Great Lariat Skill Displayed in "West of Arizona."

Pete Morrison, who with beautiful Betty Goodwin and Lightning, the wonder horse, will be seen in "West of Arizona" at the Sherry theater today only, is one of the best rope artists in the West. Morrison, with Miss Goodwin, is trapped by pursuers at the edge of a deep chasm, and no way to turn. He throws his lariat and loops it around a tree stump on the opposite cliff, turns Lightning loose to find his way home, then ties Miss Goodwin to his body and swings off into space, crossing hand-over-hand to the other side and safety. The scene is photographed in a wild mountain section and is one of many thrilling moments of the story.

IMBLER NEWS OF THE WEEK

IMBLER, Ore. (Special) — The Fourth of July was celebrated with due ceremony at Enterprise with all day fun and merriment. It started in the morning with a parade, one of the best ever seen in Eastern Oregon and continued throughout the afternoon with the program at the race track the center of interest and ended with the display of fireworks in the evening. Many of the Imbler people spent the fourth in Enterprise, going from there to the lake.

The annual Fourth of July celebration given at Elgin and attended by a large crowd from Imbler, was a complete success in every way. There was even a larger number of people than at past celebrations in attendance and everybody, especially the children, had a wonderful time. There were athletic contests and races of all kinds. In the evening a dance, which was attended by several hundred couples, was held in the dance hall.

Week-End Trips Popular.

Week-end trips proved very popular with many Imblerites this Fourth. Catherine creek and Indian creek had many who celebrated the day with fishing and having a general good time. Some went out Friday night, others early Saturday morning. One party, composed of six carloads, left Friday for Minam lakes. It was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Westenskov, Mr. and Mrs. J. McElride, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Skillings and family, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Westenskov and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Lanman Westenskov and family. They report the best time of the season and the prize as the champion catfish was awarded to R. McElride who consumed twenty hotcakes and liked ten miles afterwards.

Mrs. Lily J. Stringham was hostess Tuesday afternoon for the Imbler City card club at her home in Imbler. Guests were invited to make up four tables of bridge, Mrs. Clyde Kiddie winning high score and Mrs. Carl Purkin consolation. A dainty luncheon was served at the close of the game.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Lily H. Kiddie and Mrs. Baskett Andrews entertained in honor of Mrs.

Anna May Warren of Bibles, Arizona. The afternoon was spent at bridge with three tables at play. Miss Carolyn Rosenthal and Mrs. Fred Kiddie winning first and second prizes. Mrs. H. W. Fox, cup prize and Miss Anna May Warren, most prize. Delicious refreshments were served.

A delightful picnic party was given last week on the lawn of the Imbler church. Miss Mary McKee, who has been holding evangelistic services for the past two weeks in Imbler, had charge of the party. During the evening the question of having a minister take charge of the Imbler district was discussed.

A class in Bible study has been formed in Imbler. This class will meet every week at the home of some member of the class. This coming week Mrs. J. W. McFall will have the class at her home and the subject to be discussed will be "Faith." A cordial invitation is extended to all in the valley to attend these meetings.

Greater in Numbers, and in Buying Power

Announcement has been made of the addition of 105 new Stores to our already long list.

From a business viewpoint, such achievement is truly remarkable, but from the Customer's standpoint it means nothing more than what the combination of 676 Stores can and will do to provide him with goods of standard quality at such low prices as will afford a real saving of money.

Increased need of merchandise with the resulting increased power to buy, makes our position as leading nation-wide retailers unassailable.

Under Your Fingers

A WORLD'S FAIR spreads itself quietly before you—the spectacular improvements that are blazoned across the years, and the little day-by-day improvements that give you new comforts and conveniences for a dime, a quarter, a dollar.

Daily, through the advertising columns of this paper, you can view the gleaming counters and show windows of world marts. Without effort you can pass from one display to another; without lifting an article, be certain of its worth.

If you read the advertisements, you read of goods worthy of a nation's notice—goods held up for a nation to examine. You read of dependable goods that give solid value, that help you save.

You can put your confidence into the widely advertised, for they carry their own guarantee of satisfaction. That satisfaction is the "how" of them.

Read the advertisements to spend safely—to be sure of goods that please. Take advantage of these daily displays.
