throw their votes away on so important an office.

Boy Believed Traced. BAKER Ore.—Whitney Larson, missing 12-year-old adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Larson of Wingville, has gone to Idaho, claims obtained by a local newspaper reported yesterday.

Mrs. Jim Weber, who resides on the old Oregon trail within the city limits, early last week talked to a boy who in every detail answered the description given the local officers. The boy told Mrs. Weber that he was en route to Idaho to his parents, and that he was without money. Officers were informed of the views and began a more intensive search.

Constance Talmadge Comes to Arcade In Comedy.

Constance Talmadge's new First National comedy, "Learning to Love," was written by John Emerson and his wife, Anita Loos. This couple have been associated in the making of many of Constance Talmadge's best photographs among them "A Temperamental Wife," "The Virtuous Vamp," "Dangerous Business," "Woman's Place," and "Poly of the Follies." They also wrote "The Social Secretary" for Norma Talmadge, and six Douglas Fairbanks comedies. Their latest stage play, "The Whole 'Ten's Talking," had a long run in New York last winter for and will soon be produced in London.

In "Learning to Love," Constance shows modern girls the various ways to capture a husband. The cast includes Antonio Moreno, Constance's leading man; Johnny Harron, Wallace MacDonald, Byron Munson, Ray Hallie, Emily Fitzgerald, Eddie Chapman, Art Gooding, Elmer Norton and Percy Williams. His picture, a Joseph M. Schenck production, will be shown at the Arcade theatre today and Wednesday.

Last Showing of "A Lost Lady" at Sherrys Tonight.

A marvelous picture of a woman's life is being shown at the Sherry Theatre, where Irene Rich portrays the entire career of a young, intemperate and boy in the Warner Bros. screen version of Willa Cather's novel "A Lost Lady." There are few stories or plays
