Street Lighting Costs 72 Cents Per Capita

The average cost of street lights in the United States is about 72 cents per capita, per annum, according to the Oregon Public Utilities Information Bureau.

In the entire of the United States with a population of about 100,000,000 the average street lighting charge per capita, per annum, is about 72 cents, from 10,000 to 20,000 population, 45 cents to 20,000 to 50,000, 75 cents and from 50,000 to 100,000, 85 cents. The average for the nation is about 72 cents.

For every dollar of city tax the street lighting tax must run from 10 to 20 cents, the average being about 15 cents. The average for the nation is about 15 cents.

Operation of public utilities has been developed to such an extent that the human element entering into it has diminished, and the part of perfection, says the Oregon Public Utilities Information Bureau.

This survey showed that at all suspensions of service, from whatever cause, only one or two are caused by human error, the remainder being due to the equipment.

Champion at Home

THE dunce has never had any particular standing in his community, but this year his hat is becoming quite the vogue.

Filipino with Notable U. S. Army Career Dead

MANILA (AP)—Major Crispino Patajo (Filipino), retired, one of the first Filipinos to obtain a commission in the U. S. Army, is dead.

The late Major General J. Franklin Bell, who saw much service in the Philippines during the insurrection, recognized Patajo's name in the army and is said to have introduced in a large degree the success of several engagements in Northern Luzon.

Retired from the army, after 29 years of service, Major Patajo acquired extensive agricultural interests in Central Luzon.

Is a Lion afraid of a cock?

Medieval wisecracks used to wag their heads and tell tales like this in the village marketplace.

An amusing superstition, of course, but is it any more absurd than the belief that there is something mysteriously "better" about eastern motor oils just because they cost more and come from eastern crudes?

Zero-lene—the choice of Western Motorists

Zero-lene lubricates more cars in the Pacific Coast states than any other oil made—a better oil if it does cost less.

Zero-lene checked fifteen times for quality

As a matter of fact the best crude so far discovered for the manufacture of motor lubricants is obtained on the Pacific Coast.

Why pay tribute to superstition when you want the best oil you can get?

Insist on Zero-lene—ask for it by name.
