

UNIONITES TO ATTEND CAMP

UNION (Special) — Mrs. Nellie Yaden, who teaches in the South school here left for Monmouth the last part of the week to be gone during the summer, returning to Union about the first of September.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church held a business meeting at the home of their president, Mrs. Sadie Connor, Wednesday afternoon at which time plans were laid for a combined Aid and Sunday school picnic, and for an ice cream social, both to be held during July.

Boys to Attend C. M. T.
Eight boys from Union will be in the training camp at Camp Lewis this summer, some of whom were there last year and some being rookies. Tuesday Eldon Campbell, Ralph Cook, Leslie Miller, Oral Rosewall, Lester Brown and Donald Lamb started for the training camp, and Wednesday the other two, George DeLap and Ralph Connor, also left for the same place. Bernard Shanks was to accompany the boys, but having moved to Pendleton a few weeks ago it is doubtful if he makes the trip.

Janita and Bobetta Wright, two Union girls who graduated from the Union high school recently, have secured contracts for schools for the coming year. They are planning to teach the school near the Stonedahl ranch up Catherine creek, and the latter having secured the school near Hot Lake. Janita has already gone to Bellingham to attend the normal during the summer and Bobetta is also planning to attend summer school.

Raymond Pitts and Roy Condit, the former being the science teacher and the latter the superintendent of the Union high school, have gone to the Willamette valley for several weeks review work in one of the state schools during the summer. They motored down to Eugene, and Mr. Pitts will bring his sister here for a visit with Mrs. Pitts while he will return to take up his summer school work.

Home Burned.
Word was received that the home of James DeVore, who lives on Clover creek, where he is running a ranch, burned last week while the family was visiting in Union. The dwelling and about five other buildings on the ranch were destroyed by the fire and all their household goods and clothing. It is believed that none of the livestock were in the buildings when the fire broke out. The family is temporarily living in a tent, as Mr. DeVore had to be in the ranch in order to take care of the stock and crops.

Dr. Little was over from Cove Friday on a business trip. He reported that the Cove Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, about fifty of them will motor to Meacham lake and attend the picnic given by the Pendleton lodge on the 20th of this month.

Accompanied by their guardian, Mrs. Ruby Kault, the Junior Campfire girls went to Cove Friday for a picnic. On their return to Union they enjoyed a lunch and program.

ONLY PHOTOGRAPH OF SHEPHERD TRIAL

Here is the first and only picture yet taken of the trial of William D. Shepherd in Chicago for the murder of Billy McClintock. The photographer who took it disregarded explicit orders barring all cameras from the room, taking his instrument in under his coat and snapping the picture without anyone becoming aware of it. State's Attorney Crowe is seen standing, addressing the jury, just selected, while Shepherd sits at the extreme left beside his attorneys.

and Mrs. El Child, a daughter.

Lewis Bickler, who has been at Hot Lake for the last few months suffering from an injured leg, underwent another operation a few days ago and is reported as somewhat better.

John Scarborough, William Kitchin, H. H. Bohring and W. V. Connor went to La Grande Saturday afternoon to attend the Odd Fellows meeting at which time it was decided to have a county picnic on Sunday, June 28. All the Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and their families are invited. The association will furnish coffee and ice cream for the picnic and the families will bring picnic dinners. Sports and other amusements will be furnished by the committees from the various lodges of the county. The picnic will be held at the La Grande city park if it can be obtained for that date and if not, at some other site selected by the president, M. Ellings.

George Hald, Tony Smith, Dean Hutchinson, and James Hutchinson were in La Grande Sunday to witness the baseball game.

Ray, Lyle, Clayton and Clive Wilson and their families and their mother, Mrs. A. E. Wilson, were here Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred N. Fox. Galvin Johnson was also a member of the party. They all enjoyed a picnic dinner at the city park.

While driving along Wallowa hill the latter part of the week, Sam Benson and Mrs. Benson and a number of other parties met with an accident which resulted in several of the occupants of his car receiving severe injuries, though no one was dangerously hurt. In a collision with another car his machine was upset and damaged considerably, besides the injuries to the parties in the car.

After a short visit with his family Sidney Yaden returned Saturday to Eagle Valley where he is employed by Mr. Shiller in his sheep business. Mr. Yaden was accompanied by his son, Elmer, who will spend the remainder of the summer in the mountains with his father.

L. A. Wright and H. H. Bonney spent last week on a fishing trip to the upper waters of the Deschutes river. Mr. Bonney formerly lived in that part of the state.

Fred Kohler and family have moved to Imbler where he will make his future home. He has charge of the Imbler and the Elgin cream stations.

Final Extermination Of All Migratory Birds Predicted

NEW YORK (AP)—The failure of 24 state legislatures to pass laws limiting daily bag limits on migratory game birds during the past winter shows that the unorganized defenders of wild life have been unable to wage up those legislatures to the threatened extinction of the wild ducks, geese, brant and other migratory birds now being slaughtered by millions of so-called sportsmen.

