KLAMATH BOY RESCUED

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore.—Jack Dean, a woodchuck worker saved the life of Arthur Raymond, 2, who had fallen into the main canal of the irrigation district in the heart of the city. Dean witnessed the accident from a bridge a block distant and despite the fact that he had just recovered from a severe illness, he plunged into the water and reached the boy as he was going down the third time.

The youngster was quickly revived and carried to his home.

La Grande Theatres

Final Showing of "The Air Hawk" At Sherrys Tonight.

Fighting tooth and nail in grinding hand to hand conflict on the wings of an airplane hundreds of feet in the air, missing his step and almost plunging to a ghastly death on the rocks below, is but one of the thrills developed with amazing skill in "The Air Hawk," the films of the entertaining A.V. Wilson aviation stunt melodrama which comes to the Sherry Theatre today only.

Wilson, called by critics the "Horseman of the Heavens," has established himself as one of the most popular of the cinema stars by his daring exploits in the clouds. The first won honors as an Ace in the French Flying Corps during the World War and later in the ranks of the Yankee aviators. Then came his jump to the movies where he intends to remain for some time to come. In addition to being the best stunt man in pictures Wilson is also a fine actor. The leading woman in "The Air Hawk" is beautiful Virginia Brown Faire.

A 2 reel comedy is also being shown.

unusual skill as acrobats, say they were the regular duties for the two slapstick comedians. "It is well known that the most difficult part of movie comedy making is the acrobatic aspects," says Mr. Borg. "Neither Mr. Lloyd nor Mr. Pollard are acrobats. Therefore, they must hire that talent when necessary. I doubted for the hesperated Mr. Lloyd when Lloyd first went into pictures and have continued since. I have also doubted for Larry Simon. Mr. English often took the place of Mr. Pollard when it was necessary that that individual fall on his teeth." Both are simple pure replicas of the movie stars and are quite capable of doubling, even in close-ups.

The added attraction, another comedy riot, Foster and Foster, "The Volunteer Pianist," is a comedy skit devoid of plot. The reason, however, is always furnished for the many really funny bits introduced throughout the offering by these clever artists.

Carl Zeile & Sandre, appear in "The Southern Girl," with songs and stunts. Marion is a delineator of the southern darkey and has the faculty of putting their mannerisms and humor over the foot lights.

Orchestra and pictures also will be featured on the Bill.

"The Denial" To Be Shown At Sherrys.

"The Denial" will be at the Sherry Theatre for 2 days beginning on Sunday. It is a story of two periods—of today and the time of the Spanish-American war showing the outcome of two romances that were best with similar difficulties.

Clara Windsor, who plays the leading role, is well appearing both as a girl of 1897 and as a mother of 45 at the present day. The part is a distinct novelty for this actress and the report is that she has the opportunity for some fine character work.

William Haines is the 1897 youth with whom Mildred (Miss Windsor) is in love. Bert Roach, who made such a hit in "Excuse Me," as the bibulous salesman, is his rival. Edward Connelly, the Metro favorite, and Emily Fitzroy appear as the girl's parents, one meek and quiet. The other domineering and ponderous.

Billy Eugene plays the role of Mildred's brother, who gets mixed up with an 1897 "fash" woman, while Vivian O'Brien appears as the gossipy Aunt Effie.

In the modern sections Lucille Rickson, the film sub-deb, and Robert Aknew are seen as the lovers.

Also showing the comedy built on a bluff.
