A beautiful June wedding took place last evening at eight o'clock at the McDonald farm home near here when Miss Helen McDonald, daughter of Mrs. Emma McDonald and the late Peter McDonald, was united in marriage to William Horne McNab, of Berkeley, California. Reverend S. W. Creasey performed the ceremony which took place on the lawn in front of the house.

The spacious yard was banked with fir trees and the large porch was an altar of flowers. The wedding party stood under an arch of greenery and flowers. Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Miss Gladys Miller. Miss Mina Ash was maid of honor and George McDonald, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The bride's cousin, William C. March, of Seattle, gave the bride away.

Miss McDonald wore an exquisite gown of white satin with godets of chiffon and real lace, the lace being twenty years old and a gift of her aunt, Mrs. F. N. Ayres, of Caldwell, Idaho. Her bridesmaid wore a gown of white tulle and lace, held in place by wreaths of orange blossoms. Her handkercher was also of white lace. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, roses and white sweetpeas. The bridesmaid wore a dress of yellow chiffon, trimmed with ostrich and carried lavender sweetpeas.

Before the wedding march Paul Knauts sang "Bliss" and "To Love" and "I Love You Truly."

Sixty relatives and close friends of the McDonalds were present and following the marriage a reception was given for Mr. and Mrs. McNab. The rooms were decorated with delphinium, gladioli and roses.

After a honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. McNab will make their home in Berkeley, California, where Mr. McNab is in business.

Mrs. William Stegrial and Mrs. S. D. Crowe.

Mr. and Mrs. William Patton celebrated their Silver Wedding Anniversary, Sunday, June 28, at their home at 2507 Spruce street. The rooms were tastefully decorated with flowers, the color scheme and wedding favors being carried out in pink and white.

A mock marriage was performed. Their daughter, Edith, played the wedding march. The bride wore lavender and carried a bouquet of white lilies presented by Mrs. Frank King, of May Park. The bridesmaids, Mesdames Koster and Park, carried Shasta daisies. Peggy O'Neal, the little granddaughter of the bride and groom was ring bearer and T. J. Black officiated.

Congratulations followed the ceremony after which Mr. Patton, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. O'Neal, conducted the presentation of silver gifts from relatives and friends. Mrs. O'Neal read a poem entitled "Silver Nuptials" composed by Mrs. D. H. Proctor for the occasion.

Charles Cain in well selected words said grace before a buffet luncheon which was served at six o'clock. The wedding cake was sent by the bride's mother, Mrs. C. A. Parker, from Amunika, North Dakota and contained a wedding ring which Mrs. Parker found.

Toasts and music together with cheerful reminiscences followed.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Buck, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cain, Mr. and Mrs. August Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rhine, Mr. and Mrs. W. Koeler, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Park, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Howley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Neal and children, Peggy and Billy, and Mr. and Mrs. Patton and son, Glen.

Mysterious and Interesting

PERHAPS they got the idea for this motor coat from the fire man's outfit or an Eskimo's top coat. At any rate, it is very smart in black, white and red wool, with the new pleated ruffle and a cape that can be worn as a hood. It indicates a return of the waistline.

Plans for the railroad from Union to Cove are progressing rapidly. The surveyors are with us. The depot grounds are laid out near Mr. McDonald's flouring mill. We understand that the work on the grading will start next week. The next time the pioneers must at Cove they will not have the dust and trails of an overland trip but may glide smoothly in on the cushioned seats of a palace car.

Blessed are the bootleggers for they have inherited a large part of this earth.

Sister Mary Says:

Breakfast—Halves of grapefruit, soft cooked eggs, graham muffins, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Cream of potato soup, toasted crackers, cottage cheese and jelly sandwiches, prune whip with custard sauce, milk, tea.

Dinner—Broiled sirloin, steak, mashed potatoes, cabbage and pine apple salad, creamed string beans, Washington cream pie, rice bread, milk, coffee.

The salad for small persons must be very finely minced and served with plain lemon juice and olive oil.

The "platter" gravy from the steak should be served to the youngest members of the family first and up through the ages as far as the gravy will go. This is the juice of the meat and most nourishing. Pour it over bread or potatoes.

Poultrymen War on Rats with Poison Gas

TACOMA (AP)—Plans are now being laid for a gas attack on the rats that are causing poultrymen of western Washington a loss of thousands of dollars a year. The United States biological survey, experiment station of the State college of Agriculture and the poultrymen, through their association, are cooperating in the warfare.

The method of attack will be to force calcium cyanide into the rat burrows under building floors and foundations. The calcium cyanide, coming into contact with the moisture of the air, forms hydrocyanic acid gas, in a concentration in which no animal can live.

Recently a demonstration of this gas was held on a poultry farm near here under the supervision of Dr. Leo K. Couch of the biological survey. On this farm were four buildings housing 3500 hens and made an nearly rat proof as possible. This, however, had burrowed under the cement floors and foundations and through the easterly itself, causing a loss in grain and poultry estimated at $1000 a year.

The calcium cyanide was pumped into the burrows, and 163 dead rats were taken out. These are believed to be only a part of those killed.

If you would be healthy and wealthy and wise never laugh at a woman with tears in her eyes.
