

NEWS of SOCIETY

A pretty June wedding took place yesterday afternoon between three and four o'clock at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church with Reverend Elmer Grant Keith officiating, when Miss Lucille Gardner and Lester Courtney, both of this city, were united in marriage. About fifteen relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present.

The young people are both well known in La Grande. Miss Gardner graduated from the La Grande high school with the class of 1922 and Mr. Courtney is employed in the Higgins Grocery store here. They will make La Grande their home.

The regular monthly meeting of the World Wide Guild of the Baptist church was held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. S. Lester. During the business meeting officers were elected for the new quarter as follows: Miss Benjie Oliver, president; Miss Cornelia Hansen, secretary-treasurer and Miss Marian Harris, Scotcher. Reports were heard from the various committees.

The lesson for the afternoon was on the last chapter of the study book, "Ming Kwong," and was given by Misses Bertha and Florence Nelson. Miss Mabel Schaefer led in the devotion. The guild has been dressing dolls to be sent to Chinese children for Christmas and at the meeting Saturday the group with the best dressed doll was awarded a prize. The doll represented a red cross nurse. Miss Mabel Schaefer was also awarded a prize for the best paper on the fifteen points in World Wide Guild work.

Before adjournment a delicious luncheon was served by the hostesses with covers laid for sixteen. A beautiful pink rose served as placards. The home was decorated with baskets of various flowers of the season.

During the luncheon the W. W. G. home party at Gladstone Park was discussed. The home party will take place the last of July.

The first of the series of Junior Country Club dancing parties this season will take place tomorrow evening at the club. Invitations have been issued and the best of music engaged for the occasion. Many young people of La Grande who have been away to college during the winter months have returned home and a large crowd is expected.

The members of the committee in charge of the dance are Mrs. A.

W. Nelson, Mrs. E. L. Holman, Mrs. S. D. Crowe and Mrs. William Sieg-ris.

Miss Constance Cleaver entertained with a delightful luncheon Saturday honoring Miss Loretta Pierce, who spent the week with at the Cleaver home, and Miss Helen Williams. After a delicious luncheon was served the time was spent socially.

Miss Irma Yvonne Martin, daughter of Ag J. Martin, 1204 Fourth street of this city, and E. W. Ferguson, former manager of the Somers Hotel here, were united in marriage at the White Temple Baptist church in Portland on the evening of June 25, at eight o'clock by the Reverend Thomas J. Vilens, according to announcement received in La Grande this morning. They were attended by Earl J. Stearns, best man, and Florence Salvon, as bridesmaid.

For the time being they will make Portland their home. They will go to Seaside for a short honeymoon trip.

Announcements

Social announcements may be printed in this column free of charge. Any announcements pertaining to any functions such as cooked food sales, etc., will be refused. Announcements to be printed the same day, must be in society editor's hands by 9:00 o'clock. — News editor's note.

The annual Sunday school picnic of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school will be held at Riverside Park Tuesday afternoon. Everyone is asked to meet at the church at 2:15 o'clock with their lunch baskets.

The Parkside Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Eliza Adler, 501 Park, Wednesday afternoon, July 1.

The Sons and Daughters of Pioneers will hold a meeting Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the city hall to arrange for the annual pioneer meeting. A large attendance is desired.

Sister Mary Says:

Breakfast — Stewed prunes, cereal, thin cream, crisp whole wheat toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon — Stuffed baked potatoes, brown bread, strawberries, drop cakes, milk, tea.

Dinner — Boiled salmon with fish sauce, new potatoes, beet greens, lettuce salad with Roquefort dressing, lemon meringue pie, rye bread, milk, coffee.

Children four years of age may eat the fish, greens, and finely shredded lettuce without the dressing suggested for dinner. A cake left from luncheon and a dish of prunes might be served for their dessert.

Stuffed Baked Potatoes

Six good sized potatoes, 5 tablespoons finely minced uncooked veal, 1 slice bacon finely minced, 2 drops onion juice, 2 tablespoons dried bread crumbs, 1 egg.

