GERMANY WOULD BE SLAVE IN PAN-EUROPE SAYS EDITOR

BERLIN (AP)—Propaganda for a United States of Europe started and headed by Count Coudenhove-Kalergi, has aroused the ire of the conservative newspaper, Tagliche Rundschau, which says in such a union Germany would be accorded the position of a slave.

The ultimate object of four great world powers; Pan-Europe, Great Britain, America and Asia, with English as the universal language, is regarded as a myth, and the newspaper adds, "Any Frenchman will merely smile disdainfully at the suggestion that hereafter he is to carry on all negotiations in English."

The Rundschau asks, "Where is that authority in Europe today to fuse the nations together? We Germans, though powerless, absolutely refuse as the sons of Bismarck to become part and parcel to a Balthic hegemony."

The idea that France would agree to a condition of equality with a powerless opponent, is derided by the newspaper.

It is not only those blamed to give than to receive, but in the field of war loans it is easier, Detroit News.
