Wallowa country. The itinerary was to have included stops at Lostine, Enterprise, Wallowa, Joseph and the Wallowa lake. Arrangements for a 15-piece band and other entertainments had been completed.

Just what the unfavorable circumstances were was not officially announced this morning. The executives of the chamber of commerce, under whose direction the trip was to have been taken, have made no public statement.

It is expected that the trip will be made later on this season although no definite date has been set.

Earl Reynolds left at noon today to make arrangements for the postponement with the towns on the list which had planned to entertain the visitors.

IMPROVEMENT IS EXPECTED

dend rate earlier in the year, was secured as an indication that no general slump was anticipated. Reduction of call money rates and an increase in the reserve ratios of both the federal reserve bank and the system as a whole testified to the relative ease of the credit situation. The foreign outlook was brightened by the announcement that Great Britain and France had reached an agreement on a security pact and that Belgium had begun negotiations for the funding of its debt to this country.

MOORS SUBMIT TO CAPTURE BY FRENCH

Riffian rebel leader, an amicable settlement of the Moroccan question was revealed in a statement made public by the Spanish government Saturday.

The statement says the Spanish government rejected Abd-el-Krim's peace terms as "impossible" since they called for the independence, absolute and unconditional of the Rif, and delivery of our (Spanish) part of great stores of new war materials including airplanes and large sums of cash for indemnity." It adds that all peace meetings failed because of the insincere intentions of the Moorish leader, while on the other hand, it claims the Spanish government offered the Riffians "libera terms of peace."

The Spanish government, the statement goes on, is in perfect accord with France on the Moroccan problem and therefore feels obliged to inform France of its peace dealings with the rebels.

Scientific Solution of Pacific Matters Is Conference's Goal

TOKYO, (AP)—The Committee of Ways and Means of the third Pan-Pacific conference, which is to be held at the Tokyo Imperial University in October, 1926, already extended formal invitations through the Japanese foreign office to the United States, Great Britain and other nations with interests in the Pacific Ocean.

The first conference was held in Honolulu in 1923, its purpose being to study all scientific questions regarding the Pacific and to promote friendly relations among the nations bordering its shores. The second conference took place in Australia in 1922.

The third conference, next year, is to last for 12 days. Prince Kocho, Kanin has been elected its honorary president, the Premier of Japan to serve as honorary chairman, while the diplomatic representatives of the nations invited, the ministers of foreign affairs and of the department of education the President of the House of Peers and the Mayor of Tokyo will serve as honorary vice-chairmen. Dr. Jyoti Sakurski, professor at the Tokyo Imperial University, has been appointed chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the scientific party. It is expected that some of the most prominent scientists in the world will be in attendance.

The conference is to be divided in its functioning into general discussion and group sessions which are to conduct more specific research into the physical and biological problems of the Pacific. They will deal with such matters as radical differences from a purely scientific point of view, broadening on the Pacific, seismic phenomena and meteorological conditions.

The subjects to be discussed in the general sessions have been divided into three general groups as follows:

1. Present knowledge on physical and biological oceanography in the Pacific, the tidal movements, temperatures of waters and allied topics.
2. Radio broadcasting and aerial currents in the Pacific, the obstacles to wireless transmission and means to overcome them.
3. Structure of the earth and its movements in the districts bordering on the Pacific, earthquakes, elevation and depression of land along the shores, and similar subjects.

Obituary

MARY JANE ROGERS.

Mary Jane Rogers was born February 29, 1859, in Grundy county, Missouri. She crossed the plains to Oregon in 1868 by ox team and was married at St. Helens, Oregon, to Edwin D. Hanson, August 24, 1885. To this union eight children were born, two of whom survive, Lavina A. Gates of Portland, Ore., and William N. Hanson of Ladd Canyon. She was grandmother to nine children and great grandmother to 15. She settled in the Grande Ronde valley in 1883. She was one of the good Samaritans of the county, always ready to go to the aid of any person in need. Mr. Hanson died at Ladd Canyon, June 7, 1924. Later she married E. A. Rogers. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Bohlenkamp chapel. Rev. and Roland officiating and the burial will be made in the family lot at the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

Bring Dead Parents Home

These three orphans have just completed a trip from Los Angeles to Canton, O., with the bodies of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gamble, after the father had killed the mother and then committed suicide. Clad in overalls and barefooted, the children made the trip wearing tags telling their destination. They are staying with relatives in Canton, La. to the right, they are Herman Gamble, 6; Howard, 4, and Helen, 4.

Stillwell Offers Services. Yamhill, Ore.—Gifford Stillwell, who was guard at the Oregon state prison in 1883 and prevented a wholesale escape of prisoners by killing three men, now lives at Yamhill, Ore. Although Mr. Stillwell is 74 years of age, he has offered his services to Governor Pierce to help capture Tom Murray, Ellsworth Kelley and James Wilcox.

rapidly filling with the burden of the 1925 crop. Selling has not been carried on at a rapid rate, and the recent break in the world market has resulted in trading being slower than usual in the local market, according to grain men.

The greatest part of the unharvested acreage left in the county is in the district north of Holly. Local grain men stated. The foothill territory is fairly well cleaned up of standing grain. More than half of the individual farmers are reported to have completed their harvest, and of those who still have outfits at work only a few will require more than three or four days to finish.
