Billy Evans Says

KERR'S COMEBACK.
It may be a square shooter, pitcher Dick Kerr knows. In the 1919 world series between Cincinnati and Chicago, Dick Kerr of the White Sox was the outstanding hero.

After the two years of the exciting struggle, Kerr and Williams had failed. Kerr came through with two beautiful pitched games, winning each start.

Kerr's great pitching performance that rocked series, made it a real battle. The breaks always favored Kerr. He just seemed that the play was made up in the mound when he pitched for him.

Pittsburg Fighting To Retain Ball Leadership

NEW YORK (By the Associated Press)—Apparently the Pittsburg Pirates have made up their minds that if opportunity does not favor them, they will do the best in the game. They probably have counted on this year after a succession of seasons, are not won by standing on ceremony.

Now they have such a lead in the National league that it will take something more than the usual run up to keep them in the lead.

Butter says that the Pirates are in the best of the summer in which the club has gained and held it that opportunity the competitors in Pittsburg's estimate of things.

Pittsburg has been a front rank contender since for five years in a row. But the club, in spite of its material, has failed to come through.

Thursday it is a different story. A number of explanations may be offered for this transformation. Manager McKeon sums it up in the best statement that he has.

"I believe it is right. But there is no doubt that two other factors have had their influence. One was the big trade with the Cubs last winter that sent the veterans, Marvyn, Grimm and Cooper, to Chicago and enabled younger talent to fill their places. The other is the return of Fred Clarke, what of the last Pittsburg champion in 1919, to the role of pitcher to McKeon.

As it is made up, the Pirates seem one of the most powerful combinations of modern baseball.