Wash potatoes well, and remove the centers, the long way of the potato. An apple corer should be used if at hand. Do not cut thru the potato but leave half an inch at the end. Combine bacon and veal with crumbs and mix thoroughly. Add onion juice and egg, unbeat. Mix well and fill potatoes with mixture. Place on end in a dripping pan and bake 1 hour in a hot oven. The cut end of the potato should be up. Serve like ordinary baked potatoes.

NORMAL ROLL IS LARGER

MONMOUTH, Ore.—Enrollment for the summer session of the normal school reached 1977 and reservations have been made which will increase this number to 1150 before the middle of the session. These figures do not represent the work being done at Pendleton under direction of the normal school. This enrollment is an increase of 77 over the enrollment of last summer, which included those at Pendleton. The average enrollment during the 1924-25 school year was 750.

Minerva Says---

A woman had a narrow escape of being a cripple for life by wearing a pair of old run-over shoes. But a good friend favored her by inducing her to buy a pair of Arch-Aid Oxfords which corrected her ailment and put her on easy street.

Oh, joy! I never knew what comfort was before, she said. Just like walking on feathers. My feet don't hurt at all, and I do not seem half as tired when night comes. More people would wear them if they only knew how good they feel. I got mine at THE BOOTERY. They have all sizes and widths and can sure give you a good fit.

So Practical and Neat

For traveling, shopping and general wear, this "frock" of navy-blue that crepe fills the bill perfectly. It has the new Eton jacket effect, softened by a rippling jabot front. Two wide pleats provide ample room at the hemline.

Foreigners Justified In Firing on Chinese ness by "Europeans"—all aliens, including the Japanese, classed as "Europeans" in China.

But in case of anti-foreign disorders, what are these friends of the natives to do? They needn't imagine a mob of ignorant coolies will make any distinctions in their favor.

It's up to them to help stand off the rush—or be cut up into contempt—and do their protesting later. And the police policy is to let no rashness gain momentum.

There are so many Chinese that they're mighty hard to stop when they fairly get started.

Quite likely Cunningham had something of this kind in mind in his defense of the Shanghai international police, rather than a defense of the general conduct of "Europeans" in China.

Even a small mix-up with a crowd of the Chinese coolie class is unpleasant and the rapidly with which such affairs start in alarming.

Our rather late one night in Shanghai the year before the war, an American friend and I stopped on the way to our hotel for a bite to eat at the Carlton club, a fashionable restaurant in the foreign quarter.

My idea was to pay off our "rickshaw coolies" and let them go—"rickshaw" being a small two-wheeled rig in which the passenger sits at ease, while the coolie runs between the shafts in front. My companion's notion was that it would be better to have them wait outside.

Well, they did. Finishing our lunch and coming out 20 minutes later, we couldn't pick our way out from the 75 to 100 of their kind gathered at the club entrance. Sensing our dilemma, the whole swarm bore down on us. Of course our two were among them and entitled to their money but it was hopeless to try to identify them. A riot started.

In about one minute that street was packed with a jabbering throng of Chinese—and not one chance under heaven of explaining ourselves. For all most of the mob knew, we'd killed somebody.

Retiring into the club, we bolted the door while the manager telephoned for the Siks—the Indian police. The "settlement" mainly depends on.

The row being a trifling affair, it took only half a dozen Siks to break it up—with the butt ends of their carbines. I'll say, however, that we were glad to see those Siks, and I think I understand Consul General Cunningham's viewpoint, even though he may have been sorry for the Chinese killed in the recent disturbances.

As for our two coolies of course they lost the money we owed them and maybe were "beaten" by the

CARRS

Dean Inge Now Advocates Sunshine and Sea Baths

LONDON (AP)—By way of a change from religious and philosophical topics Dean Inge has entered the realm of hygiene. Presiding at a dinner of the Sunlight League, which aims at the abolition of smoke and stoma, he said in his opinion sea bathing could be employed to the betterment of health.

"The present practice," he continued, "of mixing bathing with the body completely clothed may be an agreeable social function, but hygienically it is practically useless. I deprecate the absurd restrictions of home of the town councils of our seaports in this connection. I suggest that at certain parts of the day on certain parts of the beach, men be encouraged to run about with the minimum amount of clothing, an exceedingly healthy recreation.

Only a few more shopping months before summer.
