(By Sister Mary)

Breakfast—Baked peaches, cream-sugar on Graham toast, cornmeal muffins, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Baked potatoes with vegetable barley, fruit salad, toasted muffins, milk, tea.

Dinner—Fruit cocktail, baked ham, glazed sweet potatoes, cream-of-cauliflower, stuffed pepper salad, steamed blueberry pudding, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.

Children under six years of age should not be served the ham, sweet potatoes, salad or pudding for their dinner. The lettuce of the salad, the fruit cocktail, the cauliflower and the bread and milk furnish a well-balanced meal for juniors of four or five years.

Baked Potatoes with Vegetable Barley

Five or six potatoes, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 tablespoon butter, 1/2 cup milk, 1 table-spoon grated cheese, 1/2 teaspoon mustard, paprika.

Pure potatoes and cook until tender. Drain and mash well. Season with salt, pepper, butter and milk and beat until light. Put through a ricer making a mound on a heat-proof platter. Mix mustard and paprika and sprinkle over the top of the potatoes. Put into a hot oven long enough to melt the cheese. Surround with a border of new beans, string beans, carrots and flowers of cauliflower well seasoned with butter. Serve very hot.

Four in Five

To win a state golf championship is considered no little feat, but to carry the honors four times in five years is, indeed, something quite out of the ordinary. That's what Miss Bernice Wall of Oshkosh, Wis., has just succeeded in doing, recently winning the Wisconsin fair sex crown for the fourth time since 1921. A bright future is predicted for her.
