Women of Glencoe Plan Club House of Comfort and Beauty

GLENCOE, Ill. (AP).—Organizing in 1925 a reading circle...

The club is the fourth oldest women's organization in the United States...

The building, although broken by wings, bays, gables and oriel windows...

With its ground site, the club house will have a value of approximately $250,000...

The architectural features of the project are striking in their individuality and comfort...

Why Europe Calls America The Land of Untold Gold

SOUTHAMPTON, (AP).—Reports circulated here that the American state department has put its foot down on extravagant tipping by its representatives...

It is related, among steamship stewards that on one trip recently an American millionaire gave $10 to every member of the crew...

ing, and $25 for each of the officers. His tip it was estimated by the steward cost the individual $10,000. Another passenger not long ago surprised a steward by presenting him with $400 after a six-day passage from New York to Southampton.

Embroidery in Bright Colors

THE lines to this gown of white tulle...

...the wide band of wool embroidery in bright colors and the fringed hemline make it very striking and unusual.

A scarf of black illusion makes the oriental looking turban, one end of which is wound about the throat and falls over the shoulder.

Church met yesterday afternoon at the Parsonage with Mrs. Michaelson as hostess.

There was a large attendance and during the business session several important items were discussed.

It was decided to hold an open social in July. Plans for the re-dedication of the church were discussed and a committee was appointed.

Plans were made for a basket dinner to be held at the church between the morning and afternoon sessions on that day.

A social hour followed the business meeting and delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. William Moore, of Portland, was a guest at the meeting.

COVE (Special)—The Oregon Society of the Baptist Church celebrated the twenty-third anniversary of its organization June 4 at the residence of Mrs. Ben DeHart.

When the society was organized in June, 1902 the officers elected were: Mrs. Minnie Weaver, Mrs. W. Chesnut and Mrs. W. P. Alexander.

Eighteen members and four visitors were present. Luncheon was served and a pleasant afternoon spent.
