English metropolis in the event of another emergency. One of the inventions on display in various parts of the city was a sound locator, a very complicated instrument, and one of the most interesting of the many anti-aircraft devices showed to Londoners.

In the early days of the war the only sound locator was, of course, the human ear. Commander Hutchinson, royal navy, then in charge of the "scanty air" defenses of the city was a sound locator, a very complicated instrument, and one of the most interesting of the many anti-aircraft devices showed to Londoners.

La Grande Theatres

Notable Cast in Humorous Film At Sherrys.

The great Broadway stage play by Aaron Hoffman, "Welcome Stranger," has been brought to the screen with one of the greatest casts ever assembled. Practically every one in this uproariously funny film, which is now being shown at the Sherrys Theatre, is a star of a kind.

Dave Davidson, well-known character actor, who scored such a triumph in "Humoresque," has the role of Isidore Solomon, which George Sidney made famous on the stage. Florence Vidor, most recently seen in the title role of "Barbara Frietchie," has the leading feminine role of Mary Clark. Virginia Browne Price, remembered for her work as Harry Carey's leading woman in "The Lightning Rider," plays Solomon's daughter, Kasia.

Others in the all-notable cast are Robert Edison, veteran of both stage and screen, Noah Beery, well-known "heavy," Lloyd Hughes, Wm. V. Moon, Otis Harlan, Fred J. Butler, and Pat Harrigan.

As a play, "Welcome Stranger" ran for two consecutive years in New York and Chicago, where it broke all consecutive performance and box office records. It was adapted for the screen by James Young and Willard Mack. Comedy showing "The Fox Hunt."

Jannings Has Big Role in "Quo Vadis."

"When Emil Jannings is right there isn't a greater screen artist in the world."

The compliment came from George Gerhardt, the New York "Evening World's" photoplay critic, and it was well deserved. The beauty of it is that Jannings is practically always "right."

In his latest production, the new and gigantic version of "Quo Vadis," which First National will present at the Arcade theater today, Jannings is declared to have outshined himself. His role of Nero is said to be one of the most realistic characterizations ever filmed. It establishes him as one of the foremost screen stars.

Jannings' rise to fame on the American screen has been meteoric. While born in America, of German parents, his screen life has been confined chiefly to Europe.
