

NEWS of SOCIETY

Mrs. Earl McPherson, of Seattle, Washington, who has been visiting in La Grande, the guest of Mrs. Lynn Wright, and Miss Helen McPherson, left here, under the invitation for a bridge party yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Ernest Veira entertained at the J. K. Wright home on Penn. Avenue.

During the afternoon's play Miss Mae Noll won high score. Guest prizes were presented to Mrs. McPherson and Miss McDonald. Bouquets of beautiful flowers decorated the home. At the close of the play a dainty luncheon was served.

Mrs. Adolph Stegert was hostess to the members of the Alpha Club yesterday afternoon at her home on Fifth street. An excellent luncheon was served at 1:15 o'clock after which bridge was played for the remainder of the afternoon.

Mrs. Clyde Kiddie won high score.

Mrs. F. J. Skala entertained Thursday afternoon at her home on Adams Avenue honoring Mrs. E. A. Hunter, Mrs. Charles Hauptmann, Mrs. Edwin Marvin, Mrs. C. E. Smith and Miss Virginia Hunter, all of Wallawa, who were visitors in La Grande that day. Bridge was the feature of the afternoon with Mrs. Marvin winning high score for first prize and the consolation prize going to Mrs. Charles Moore.

At the close of the play a delicious luncheon was served.

The Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. B. Pickens, with Mrs. Pickens, Mrs. Lynn Robinson and Mrs. L. I. Busby as hostesses. Twenty ladies were present and an enjoyable afternoon was spent. Mrs. Stella Ingie was in charge of the afternoon's program but she was out of town so there was no program.

After an interesting business session the afternoon was spent socially and a dainty luncheon was served.

The Smith-Conley annual reunion will be held at Riverside Park Sunday, June 21. A basket lunch will be served at noon in the park pavilion. A musical program and visiting will be the features during the afternoon. All relatives and their guests are invited.

THE woman who carries this type of handbag can be assured of a seat at any time and any place. To the unsuspecting mind there is nothing unusual about the bag except that it may be a little overgrown, but that is nothing as long as it is light, however, it contains a framework that is capable of being erected to form a comfortable seat for the not too heavy. For races, sports, sketching—and even in street cars when the men set out, it is highly recommended.

Our Budget System. A DECLARATION. To render the most dependable and courteous service. To the greatest possible number of people. At the lowest cost consistent with fair wages to the labor and capital employed. Giving and deserving fair treatment. thus To be a factor in upbuilding this community. Is the objective of this company. We hear much of the budget system these days. Families use it. Business houses use it. Now the United States government uses it. Light and Power companies, the country over, were one of the first groups of business to use this excellent business method. Eastern Oregon Light and Power company operates on a complete budget system. Work and finances are carefully planned. Best methods of work and the rendering of the best service are the result of careful planning for each one month, six months, one year and five years' periods. Good business judgment rather than politics is the basis of the company's business policy. Thus it is that private ownership and operation of Light and Power companies, with public regulation, renders good service at reasonable rates. Always at your service
