THREE MILLION RAISED.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — More than $2,000,000 has been raised for the American Legion fund for disabled veterans and orphans of the World war, according to an announcement made here today by National Commander James A. Driscoll, of the Legion.

Twenty-one states are reported "over the top." Oklahoma is the latest to reach its quota, with a total of $75,000.

Through the raised eye can see only three or four thousand stars; the telescope and the photograph prove that there are really 25 or 40 billion of them, or 25 times as many as there are living people on the earth.

BRYAN TELLS WHY HE QUIT

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Milton A. Miller of Portland, an intimate friend of the late William Jennings Bryan, revealed Tuesday an account that Bryan gave him in 1920 of why he happened to quit the cabinet of President Wilson.

Miller said Mr. Bryan told him the United States was having trouble with Austria during the summer of 1915 and it was thought the Austrian embassy was plotting with the German war office to cripple American plans.

Mr. Bryan prepared a note which Mr. Wilson approved and Bryan sent it to the cable office after delivering a copy to the Austrian ambassador, Dr. Montanin Theodor Dumbas, with the statement that the note to Austria would be sent the same as the copy, Dumbas received.

Note Changed. A few days later Dumbas called at the state department in an angry mood and said the note as received by his government was different from that he had received from Mr. Bryan.

Later Mr. Bryan got the original copy from the cable office and he is quoted as saying "to my mortification I found President Wilson had obtained the copy from the cable office before it was sent and had marked many of the clauses of mine and had inserted in his own handwriting a great deal of matter I knew nothing about."

"I went to the president and he offered no explanation why he had not counseled me about making the changes after he had checked the note. I saw there was nothing for me to do but resign, which I did. As the president did not give out why I had tendered my resignation, I did not. I did not think I should do so. The world has the idea I resigned on account of the president's note to Germany. Let it think so."

"RIGHT THIS WAY." POCATELLO, Ida. — "Don't try to buy too many potatoes for this winter," American Legion officials of the department of Idaho are advising prospective attendees at the national convention of the American Legion to be held in Omaha October 3 to 9.

And why not buy potatoes? Because the department is going to give away ten carloads of Idaho russet potatoes to convention visitors and Legionnaires.

HELP CANADIAN VET.

WILVERLEY, Mass. — When the house of Harry Yess, Canadian war veteran, was burned to the ground here recently, the children had hardly died out when a group of American Legionnaires of Wilverley appeared on the scene and started construction of a new home for their Canadian comrade. The Legionnaires worked evenings until they finished their job.

Survey Discloses Little Observance Of Armistice Day

CHARLOTTE, N. C. — Loss and less observance of Armistice day is the situation prevailing in cities throughout the country, it was revealed by a recent survey made by the Charlotte chamber of commerce.

Letters were addressed to chambers of commerce in 115 cities requesting information about Armistice day observance. The survey showed that eighty-four of the 102 cities making reply have practically no general observance of the day of world war peace, with all of the phases of business keeping open the entire day. In only seven cities are stores closed during the entire day, while eight cities keep open half the day. Thirteen cities failed to reply and three reported that they were undecided about Armistice day observance.

Comments made by representatives of the various cities indicated that American Legion men stressed the importance of keeping closed, but "business being in full swing at that time of the year, it seemed impracticable to observe the day by closing shops."

"Tourists undertaking to climb the higher mountain peaks are respectfully requested to settle their accounts in advance." So reads a placard in a local hotel in Partenkirchen, Bavaria.

CONDUCT CONTEST

HELENA, Mont. — A bout in the membership activity of the American Legion and auxiliary, department of Montana, was announced recently by the membership committee, who said that the annual "Queen of Montana" contest held in connection with the state fair, would this year be limited by the Legion and auxiliary. Voting will be determined by new memberships secured in either the Legion or auxiliary.