Mythical Treasurer Lures 7 Sailors To Vain Adventure

SAN PEDRO, Cal. (AP)—A long tale of was unfolded by seven members of a treasure-hunting expedition that arrived here recently in the purse-stealer Balboa after an unsuccessful search for $1,500,000 in gold bullion that was aboard the old Pacific Mail side-wheeler Golden Gate which burned and sank off Manzanillo, Mexico in 1862.

The Balboa, which left here May 2, returned May 27, battered from severe buffeting by wind and tide.

Several months ago C. G. Curry, a railway conductor of Leavenworth, Kan., and on his train a passenger who was said to be the only living person who knew the exact location of the sunken treasure. Curry purchased from the man charts of the treasure ship's location and formed a syndicate to find the golden hoard which, it was said, had lain more than 60 years, on the floor of the Pacific ocean.

A crew to man the Balboa was obtained here. It included Captain Clifford Casey, owner of the vessel; Robert Turner, a caretaker of a yacht club; Hans Pohlman, who was skipper of the racing yawl Polmettia; an engineer, a second mate and two seamen.

The remains of the Golden Gate they found off Manzanillo without difficulty. Efforts to reach the treasure which lay in eight fathoms of rough water proved unsuccessful, as a high surf and a heavy ground swell repeatedly upset their small skiff. Discouraged, the expedition put into Manzanillo, where they learned from the American consul that other treasure-hunters had recovered the bullion years ago.

The expedition then headed for San Pedro. Their return voyage was one of hardships. They encountered a gale that continued for days. Their food and fuel supplies ran short. Seven hungry, weary and disappointed men stepped off the Balboa when it docked here.

Final Extermination Of All Migratory Birds Predicted

NEW YORK (AP)—The failure of 24 state legislatures to pass laws limiting daily bag limits on migratory game birds during the past winter shows that the unorganized defenders of wild life have been unable to wage up those legislatures to the threatened extinction of the wild ducks, geese, brant and other migratory birds now being slaughtered by millions of so-called sportsmen.

Here in the east, apathy and opposition to killing reductions are barring all progress. The commercial interests have the upper hand. They have millions of dollars of capital to back them, and millions more at stake. They are able to block the passage of legislation that they do not like. The defenders of wild life who stand for reforms are without large funds, they are unorganized, and they are utterly unable to have personal representation in legislatures to introduce and back up laws for the better protection of the birds.

Reports made during the past hunting season covering much of the United States reveal an alarming diminution in our supply of migratory game birds. I am convinced the present limited volume of it will follow the long list of native American mammals and birds already locally extinct over wide areas. Nature lovers will not be able to prevail unorganized as they are, against the powerful, thoroughly organized and wealthy interests that put lawmakers to sleep with optimistic talk, and at the same time tooth the public.

EUGENE, Ore. — Smoking has been prohibited on the Hadlock creek watershed in the Cascade national forest, according to Nelson F. Macduff, supervisor of the forest. This covers 800 acres of forest which has been bought from the government by the Signal Lumber company. It has been designated as a special fire hazard.

Recent reports from unbiased observers in the south and in California, where wild fowl usually congregate in great numbers for winter food, bear out the predictions we made a few months ago that our migratory game birds are doomed. The

Negroes to Hold Meet At Denver, Colorado

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Denver will be the center of attraction for Negro people of the United States during the last week of June, when the 16th annual conference of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will be held. The conference, which will open with a mass meeting on the night of June 24, will continue through until the night of June 30.

Racial questions from every angle will be discussed by the conference, whose sessions will be held in Denver's municipal auditorium.

Among the speakers will be William E. Sweet, former governor of Colorado; Clarence Barrow, Chicago lawyer; Ben R. Lindsey, judge of Denver's juvenile court; and Representative E. C. Dyer of Missouri, who led a fight in Congress for the passage of a federal anti-lynching bill.

The issue of residential segregation of Negroes, which the association now is carrying to the United States Supreme Court, will be discussed by Dr. George W. Lucas, president of the New Orleans branch of the organization.

A feature of the conference will be the presentation of the Spingarn Medal, awarded annually to the American Negro for the most distinguished achievement in some honorable line of endeavor. Roland Hayes, famous negro tenor, was awarded the medal last year.

Ye towne crier

The picturesque town crier in knickerbockers, three-cornered hat and with insistent bell has passed into history. The daily newspaper has taken his place. Multiplied him. Amplified him. It is the great broadcaster of news today—vital, irreplaceable.

Where the town crier told dozens, the modern newspaper tells thousands. Tells them more. Tells them in the quiet of their homes, offices and shops. Not only news of current events, but news of merchandise to be had at the stores.

Get that enlarged meaning of the word "news." Advertisements are news. They keep you abreast of the newest developments in science and manufacture. They are trail-blazers of progress. They are confidential secretaries to the family exchequer.

Read the advertisements. Read them regularly. Because they are interesting. Because they are true. Because they point the way to better merchandise, backed by responsible dealers and manufacturers. Because they save time, money and shoe-leather.

The reader of newspaper advertisements is better informed. He or she knows who sells the finest rugs; who serves the best luncheon in town; who has the newest styles in hats, shoes, coats; where the best shows are playing; who's starring in that film at the "Palace." You, too, can be well informed.

Advertisements are torch-bearers of human progress. They show you who, what, when and where.
