COOS CITY POLICE HIT

MARSHFIELD, Ore., June 6.—Coos county was upset by the publication of a sensational grand jury report which gave the sheriff's office a clean bill of health, but criticized certain unnamed municipalities where, it was said, police were derelict in the performance of their duties. No one is willing to name the source of the upheaval, which has already resulted in the resignation of Ned Hixley, night officer of Marshfield.

If It Can Be Done

An Observer Want Ad will do it quickly and economically. No matter what your want, if it can be found in the La Grande territory, a Want Ad will find it.

Reader interest and reader confidence built over a long period of years shows its value in Observer Want Ads. Intelligent people search them constantly for buying, renting, trading, getting jobs and getting help, etc. The cost is small—the returns are immediate.

"AN OBSERVER WANT AD WILL DO IT."

27 YEARS AGO

Daily Morning Observer, June 6, 1898.—Workmen and Brethren have about 800 acres of the grain. Andrew says the best prospect for years.

Judge James A. Fee, of Pendleton, is registered at the hotel Foley today.

George T. Cochran, who has been attending school at Stanford, California, returned home Saturday morning.

William Hunter became involved in a quarrel with a young man named T. H. Sturgill. Mr. Hunter struck him on the arm with a gun breaking it near the elbow. Doctors Steincamp and Moffat reduced the fracture. The young man's father came down from Baker City to attend his son. No arrests on either side have been made.

While the La Grande bone team was practicing last evening on their running track, June Mason who was pulling in the lead, tripped upon something and fell and in trying to turn the cart from him, Jack Peare, who was on the tongue, also fell and the cart struck him. He was considerably cut about the head and his foot was injured. While the boys are considerably bruised they will be able to run in the coming tournament and

We have to hit it on the fly! Say, Claude, do you keep paint and oil? No, we sell it. About the only thing we keep is "busy."

Nails are sold—yes, by the ton. The shingles business makes us run.

The paint, oh boy! It comes and goes like champagne, before the wind that blows.

House Paint, $2.50 per gallon. Strictly pure Boiled Linseed Oil, $1.45 per gallon.

Planned Sheeting Lumber, $13.00 per M.

La Grande Theatres

"Coming Through," Is "He-Man" Film.

They said he eloped with her for her money. The girl's father even hired thugs to "get" him. Tom didn't blame him, but he "came through" in spite of them all.

Never before has Meighan had such a role as that of Tom Blackford in the Paramount picture, "Coming Through," a screen version of Jack Bevel's mining novel "Red Rock" now playing at the Star Theatre.

This picture has another big "he-man" role for "Good Luck" Tom, his best to date. Tom's a chief clerk in the offices of a big steel corporation. His father-in-law, the president of the concern, sends him down to Colton, the toughest of mining camps, hoping that he may get rid of him through some "accident." But Tom makes good and wins the love of his bride.

Lila Lee is leading woman in "Coming Through," which was directed by Edward Sutherland, until recently Charlie Chaplin's assistant. Wallace Beery, Lawrence Wheat, John Miller, Frank Campbell and others play in support.

Excellent Vaudeville Offering at Arcade Sunday.

An entirely new program of sparkling novelties, beautiful women, and comedy producers will be seen at the Arcade on Sunday next.

"So This Is London" Boasts Excellent Cast of Actors.

"So This Is London," George M. Cohan's latest laughing success, comes to the Arcade Theatre on Wednesday night and will be produced on the same scale of completeness and with a company on a par with that seen in the long run in New York and Chicago.

Henry Duffey the producer, whose last offering, "The Cat and the Canary," was so enthusiastically received everywhere on the coast, is presenting "So This Is London" in this city and this alone should be a guarantee of its merit.

The play is said to be a real classic of the stage, delightfully original in theme with its fun of the sparkling effectiveness kind that keeps the audience charmed musicians rendering classical, popular and jazz numbers. A Musical Treat, Aco. Fox a character impersonator in songs and sayings. He has an exceptionally good voice and a most pleasing personality—a good all-around number. Barnes & Lorraine, in "Side Tracked," a bit of comedy from real life, a combination of new ideas, and sayings and holds scores of laughs and is presented Chelmsford, tenor and soprano, will most assuredly please any audience. Great E. B. in an athletic novelty of concert and bending. His acrobatic feats are amazing and his routine occasionally fast and startling. Orchestra and pictures also featured on the bill.

Exciting Stunts Galore, In Taimadge's "Let's Go."

If you want to see some of the most exciting stunts ever shown on a screen, if you want to enjoy a real, live romance, if you want to witness some splendid acting, then by all means go to the Sherry Theatre, where Richard Taimadge in "LET'S GO" opened yesterday for a 100 day's engagement. This is a classic production, released by Trium Films.

You cannot fail to be thrilled by some of the uncanny stunts performed by the star, Richard Taimadge, who has landed high among the stars in the motion picture firmament. He has about as pleasing an appearance as you could wish for with a smile that is bound to melt you. Some of the stunts he performs would probably never be attempted by anyone else. He leaps from third story windows, across twenty foot chasms fifty feet from the ground, onto moving freight trains from a height of fifty feet, and a half-a-hundred other daring tricks as nonchalantly as you might light a cigar.

The story centers about this young man's exploits in a sleepy country town where circumstances have brought him in investigating some features of his father's business. His job turns out to be the showing up of a crooked mayor and his son. During the working out of an extremely lively plot Richard Taimadge is called upon to champion the sheriff of the town, who believes
