

NEWS of SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reuter entertained the members of the Clio Club and a number of guests last evening at the Country Club. The club rooms were decorated with bouquets of various spring flowers, attractively arranged, and during the evening nine tables were set up.

Mr. B. J. Green received high score for the ladies club prize and Elmer Stoddard won the gentlemen's club prize. The guest-prize went to Mrs. F. B. Appleby and H. E. Watkins.

A delicious two course luncheon was served at the close of the play.

Miss Constance McKenzie, piano student of Miss Gladys Miller, will appear in recital this evening at eight o'clock at the library auditor-

Grieg—Constance McKenzie.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson will leave tomorrow morning by auto for Portland. Mrs. Richardson will attend the convention of the National Federation of Music Clubs there. She is a director of the State Federation of Music Clubs. The feature during the week of the convention, which starts tomorrow, will be the first performance of the American Opera "The Echo" by Frank Patterson at the Municipal Auditorium Tuesday evening. A distinguished artist cast, including Marie Rippl, Metropolitan soprano, Marjorie Dodge, Chicago opera star, Lawrence Tibbett, metropolitan baritone and Lambert, tenor, with the Chicago opera company.

Bothwell is directing the opera. A chorus of eight selected voices of Portland and a ballet from Portland will assist in the performance. The full symphony orchestra of Portland will accompany.

This is said to be one of the greatest music events in the history of the west and in the fourteenth biennial of the National Music Federation. Other La Grande people who will attend the convention are Mrs. W. P. McAdary and Mrs. G. L. Dutton.

Mrs. E. P. Mowman of La Grande, was among the speakers at the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs convention at Marshfield, Wednesday. Other speakers were C. C. Colt, Miss Yella Wintor, Mrs. J. E. Brockway, Mrs. J. L. Poirbank, Mrs. William Brueger, Mrs. E. H. Glendon and Hilda Jonh E. Wise.

In the evening there was a beach dinner and frolic for the delegates.

Twenty members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Yeske, 1605 1/2 Washington Avenue, for a called business meeting. After all business was transacted the remainder of the afternoon was spent socially and refreshments served.

The Queen, Esther Standard Bowers of the Methodist Episcopal Church met last evening at the home of Miss Elizabeth Payton. Twelve members were present and after the business session the evening was spent socially and refreshments were served.

Medical Springs. (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Powers and Uncle Luntam Weight entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of Charles Wright of Savannah, Missouri, who is visiting here. Forty guests were present and an excellent dinner was served.

The out of town guests were: Lou Dutton and family and Cora

Sister Mary's Kitchen

BY SISTER MARY

Breakfast—Stewed rhubarb, scrambled eggs with rice, crisp toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Baked green beans, whole wheat and lettuce sandwiches, baked custard, orange jumbles, milk tea.

Dinner—Smothered veal steak, mashed potatoes, creamed carrots, stuffed beef salad, orange strawberries, sponge cake, graham bread, milk, coffee.

If you have never tried combining strawberries with other fruits you have a "treat in store." For a family of adults a thin layer of sliced bananas between two layers of strawberries with orange juice poured over the whole and the berries sweetened with powdered sugar adds much to the combination. The fruit should be combined and placed on the ice for an hour or two before serving.

Orange Jumbles
One half cup butter, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 4 tablespoons orange juice, grated rind of one orange, 2 eggs, 2 1/2 cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, one-fourth teaspoon salt.

Cream butter and slowly add sugar, beating until creamy. Beat in orange juice and grated rind. Beat eggs until light and add to first mixture. Mix and sift flour, salt and baking powder, and add to first mixture. Knead slightly on moiling board and roll into a thin sheet. Cut with a doughnut cutter and bake in a quick oven.

These little cakes are particularly good with hot tea or lemonade.
