A diversified program featuring plenty of novelties and comedy bits is promised on the Vaudeville bill at the Arcade Theatre on Sunday next.

The outstanding attraction on this occasion is the incomparable Three, The Stine Trio, who are versatile entertainers. The delightful Stine Twins and Chip, the comedy midgit monogist, featuring Miss Mahlon Stone in a singing and dancing revue and acrobatic for dancing. Corfman and Carroll in "Two Tones of Brown" are entertainers of a somewhat different class than the usual run. Both are exponents of the art of blackface comedy. Morgan and Stevens in "Just for Fun". Miss Morgan has won a name for herself in vaudeville as a blues singer while Mr. Stevens is a capable comedian in a character of his own. Vicks and Lawrence in "Excentricities" do a little singing, a little talk, and a little dancing, and the whole makes for a very pleasing seven minutes. Wullich in a comedy novelty of juggling and sleight-of-hand papers has a world of smiles and witty sayings which serve to keep a fun-seeking audience in a happy frame of mind.
