

NEWS of SOCIETY

Mrs. C. H. Scranton, Mrs. J. D. Lynch, Mrs. G. L. Dutton and Mrs. E. P. Mossman returned to La Grande last evening after attending the State Federation of Women's Clubs convention at Marshfield last week and also being present at the National Music Convention at Portland for four days. Mrs. Dutton attended the Music Convention as a delegate from the Monday Musical Club of La Grande. The ladies attended the American opera "The Echo" held in Portland Tuesday evening.

They drove down in Mrs. Scranton's car and were accompanied home by Mrs. Lynch's small son, Jay D., who has been spending some time in Salem with his father.

The ladies of the Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal Church held an all day meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. T. E. Pearson. The day was spent in sewing for one of the society's homes in Africa. At noon a delicious lunch was served.

In the afternoon Mrs. E. G. Keith had charge of the devotion and the lesson study. Mrs. E. W. Leigh presided over the business session. There was a large attendance and much sewing was accomplished.

Previous to Miss Mabel Andrew's departure for Bellingham, Washington to attend the summer session of the Normal school, three Misses Lita and Miss Bean entertained in her home with a slumber party. A number of girl friends of Miss Andrew were present and in the evening a delicious dinner was served at the Bean home on Third street. In the morning the girls enjoyed an excellent breakfast.

Miss Andrew will also visit her sister, Miss Rosalie Andrew at the University of Oregon before going to Bellingham.

The Ladies Aid of the Baptist church entertained with a tea yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William Shide on Penn. Avenue. Tea was served from two o'clock five o'clock and a large number of ladies called during those hours. Mrs. Devine and Mrs. Shide presided at the tea tables.

A number of the ladies of the aid made aprons, which will be used at an apron social to be given.

Those UP-STAIRS FLOORS!

"HOW can I keep them presentable?" A properly painted surface—a porcelain-like surface—one that resists water, soap suds, etc. and withstands moving, scraping furniture and pounding heels. That's the answer. And Rubber Cement Floor Paint gives just that surface. Easy to apply.

Also, ask for booklet, "Color Harmony in the Home"—all about painting or finishing floors, woodwork, walls, etc. It's free.

HENRY DUFFY'S SHOW SCORES

Preliminary reports of the mirth-provoking and genuine interest attached to "So This is London," the Henry Duffy production staged at the Arcade theatre last night before a large crowd of La Grande people, were more than upheld in the judgment of those who were present at the showing. George M. Cohan's international success was certainly a success—spiced with capital letters.

Imagine a typical English lord and an equally typical American shoe king, both dishing the other, brought together by the love of the Britisher's daughter for the American's son and one has some idea of the plot and the possibilities, which were fully capitalized for all they were worth and then some.

The members of the cast, headed by Lawrence Murray, each one played his or her part to perfection and the result was one of the best plays ever presented in this city. The players, in the order in which they appeared, were as follows:

Hiram Draper, called Junior—Arthur Peterson; Eleanor Beauchamp—Miss Estelle Hunt; Lady Amy Duckworth—Miss Helen Audiffred; Hiram Draper, Sr.—Maupley Franklin; Mrs. Hiram Draper—Miss Claire Sinclair; A Flunkey at the Pitts—Leo Keith; Alfred Honeycutt—Norman French; Sir Percy Beauchamp—Lawrence Murray; Lady Beauchamp—Miss Valentine Sidney Thomas, a butler—Alfred Patterson; Jennings, Lady Duckworth's butler—George Keating.

Executive staff for Henry Duffy Productions, Inc.: General manager, Richard Marshall; company manager, Frank B. Hill; business manager, Eugene Stafford; stage manager, Alfred Patterson.

Special mention should be given to the music, furnished by the Arcade orchestra.

In closing, it is certain that had the theater-goers of La Grande fully realized the quality of the production and the ability of the cast, the theater could not have held those who would have been eager, nay, anxious, to witness "So This is London."

Breakfast—Stewed prunes, oatmeal, cream, French toast, maple syrup, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Luncheon asparagus lettuce sandwiches, raspberry tuff with sponge cake, milk, tea.

Dinner—Pot roast of beef with dumplings, creamed new cabbage, radishes, fresh fruits in jelly with whipped cream, marinated cookies, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

The raspberry tuff suggested for the luncheon dessert is made just like strawberry tuff.

While a child under six years of age should not be allowed to eat the dumplings, he may have some of the meat and potatoes, the radishes, fresh fruits in jelly with whipped cream, marinated cookies, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

The asparagus dish planned for luncheon makes an ideal company dish, but is wholesome and suitable for the entire family.

Luncheon Asparagus

Two bunches asparagus, 1 1/2 cups sifted dried bread crumbs, 2-3 cup hot milk, 4 tablespoons melted butter, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 2 eggs.

Dry stale bread in a hot oven, browning it slightly. Roll and sift crumbs. Wash and scrape asparagus and steam 15 minutes. Cool and cut the tender part into half-inch lengths. Add milk to crumbs, adding more milk if necessary to make moist. The crumbs may also be jellied or less milk. Season with salt, pepper and butter. Beat eggs until very light, and add to the crumbs with the prepared asparagus. Turn into a well-buttered mold, cover and steam 45 minutes. Serve with a rich cream sauce.
