Cure Credited at Shrine Of Newly Canonized Saint

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., (AP)—A statement by the physician attending the family of Calin LePage, of Proudhomme, Sask., received here certified the cure of a daughter of LePage, aged three years. The child had been taken to a shrine at Wakaw, 50 miles south of here, to St. Theresa of Lisieux, France, established after the saint was canonized last May.

An operation last year failed to cure a serious affection of an ear of the child. At the shrine the LePage family prayed nine days. On the ninth day the cure appeared.

The physician's statement did not refer to the trip to the shrine. On a return visit at the shrine the family rendered thanks to St. Theresa.
