COVE COUPLE AT REUNION

(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Houston attended a family reunion Sunday, honoring the twenty-fifth birthday of Mrs. Houston's grandfather, Reverend E. Hancock, of Enterprise. Eighty-four members of the family were present.

Honey Mair is leaving Saturday for Enterprise. Mrs. Dora Tolan, of Prosser, has returned to her home after spending a month with her mother, Mrs. Eva Minnan.

Mrs. Gabe Eberwein is seriously ill in her home here. Mrs. E. M. Conklin, of Ontario, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Fekersley.

Peter Kiefer, who died in Portland, was brought to Cove for burial. Mr. Kiefer was the grandfather of Messrs. S. M. and J. H. Swanner and of one time made his home in Cove. He was born in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, September, 1832 and died in Portland last Sunday morning. Interment took place in the Ross Ridge cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Kall, who lives in the Red Pepper District, has started a class in penmanship. Mrs. Ed Rodgers, of Nyssa, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Danell.

The Brewsters store in Cove has been sold. W. F. Brewsters has sold his entire stock to his father, J. B. Brewsters, who will conduct the store during the summer general time. The two daughters, Mrs. Annie Grubbishoff and Miss Daisy Brewsters, will assist him in the store.

Mrs. Ray Goodenough, of La Grande, spent Sunday with her parents here. Mrs. Mary Madden, of Prosser, Illinois, is a guest at the home of Mrs. Lucile Laird.

Mrs. Mary Laird and Miss Julia Wheeler are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Fletcher and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Laird. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Antles entertained the Junior chorus at their home Monday evening.

George Corpe, who several years ago moved from Cove to St. Monte, California, has recently married, according to work received here. C. Bertsch suffered a very painful accident to his hand a few days ago when he got it mixed up with the tines of a hay rake.

Professor and Mrs. Roy Conklin and family of Union were visiting in Cove a few days ago. Mrs. and Mrs. H. S. Comstock will entertain Mr. Comstock's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Comstock, of Nampa, Idaho.

Claims Made for Insulin. In Non-Diabetic Patients. AYERDA (AP)—At the last session of the American Medical association investigators reported, and others corroborated, that the administration of insulin to non-diabetic persons resulted in a very intense and healthy stimulation to the appetite, enabling emaciated and convalescents to eat three or four times what they had been eating and resulting in a rapid increase in weight.

In some cases the accumulation of fatty tissue was so great that it was found necessary to decrease the dosage soon after the beginning of the treatment to prevent desaturation of the blood beyond the normal degree. This is considered as welcome news for those engaged in the treatment of the early stages of lung affection as well as unsightly thinness.

Disqualified. "Maido has a character part in the new show at the 'Privately.' I don't see how she is going to get anywhere with it," commented Made's very dearest friend. "She had what little character she had long ago."

Mrs. Earl Stoddard returned to her home in La Grande this morning after two weeks at Salt Lake City, Utah. Mrs. Stoddard went to Salt Lake to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Helen Thomas, of that city, to C. H. Turpin, which took place Wednesday, August 12. Miss Thomas stated several weeks here this summer and has many friends here.

Sister Mary Says:

Breakfast—Baked pears, broiled fish, creamed potatoes, cornmeal and wheat muffins, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Yeast loaf, sliced tomatoes, potato balls, creamed bread, milk, tea.

Dinner—Fruit cup, fried chicken milk gravy, mashed potatoes, corn fritters, head lettuce with chiffonade dressing, vanilla ice cream, butter-sautéed cookies, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

Of course, a child under six years of age should not be served the corn fritters, but the combination of chicken and fritters is so good that it's worth trying.

If the fruit cup is not served as the first course of the dinner, a smaller child's portion might be served in place of the ice cream.

Corn Fritters. One cup grated corn, 1 cup flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons sugar, 1 egg, 1/2 cup milk.

Combine and sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Beat yolk of egg until light with milk. Stir in corn. Fold in the white of egg beaten until stiff and dry. Drop by spoonfuls into deep hot fat and fry until golden brown on all sides. Drain on brown paper. The fat should be hot enough to brown an inch square of bread from the salt part of the loaf in 40 seconds.

MOTHER SAYS SON TO BLAME

BERLIN (AP)—A frank criticism of the ex-Kaiser by his mother, the late Dowager Empress Frederic, is revealed by the memoirs of Baron von Helldorf, the last Lord Marshal and Royal Equerry of the Hohenzollerns.

In the book of memoirs, "Under Three Emperors," the author quotes the dowager Empress Frederic in a letter she wrote to him from England in 1897 in response to his appeal to her to try and modify the prevalent severity of opinion about Germany in regard to the time.

She wrote: "It is naturally, my heartfelt desire to do everything within my power to assuage any existing feeling of irritation or bitterness of opinion. But it is utterly impossible for me to exert any influence on the press of either country. I have seen nothing in the recent papers which came to my hand here, as the Times, Globe, Standard, Daily Telegraph and other, that might be considered offensive. The intemperate abuse I never see, heaven be praised, and we may safely ignore them. It would be deplorable indeed if the Kaiser were to consider prematurely such papers, from which he could never glean anything but a very distorted picture of public sentiment in England. "But quite apart from all such exaggerations, a feeling of distrust still prevails for which, however, the Kaiser only has himself to blame. For the exceptional sympathy and popularity which he enjoyed represented a card in his hand with which he might have attained inestimable advantages for Germany. Now our only hope must be that in time grass may grow over past errors and ultimately a more comfortable relationship be established.

"If, however, the German press continues to copy the hostile attitude of the Kaiser, Germany will inevitably be driven into the arms of Russia and France and

American Declined Nivelle's Invitation to Be Its Santa Claus

BRUSSELS (AP)—The American delegation to the Congress of the International Chamber of Commerce here had the chance to assure (for all time the playing of the people of the town of Nivelle, Belgium, every Christmas morning. The only condition was that they find an American Santa Claus to present the town with a large set of clothes. A letter to that effect was posted on the bulletin board of the delegation but at the time the congress adjourned it was still awaiting attention. Many members of the delegation thought they had already acted the part of Santa Claus to ward a considerable number of Belgian merchants, hotel keepers and shop keepers.
