Billy Evans Says

PITCHING ACE.
Ed Rommel, pitching ace of Connie Mack's Athletics, is having a most unique and wonderful season.

Not only has Rommel already achieved the distinction of being the first major league pitcher to win 20 games, but he also has the best record as a reliever pitcher.

Managers as a rule do not call upon their pitching ace out of turn. Rommel has been an exception.

In the first 100 games played by the Athletics, he went in as reliever on nine occasions, most of them in a pinch and emerged with seven victories.

That explains why Connie Mack calls upon him so often in the pinch. He warms up quickly and puts little or no strain on his arm.

MACK'S PATIENCE.
If Connie Mack succeeds in winning the American League pennant it will be a just reward for his great patience.

Even though he does no better than the runnerup position he will have realized his ambition, the building of another great ball team.

In 1914, after being beaten in the world series in four straight games by the Boston Braves, Mack proceeded to wreck his great club, inside of a year, by sale, he disposed of most of his star players, so that there remained only the skeleton of his once great team.

For seven consecutive years he finished in last place. Since 1914 he has not once finished in the first division. Despite this Mack was ever optimistic.

It took a lot of patience to go through as long a spell in an effort to mold together another winning club but Mack has finally hit on the combination.

The Athletics of 1925 are a well-rounded aggregation, with no weakness, unless it is the knowledge that comes only with experience.

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago handed the Philadelphia Athletics another pill in their pennant aspirations by defeating them, 3 to 2 in the first game of the series. It was the fifth defeat for Connie Mack's club in a row. Ed Rommel, star of the Philadelphia twirling staff, was wild and ineffective when the White Sox had men on base. He gave way to a pinch hitter and Baumgartner was likewise unable to check the hitting of the local aggregation. Groves, called Baumgartner to the plate. The athletic defense, apparently working under a strain, contributed three errors, all of which figured in the scoring. Shely and Stouffer attacked shrewdly having a perfect day with four hits. Faber pitched a pretty game and was given perfect support. R. H. E. Philadelphia 2 7 0 Chicago 3 13 0 Batteries: Baumgartner, Groves and Cochran; Faber and Schalk.

DETROIT 1, Washington 0.
DETROIT (AP)—Wingo's triple off Coveleski in the seventh, followed by three successive bases on balls by Marberry who relieved him, gave Detroit a 1 to 0 victory over Washington Friday in the series opener. Aside from a double by Bender, the triple was the only hit by Detroit, got off the veteran Senator.

Joe Judge, Washington first baseman, was in a hospital Friday with a concussion of the brain and a possible fracture of the skull from being hit by a pitched ball in the second inning. R. H. E. Washington 0 0 0 Detroit 1 11 0 Batteries: Coveleski, Marberry and Ruel; Whitfill and Bassler.

St. Louis 9, Boston 7.
ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Browns strengthened their hold on fourth place by defeating the Boston Red Sox Friday, 9 to 7, in the first game of a series. Feltz was batted often and thrash. Kenesaw Mountain Landis, commissioner of baseball, attended. The score: R. H. E. Boston 7 11 4 St. Louis 9 13 1 Batteries: Feltz, Ruffing and Hesting; Bush and Rego, Margrave.

Cleveland 2, New York 1.
CLEVELAND (AP)—Cleveland Friday won the opening game of the series with New York, 2 to 1. Huckey having the better of a pitchers' battle with Jones. Three consecutive hits by the first three batters up in the first inning gave New York its only run.

Jamieson led the score in the seventh on his pass and steal and Summa's single while he scored the winning run in the ninth on his double and Summa's single.

Manager Speaker of the Indians went out of the game as the result of being hit on the left elbow by Pitcher Marberry of Washington Thursday. The score: R. H. E. New York 1 6 1 Cleveland 2 8 0 Batteries: Jones and Bengough; Huckey and Myatt.

Hoot Gibson At the Star in "Taming the West."

It takes all of Hoot Gibson's ingenuity and daring to do it, but he certainly succeeds in taming the wild, accompanied by thrills and laughs in his current release, "Taming the West," a Universal-Gibson Special now showing at the Star theatre.

Gibson, a marvelous horseman, holder for three years of the world championship in horsemanship, attained in country-wide competition at the Pendleton rodeo, demonstrates again that he is an accomplished actor as well.

"Taming the West," Gibson rides thrillingly, displaying every trick known to horsemen and a few he invented on the side. He demonstrates his versatility also in driving a racing automobile at a terrific rate over the uncharted trails, taking many dangerous slides to fill the picture brimming with excitement.

The plot of the story is cleverly handled. It deals with a wayward son of a rich former rancher who is a prominent business man. The son is sent to the ranch with orders to become a man. There can be no denying that the son tries valiantly and does succeed after many trying experiences at attempting to break broncos and to perform other feats.

Jackie Coogan Again in Rags At Sherry's.

Back to his "enduring rags" once more, Jackie Coogan will come to the Sherry theatre on Sunday in his latest Metro-Goldwyn picture, "The Rag Man." These folk who have been demanding to see the Jackie they first loved in "The Kid," will have their opportunity, for he is said to have a similar role that gives him just as much chance for pathos and even more for comedy.

