Elderly Bicyclist on Tour Aims To See Every American Capital

OLYMPIA, Wash., (AP)—E. D. Bowen, 66, who is touring the country on a bicycle, reached here recently from his home in Galesburg, Ill., having covered 7000 miles in the 102 days he was on the road. He characterized the tour as a "pioneer feat," and declared that because he traveled on a bicycle he was able to "see all the sights."

Olympia is the 25th capital Bowen has visited, and he plans to see every one in the Union before returning home.

Twenty-five years ago Bowen made a similar trip abroad, visiting nine European countries.

Rome Newspaper Suppressed For Publishing Errors—Item

ROME, (AP)—Reformers who urge that newspapers be forbidden to print gossamer details of crimes or sensational news, tending to influence legal investigations or trials, won a signal victory recently when the Prefect of Rome exercised the powers vested in him under the Fascist Press law to suppress the edition of the Tribuna, one of Rome's leading evening newspapers, which was seized and the next day the prefect announced the suppression had been caused by the paper's publication of a statement that a criminal who had brutally killed a little girl had been found.

The prefect explained, very tersely and in a widespread publication, he asserted, ended to frustrate the ends of justice.

Right this way, Ladies and Gentlemen, we will open up our sale this morning by a carload of No. 5 Big Lamp Remembrance Coal. No better coal on earth. Who will give me the first bid? Do I hear $12.50 per ton? Thank you, sold. Stand back and wait your turn, dig up the cash. Absolutely no credit.

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

La Grande Theatres

All-Star Cast in "A Broadway Butterfly" At Sherrys Today.

Broadway's ever-changing aspect is always absorbing, and for that reason movie-goers will be interested in knowing that the feature attraction at the Sherry theater will be the latest Warner Bros. Classic of the Screen, "A Broadway Butterfly."

The story of "A Broadway Butterfly" was written and adapted for the screen by Darryl Francis Zanuck, and directed by William Beaudine, who has gained the reputation of casting his pictures so excellently that the result is usually a very fine photoplay indeed.

In the present instance, William Beaudine has gathered together six stellar players to enact "A Broadway Butterfly." Louise Fazenda, Willard Louis, Dorothy Foy, Joan Lincoln, Lillian Tashman and Colleen Landis—making the cast a phenomenally meritorious one. With the picture set against authentic Broadway locations, and with real Broadway laughter and tears, the photoplay promises to give an evening's pleasant entertainment.

"A Broadway Butterfly" is, in brief, the story of a shy little slip of a girl, who comes to Broadway to pursue the dreams and glories of a stage career. To her unsophisticated eyes, the whole panorama of Broadway is a beautiful, jeweled land of happiness, but when she finds reality behind the painted scenes of the white lights, all is not what it seems.

Two thousand plains buffalo have been liberated by the Canadian government in the Great Slave lake country to roam at will.

Lloyd Hughes Here Tomorrow in "The Half Way Girl."

Lloyd Hughes, one of First National's popular young leading men, is featured with Doris Keayon and a cast of celebrities in "The Half Way Girl," at the Arcade Friday and Saturday.

Hughes will long be remembered as the newspaper reporter in "The Last World." He recently finished work as Colleen Landis's leading man in her latest picture, "The Desert Flower," which was filmed on the West Coast. According to present plans, Hughes will remain at First National's New York studios for some time, making at least one more picture following "The Half Way Girl."

"The Half Way Girl" is a drama of suspenseful action, centered around Singapore's amazingly mixed races. It was directed by John Francis Dillon, who has contributed to the screen such memorable pictures as "Flaming Youth," "Fallen of the Field" and "Chickie."

As a "half-way girl" Miss Keayon was what Earl Hammon, who produced the play, says is the strongest role of her spectacular career.

In the supporting cast are Robert Rosworth, Sam Harby, Tully Marshall, Teddy Sampson, Sally Crute and Marita Madson.

"Ten Commandments" To Open at Arcade Monday.

The picture which broke all long run records at road show prices is coming to the Arcade theater next Monday, when Cecil B. DeMille's production of "The Ten Commandments" opens an engagement there.

at popular prices. Placing the "two-a-day" in New York City, it broke the record of 50 weeks which had been held by "The Covered Wagon," remaining at capacity business for 82 consecutive weeks. "The Birth of a Nation" was only able to last 44 weeks on Broadway while "Way Down East," "The Four Horsemen" and "The Thief of Bagdad" held up for a lesser period. About five million people have seen this remarkable picture since it was first shown at a two dollar scale.

In Los Angeles it held up for 71 weeks, Chicago and Philadelphia 20, Boston, 14, San Francisco and Cleveland 8; while in Detroit, Washington and Cincinnati it stayed a week. Money, Australia, played host to it for 20 weeks as did Melbourne; while Paris and Auckland, New Zealand greeted it enthusiastically for 10 weeks. Herein, as impressed as it was at the time, played the picture for 4 weeks, with the best seats selling at five dollars each.

It is estimated that more than one hundred thousand readers look forward each year to the annual novel by James Oliver Curwood. Now comes the announcement that William Fox has adapted for the screen Curwood's "The Hunted Woman," a dramatic narrative of the great outdoors, done in that author's rugged style. Here is a romance of adventure in the northern wilderness that carries with it a distinctive note of tenderness, which stands out against the contrasting background of primitive men in nature's woodlands.

"The Hunted Woman" beats high and strong with the virile pulse of a gripping love story. It moves with ever quickening rhythm to a climax which rouses the reader to a high pitch. In the William Fox film version John Conway, the director, is said to retain all the important elements that made the book so popular. Nor has the cameraman missed any opportunities in photographing the beauties of the picture's locale, according to reports received. The cast includes Beulah Owen, Francis McDonald, Cyril Chadwick, who had an important role in the Fox production, "The Iron Horse," and Diana Miller, who played Beatrice in "Dante's Inferno," produced by the same company. "The Hunted Woman" starts a three-day run at the Star on Friday.
