Arizona Aviation Field Named After Pilot Who Lost His Life

La Grande Theatres

Last Showing of "Scar Hanan" Is This Evening

Yakima Canutt, F. B. O.'s newest Western star, is presented in "Scar Hanan" at Sherry's. You will thrill at the heart-thumping action and the near-death incidents. There are many pictures of the good old western type being made today, and "Scar Hanan" stands out as one of the best present day western dramas, with that delicious flavor of the good old past.

Comedy showing "Mandarin Mix-Up."

Princess on Vaudeville Bill at Arcade Theater Sunday

A versatile show, heralded as a winner, with novel ideas, beautiful girls, and an abundance of wholesome comedy, will be presented at the Arcade theatre on Sunday next.

Camille, Fergay & Sumner of the best singing acts in vaudeville. Their voices combine in soothing and restful harmony. Colorful costumes and effects add to the appeal of their offering. Brooks and Noble in "Footlight Scandals". Favorite fun makers in a laughable absurdity, a delightful conversation in more or less spontaneous and is likely to be about any current event of local interest. Princess Chita Chita Toy, "Chinese Comedienne of Canton (China in 'Original Bix of the 'Chinese and American Stage'". Quite the most fascinating personality. The Princess was educated in America. She speaks English correctly and sings American songs like our American girls. Palmer and Huston in "Popple".

"The Great Divide" Coming to Sherry's Sunday for Three Days

Seldom has been seen such a combination of cast, production and story as in "The Great Divide" coming to Sherry's Sunday for three days.

The story, which is from the famous stage play by Wm. Vaughn Moody, is strong and full of numerous twists and turns that keep one spellbound from start to finish.

The cast headed by Conway Tearle and Alice Terry, contains also the names of Wallace Berry, Huntly Gordon, Zasu Pitts, Allan Forrest, George Cooper and William Orlandow.

The story starts in a small New England village and travels from there to the Painted Desert of Arizona. It is a psychological study of a woman's pride and a battle between her conscious mind and her subconscious instincts.

Alice Terry as the girl, Ruth Jordan, gives a performance which is flawless and, though it is one of the most difficult roles ever taken to the screen, she carries it so convincingly that she makes it a reality.

Tearle, as the man of the Painted Desert, is a cross between a polished gentleman and a cowboy and a combination results which produces a powerful mental and physical creature of great fascination.

Wallace Berry's "Dutch" will not soon be forgotten, there is such individuality to everything he does and George Cooper as Sherry runs a close second for "boss" honors. Zasu Pitts has the only feminine role beside that of Alice Terry. She is delightful as the harassed Polly Jordan.

Huntly Gordon is seen in a new type role as Philip Jordan, and Allan Forrest has a prominent and "different" role as Dr. Winthrop Newbury, while William Orlandow injects some inimitable comedy together in his scenes as Lou.

A comedy showing "A Sailor Papa."

A SMILING PRESENTATION of Charles M. Schwab, the steel magnate, and undoubtedly the latest picture of the gentleman. It was taken June 20 at the Annual Mine Rescue meet at Johnstown, Pa., when Schwab handed out the prizes to the winning teams that competed.

tom-toms and blaring saxophones; but once aroused, she swings into the whirl with greater impetus than her two more happy-go-lucky sisters. "Wings of Youth" reveals the quest of the three sisters for pleasure among the bright lights of fashionable society and the final realization of their folly. Emmett Flynn, director of "The Man Who Came Back" and "The Connecticut Yankee," directed "Wings of Youth."