The story was written especially for the child star by Willard Mack, and this distinguished playwright has constructed a humorous and thrilling tale as only he can, full of complications.

"The Rag Man," Jackie is once more a regular American boy, a lad from the sidewalks of New York. In his other recent pictures he has been wandering all over the map in a variety of roles.

Comedy showing "Skinners in Silk."

Arcade to Present Choice Collection Of Vaudeville Acts.

A choice collection of vaudeville in a program of sparkling novelties, songs, dances, witty repartee with plenty of fun and amusement will be seen at the Arcade theatre on Sunday.

One of the outstanding features in the "Little Fantasy" presented by Estelle Faye with pretty music and pretty girls. The stamp is set in lavish draperies and with handsome costumes. Piano and violin furnish the musical portion and the pretty girls dance double and single numbers with lightness and grace. Songs show care in selection and a desire to satisfactorily entertain, and are rendered in a most pleasing manner. Williams & Culver, "The Fun Promoter."

Batteries: Williams and Agnew; Pruitt, Delaney and Head, Baker.

Seattle 4, Sacramento 2.
SACRAMENTO (AP)—R. H. E. Seattle 4 6 1 Sacramento 2 7 0 Batteries: Plummer and E. Baldwin; Twitchell, E. Shea and M. Shea.

Champ Sculler

Meet Miss Eloise Conzels, 15-year-old champion sculler. She has taken part in numerous races and has not suffered a defeat. She is a New England girl and enjoys nothing better than a brisk hunt on the water under her own power.

ANNA LAURA BOWLES DIES.
WALLA WALLA, Wash.—Word came here of the death of Seattle's Miss Anna Laura Bowles, age 40, a native of Walla Walla. She was head of the Latin department of the Walla Walla high school, having to accept a position as librarian at Seattle.

Miss Bowles leaves her mother, Mrs. Sarah J. Bowles, Seattle, and other relatives.

ANTS TEACH DICK HATTON A FEW TRICKS

Who would think that a few ants could change the course of a man's life. They weren't trained either.

In "Horse Sense," an Arrow Great-Western, playing at the Sherry theatre, Dick Hatton meditates long and deeply on the endless persistence of the ants—when he comes out of his reverie he looks into the muzzle of a gun which is only too real. After that small incident he goes through a series of stirring events and in the end wins himself an adorable little wife.

Marilyn Mills opposite Dick is wonderful in her part and her two horses "Star" and "Becky" excel in the daring stunts they perform. Comedy showing, "Hello, Good-bye."

WOMAN FEARS HUSBAND.
KLAMATH FALLS, Ore.—With a view to scuttling L. E. Perkey, from whom letters threatening Mrs. Perkey here are alleged to have been received, District Attorney Elliott will communicate with authorities at Pocatello, Ida., where the man was believed to be living.

Mr. Perkey, according to information furnished Mr. Elliott by Mrs. Perkey, has written that he will come to Klamath Falls and do away with his wife. A warrant charging him with threatening to take Mrs. Perkey's life has been issued.

Smith River Trail Completed.
EUGENE, Ore.—The government trail between Scottsburg and Smith river in the Shawlaw national forest in Douglas county will be completed this week, according to announcement by Ralph S. Shelby, supervisor of the forest. The work was started early in June. The trail is 12 miles long.

Homes Periled by Fire.
KLAMATH FALLS, Ore.—Homes in the Hot Springs residence district were threatened for two hours when a heavy brush and grass fire started in the hills east of the city and swept by a high wind, raged for more than a half mile toward the city limits.

All fire apparatus was rushed to the scene and late this afternoon the fire was under control, with no serious damage done.

Campfire Offender Fined.
PORTLAND, Ore.—C. Simonsen of Portland was brought before Justice Miller here and fined for leaving a campfire smoldering.

FALLS CITY, Ore.—The main line of the Mountain State Power company's extension into Falls City was completed and the current turned on. Twenty-four hours service is now established for lights and power.

THE TRUE LIFE HISTORY OF
ROY GARDNER

One of the most spectacular motion pictures that has ever been made, in which appears a man who mystified the public, who never killed nor injured anyone, and who, after succeeding in escaping four different times from capable officers, was captured in Phoenix, Arizona, attempting to hold up a train with two wooden bullets. At his last trial eleven of the jurors found him insane and he was recommended for an operation to relieve pressure on his brain caused by a piece of bone one-eighth of an inch deep. Today he is serving 75 years in Leavenworth, Kansas, Penitentiary.

OFFICER SONNEY

The man who captured Gardner, will appear in person and talk on the history of Gardner's life. He is now trying to secure for him the promised OPERATION to which he believes GARDNER is entitled, and furnish the money for Mrs. Gardner to make a trip to Washington to see the heads of our Government.

Handcuff Demonstration by Mr. Sonney and Montana Jack, Chief of the Cowboys

And as usual at Sherry's there will be no advance in prices

What do you know about the barbers of La Grande? They are getting put out as far as running in competition in them in the shingling business. I really believe that our shingled top looks better than theirs. However, the price is about the same. We have another large shipment of sheers—Williams Barn Paint and Green Preservative Shingle Stain, Old Dutch Process White Lead and strictly pure Boiled Linseed Oil coming.
