Drama Teacher Named

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Eugene—The appointment of Miss Florence E. Wilbur, a graduate of Cornell university and director of the drama extension department of the Community Arts association to be instructor in drama and play production at the University of Oregon, was announced by Dr. James H. Gilbert, acting dean of the college of literature, science and the arts. She will begin her work in the fall term.

As the department of drama and the speech arts was abolished by the university board of regents last spring, Miss Wilbur will become a member of the faculty of the English department, which hereafter will have the play production work as part of its activities.

Hobbed Hair War Closes School

VIENNA (AP)—A fight over hobbed hair recently necessitated the closing of the university here for a short time. Nationalistic students in an encounter with the social democratic faction pulled the hair of the girls students of the latter group and berated them for wearing it hobbed. The girls were finally rescued by their brother students and 14 of the reactionaries were arrested.

PETITION

In the County Court of the State of Oregon for Union County.

In the Matter of the Adoption of John W. Stout, a minor.

Know all men, that Ernest N. Olson and Eva I. Olson, his wife, do hereby petition the County Court of the State of Oregon, and committed by the said court to the Hospital for the Insane at Pendleton, Oregon, and is now insane and in the said hospital.

That the Father of the said minor is Clarence M. Stout, and is not in the State of Oregon, but resides in the State of Washington, and is now in the State of Washington. That the Father of said minor has not furnished any thing toward the support of the said minor child nor given it any care or attention since its birth.

That the next of kin of the said minor in this state except the mother

There is his grandmother residing at La Grande, Ore. That your petitioners own their own home, and are sober and industrious, and Ernest N. Olson is a concrete worker and carpenter, and provides the home well, that your petitioners are able, willing, and will provide well for the said minor child and educate it properly.

That the said minor has no means of support and is without any home, and is depending upon the county and charity for its sustenance, and that your petitioners desire to adopt the said minor, that their residence and address is 1202 9th St. La Grande, Oregon.

Wherefore your petitioners pray that the court order that they adopt the said minor child, John W. Stout, and that his name be changed to Melvin Ernest Olson.
