

NEWS of SOCIETY

Mrs. Walter Gardner entertained at four tables of bridge Monday afternoon honoring Mrs. M. H. Caldwell, of Phoenix, Arizona. The Gardner home was attractively decorated with sweet peas and other cut flowers of the season. During the afternoon's play Mrs. F. L. Hamilton won high score and the second prize went to Mrs. E. K. Mills. A guest prize was presented to Mrs. Caldwell.

Mrs. Caldwell was formerly Miss Marie Smith of this city and has been spending the past month in La Grande, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Smith.

The first of a series of Junior country club dances to be given during the month of August will take place at the club house Monday evening, August 3, from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock. Many special arrangements are being made by the committee in charge and a good time is anticipated. The Star Novelty orchestra will play.

The committee in charge consists of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Shupe, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ashby, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Howard O'Brien and Warren Gilbert.

COVE (Special)—Mrs. William Hartman gave a delightful party Wednesday afternoon honoring her little son Lewis William's birthday anniversary. Games were played on the lawn, after which lunch was served.

Those present were Nadia Haxler, Leona Nelda Price, Jean and Son Miller, Iets and Milton Harris and Wanda Betty Orban.

COVE (Special)—A few friends of Mrs. J. J. Cooley gathered at her home here Wednesday afternoon. An enjoyable time was spent after which refreshments were served.

Among those present were: Mrs. L. H. Carter, Mrs. Clarence Heryford, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. A. C. Conklin, Mrs. J. R. Dean, Mrs. A. H. Orton, Mrs. T. H. Conklin, Mrs. William Hartman, Miss Beas Kelly, Miss Florence Severs and Mrs. Edna Conklin.

In the school of experience you don't get it all at once. You grow your own to replace the fragments removed. Sherbrooke (Que) Record.

It Will Not Be Long

It will not be long until practically every housewife, at least in the Northwest, will be cooking by electricity. The movement is rapid and in the territory of the Eastern Oregon Light and Power company, hundreds of housewives are already using this truly remarkable form of heat.

You have only to ask those who use electricity for cooking to know that it is safe, clean, cool, most convenient and that with our low rates per kilowatt hour for this service, it is the most economical cooking heat obtainable.
