Kellogg Not Pleasing Nations to the South

is what makes Latin-Americans so sensitive. Each Latin-American republic takes more or less to itself any such call-down from Washington of a single one of their number as Secretary Kellogg handed out to President Calles.
They all understand perfectly that Mexico was the only one meant in this instance. The bulk of the people, at any rate in the more southerly republics, look down on the Mexican masses as ignorant savages.
The men who make public opinion have no sympathy with radicalism. Many of them consider politicians like Calles dangerous and wouldn't mind telling him so themselves, as Latin-Americans to a Latin-American.
But they don't enjoy having a North American do it.
After all's said and done, Mexico's a Latin-American republic. They, too, are Latin-American republics.

Overhearing Secretary Kellogg's plain talk to President Calles, they glance at one another and wonder, "Which of us is due for the next scolding?"
The implied answer is, "Be good and you'll never be scolded."
But what supposedly free people like feeling that it must be "good," according to some stronger people's idea of goodness being scolded?

Among his fellow-North American Secretary Kellogg is getting

ELKDOM WILL OWN PORTLAND

Many floats are being prepared for this parade. Anchorage, Alaska, the most northerly lodge, has announced that it will be represented by a float. The parade is being planned under the direction of Charles H. Grakelov, of Philadelphia, grand esquire.
John G. Price of Columbus, O., grand exalted ruler, will come with an escort on a special train which will be chartered by Detroit Lodge, No. 24.
The local committees have arranged a lively program for the entertainment of the visitors. There will be a climb of Mount Hood, a snow-capped peak about 60 miles from Portland. About 2,000 are expected to make this climb Friday and Saturday, July 17 and 18. There will be trips to Longview, Wash., to visit big sawmills; to Oregon City to see the paper mills; to Vancouver, Wash., to see the site of Fort Vancouver, which was established 150 years ago; to Oregon ocean beaches, and trips over Columbia river and Mount Hood loop highways.
Sessions of the grand lodge will be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.
Buffalo Cart a Pageant Feature
CALGARY, Alta. (AP) — Two full-grown Alberta buffaloes hitched to a cart and driven are to be a feature of an historical pageant July 6 to mark the 60th anniversary of the founding of the city of Calgary.
When two cowboys first began breaking the bison to harness they were almost unapproachable, but were soon "gentle broken," following anyone who showed them a tin of oats.

much credit for "frankness" in talking to Mexico. The trouble is, what North Americans call "frankness" Latin-Americans are apt to call "insulting."
This is serious, even if the Latin-American country it's addressed to deserves it, considering that it angers all the rest—not dangerous in any military sense, but bad business.
Other nations which want Latin-America's good will, including the English, who are supposed to be briefly hygienic, had better pause. England, for instance, can be mighty "frank" in telling Egypt or some pretty Hindu subject potentate "where to get off at," but where she has commercial interests at stake she knows too well which side her bread's buttered on.
And fool ourselves as we like, she, and all the rest, are a lot more popular in Latin-America than we are.
And don't make the mistake of thinking Latin-Americans haven't noticed we're not so "frank" ourselves in talking with really formidable powers.

STOCKHOLM SEES END OF SHORTAGE IN HOUSES.
STOCKHOLM, (AP) — More than 60,000 people have already taken advantage of the order of the day in Sweden. By its recent vote the national legislature has sustained the proposal of the Social-Democratic government to cut down the number of army corps from six to four and to reduce all army and navy expenditures accordingly.

Wasn't it about this time of year when Hip Van Winkle went to sleep and slept 20 years?
