

NEWS of SOCIETY

Mrs. A. E. Hendrickson, 1612 A. street, proved herself a charming hostess Tuesday afternoon when she entertained at a bridge luncheon. Covers were laid for sixteen ladies and promptly at one o'clock a delicious luncheon was served.

The home was decorated in a gold and lavender color scheme and the rooms were fragrant with large baskets of summer bloom.

During the afternoon's play Mrs. Hat Holmstrom was first score and Mrs. J. T. Richardson received the second prize.

A quiet wedding took place this morning at 8:30 o'clock at the Christian church parsonage when Miss Margaret Nash, of Portland, and Roy Harris, of Pendleton, were united in marriage by Reverend O. W. Jones.

After a two weeks honeymoon at Wallowa Lake they will return to Pendleton to make their home, where Mr. Harris is connected with the motor department of the O. W. L. and N. Company. Miss Nash has been at Nampa, Idaho, for the past several weeks, where she has been employed as secretary in the Nampa bank.

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Highway Travelers met last evening at 7:30 o'clock at Engle Hall. After the regular business session a surprise party was given in honor of Mrs. Elizabeth Clay, who will leave La Grande in a short time for Bond, Oregon, to make her home. A feature of the evening was a quartet, which was sung by Mrs. Marie E. Brown, Mrs. Hazel Greenbush, Mrs. M. E. DePinto, and Mrs. M. E. DePinto. The quartet was accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Parkerson. The stage was decorated with bouquets of beautiful roses and an excellent program was rendered consisting of three vocal numbers, two duet numbers and five solos.

In the first ensemble "Gavotte" by Clark, Donna Scott, Seville Pratt, Elmer Harnden, Bertha Bantz, Mabel Andrew and Emma Shaw appeared; the second "Lullaby" by Lauchlin, Bertha Bantz, Lawrence Hay, Seville Pratt, Donna Scott, Elmer Harnden and Cleo Ann Shick played and in the last "Remembered" by Schumann, Katherine, Donna Scott, Lawrence Hay, Seville Pratt, Floyd Berry, Katherine W. Anderson, Bertha Bantz, Mabel Andrew, Emma Shaw, Leona Ledbetter and Cheon Coalwell played.

The violin duets were "Salut d'Amour" by Elgar and "Forget Me Not" by Meloth. They were played by Bertha Bantz and Donna Scott. In the solo group Lawrence Hay played "Cranium" by Schumann, Bertha Bantz rendered "Souvenir" by Debussy and "Horace" by Jarnetoff and Donna Scott played "Romance" by Wieniawski and "Adagio" by Rite.

Each pupil played with skill and expression, displaying the excellent training they have received.

Hints for the Housewife
CARROTS A LA KING
Young carrots which are so beautiful—and so plentiful now—are delicious prepared in the following unusual way.

Cut tender carrots into slim "fingers" and dice these into inch lengths. Place in an enameled ware saucepan, which will preserve their delicate color, cover with water and cook until very tender. Salt toward the end and drain well. Prepare for the very liberal quart about a pint of rich, highly seasoned white sauce made of part milk, to which has been added, while cooking, a dash of cayenne.

Nurse Saves 2 People From Operation
"I had two patients that the doctors seemed unable to reach with their medicines and in both cases advised the knife. A friend who had tried May's Wonderful Remedy for Stomach Trouble proposed that I recommend it to my patients, which I did. Both are now entirely well. I am very glad that I was able to recommend it." It removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the irritation which causes practically all stomach, liver, and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded at all druggists.—Adv.

Waiting

Just six hours before she was to have been married Miss Sara Arena, Oakland (Calif.) society girl, learned that the groom, William T. Vellguth, had eloped to Mexico with a girl he had met ten days before. She received this news while holding a final rehearsal for the wedding with the bridesmaids. The church had been decorated, the program was ready and a home had been built.

Coos Arch, this Snag.

The tapica pudding should be made with eggs as the meat course is light.

and the Douglas-Coos state highway, near Dillard was blasted by Judge Mant, who on returning from Portland announced that the county was unable to appropriate money for the purpose. The arch had been depended upon to call the attention of travelers to this section of the state. The county court had appropriated $2,000 for the purpose, and the contract for erection was not yet made to Shedy & Phillips of this city. It is believed the obstacle to constructing the arch is some restriction that prevents money from being expended outside the county.

Bishop Arouses Grid Players in England

LONDON (AP).—Assertion in a column by the Bishop of Peterborough, Dr. C. C. B. Bardley, that football players in England were "bought and sold almost like slaves" has stirred up a hornet's nest among sportsmen, who have rushed into print to deny the clergyman's contentions. The bishop, presiding at Leicester, said he resented the extension of professionalism to football "which has done an awful lot to ruin our game." To this he added: "I wish to see football players being bought and sold almost like slaves, and human machines trained as gladiators. It is the ruin of club patriotism. Football is too great a game to be spoiled in this manner."

A. J. Darnell, of Northampton, president of the Southern League, and other officials, replied to the bishop, maintaining that the statement comparing the transfer of football players to slaves was all "nonsense." "A player is a free agent," said Mr. Darnell, "and he may refuse or accept an offer as he himself sees fit. He receives, if transferred, a substantial proportion of the transfer fee, and it invariably means his promotion to a higher class of football."

Professional football players here receive between $30 and $40 a week throughout the year.
