La Grande Theatres

"The Red Lily" At Sherrys Theater.

The attraction listed at the Sherry Theater is "The Red Lily," a tale of adventure in Paris written and directed by Fred Niblo, whose last picture was "The Name is Woman." Ramon Novarro, "The Screen Lover," and Emil Bennett, heroine of "The Sea Hawk," "Robin Hood," and other big productions, are in the leading roles. The cast also includes Wallace Beery, "Kluge"; Thedy Frank, "Curry"; Mitchell Lewis, Emily Fawcett, Gibson Gowland, and others.

"Ten Commandments" Features Many Lost Arts of Egypt

Many of the beautiful arts of Egypt became lost in the breakup of the world's oldest civilization and have only recently been able to reconstitute their techniques. The picture of ancient Egypt given in the Biblical part of Cecil B. De Mille's production, "The Ten Commandments," to be seen beginning Monday at the Arcade theater, is said to afford the most intimate view yet presented of this nation of artists. Neither the examination of museum collections nor even personal visits to the Tombs like Tut-ank-amun's, can reproduce historical reality in compare with the screen. Mr. De Mille was aided in his task by scholars of repute who saw to it that the reconstruction was accurate.

Six Vaudeville Acts Scheduled for Sunday at Arcade.

A galaxy of six vaudeville acts, elegantly staged, promising a wealth of joy, frolic, and fun, a real show at the Arcade theater on Sunday next.

The bill is topped by the Sharks Brothers, novelty rag cartoonists, who make beautiful paintings out of bits of rag and rope, blending them most ingeniously. Bob Lenton, the wise cracker, a wonderful class promulgator, a delightful offering of songs, stories and skits, walk patter. Gene Vance & Co. in "Words & Music." Gene is an exceptional comic. Everything he says or does brings forth a laugh. He is the only one who can do it. He is the only one who can do it. He is the only one who can do it.

| WALSENBERG, Colo. , (AP)—Approximately 1000 high school students of Huerfano county Friday were denied the privilege of wearing flapper and shiek attire during school hours in the future as the result of a decision of the county board of education. | The doctor who announced he can cure laziness has not been seen cure laziness has not been seen cure laziness has not been seen. |
| The board, which has control over the high schools of all the towns in the county, ruled that girls must wear middie and blue serge skirts, and that the male students must wear "button-down" shirts and "hot" white. The ruling is to be made effective December 1. | |
