Earthquakes Not Hard To Forecast, Is Claim

tently to this theory's correctness they certainly are abrupt enough.

However, there are advance warnings. A ship equipped with the Hayes sounding device charts the ocean floor in the autumn, say, and of Santa Barbara.

The following spring she takes fresh soundings and finds deeper water in some places than before. The best guess is that a submarine fault has slipped.

Something like a rubber ball, the earth, pressed down in one spot, tends to rise somewhere else. Up to the investigators, having discovered downward pressure evidently is being exerted, to determine where the corresponding upward tilt is to be expected.

By following the line of the fault this isn't difficult to do—and quite exactly.

Mystery Girl

Marquess de Glarey, 12, who was robbed and stranded in Denison, O., told police there she was a first cousin of Pola Negri, screen star. The actress denies ever having heard of the girl, however, and the Ohio authorities cannot find out where she came from.

Facists Buy, Suspend Papers in Opposition

ROME, (AP)—Buying and suppressing opposition newspapers is the newest scheme of controlling public opinion resorted to by influential Facists who are ever resourceful in their efforts to find ways and means of carrying out their avowed policy of Fascistizing the nation at any price.

Initial use of the plan at Parma where the city's two newspapers, Il Piccolo, a Democratic opposition publication sheet and La Gazzetta, a Liberal organ, were purchased and then abandoned has aroused considerable criticism in journalistic circles where the scheme is characterized as an intolerant and unjustified means of choking the liberty of the press.

Disapproval of the Parma transaction where the two opposition newspapers were taken up by an apparently non-political business syndicate and then dropped to leave the newspaper field wide open for a newly founded Fascist daily, is especially keen because the Gazzetta was one of the oldest founded newspapers in Italy, having been founded in 1754, and because both of the abandoned newspapers had advanced their political ideas with dignity and constraint, never having been suppressed or warned by the governmental press censor.

State Monopoly of Sugar And Tea Proposed by Persia

BAGDAD, (AP)—Decision of the Persian government to put through a bill to empower it to take of the import and sale of tea and sugar in Persia as a state monopoly has aroused considerable feeling in commercial circles here.

The seriousness of the matter from the local point of view may be gauged from the fact that, except for cotton piece goods, a very large proportion of the considerable re-export trade from this country to Persia consists of tea and sugar. The buying arrangements in Europe and India have until now remained in the hands of Baghdad middlemen. Persian merchants not as a rule buying further afield than this city. Presumably, the Persian government intends to make its own arrangements in Europe, and to cut out the Baghdad middleman altogether.

NEW BOARD AUTHORIZED HOOD RIVER, Ore.—Union Pacific officials, here from Portland and the Hood River Traffic association received word from the American Railway association that a petition for a northwest regional advisory board had been granted.

The new board will have charge of pro rating car supplies to all shippers of commodities in the northwest. An organization meeting will be held in Portland.

Formerly the northwestern car supply was pro-rated by a regional advisory board, composed of shipper and rail officials in California. A petition for the northwest body was presented to the railway association at a meeting in Fresno, Cal., in May.

LEVENS RAIS KIAMATH
KIAMATH FALLS, Ore.—So far as liquor violations are concerned, Kiamath Falls is the worst city in Oregon, declared W. R. Levens, state prohibition commissioner, here. Mr. Levens is trying to oust the old of business men in a clean-up campaign, and is holding a public meeting this week for a full and frank discussion of the liquor question in this city. The prohibition commissioner has had agents here for the past few weeks making liquor investigations, and his coming to the city is understood to have been caused by reports from his agents of lack of public support in efforts to suppress the liquor traffic.

WILL RESCUE OLD IRONSIDES
The demonstration on the field opened with a spectacular review in which each competing drill team of 16 men, uniforms of white with purple Sani Brown belts, white caps and sabres, executed military formations in near perfect style.

PORTLAND, Ore. (By the Associated Press)—The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks grand lodge in session here in the sixty-first annual reunion, decided to get behind the movement to raise a fund for reconditioning the historic triage hospital and agreed to cooperate with the navy department in promoting "old ironides" week in the public schools October 10 to 24.

A resolution offered by James R. Nicholson of Boston, past grand exalted ruler, pledging the order's support in the movement was adopted. William J. Sinek, past exalted ruler of Chusaro lodge, was receiving congratulations on Chicago's convention. He was asked that the northwest lodge would send large delegations to the convention.
