CHURCH NEWS

First Baptist.
Sixth Street at Spring Avenue.
Services for Sunday, Sept. 6, 1925.
Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. If you are interested in a practical study of Christianity you will find your opportunity here. Come.
Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Solo by Mr. Ernest Harrison. Sermon by the pastor on the theme: "How a Great Man Went Wrong." Children's sermon. Communion service following the preaching. Evening service at 7:30 o'clock. Please notice the change of hour. Sermon by the pastor on the theme:
"The High Cost of Dying." As we resume the regular church activity for the fall, we invite the public to worship with us.
George Albert Pollard, pastor.

Salvation Army.

man who is able to cook for all different classes of people and still keep smiling. He will tell us how I can be one. Everybody welcome.
Wm. and Mrs. Barker will be at 1230 Canyon tomorrow morning.
A very special Christian's prayer service will be conducted at 3:30 p. m. Mr. Ballard, a man of rich experience, will interest you.
Come and hear him tell his story.
Let us have a record attendance.
Joyous meeting at 8 p. m. Good music and singing. Come and help us bring men and women to God.

Christian.

Bible school meets at 9:45. On last Lord's day the school registered a much higher attendance than for weeks past. We feel that we are getting back to our usual standard. The pastor will preach at the morning hour, 11 o'clock. The morning hour is our worship hour.
Let us avail ourselves of his helpfulness.
At the evening hour, 8 o'clock, we will have for the sermon, R. D.
Ballard. Mr. Ballard is an ex-convict, having been convicted for the burning of a church in his mad hate against the Bible. He has had a sordid experience in the heart of New York's Chinese district as dope fiend, peddler, and white slaver. He carries in his body the marks of his sin. Now he says he is "But a sinner saved by Grace." He placed before his recommenders from men whom I personally know from different parts of our northwest, testifying to the value of his testimony and sincerity of his conversion. So I am giving him the opportunity of telling to us his remarkable story at our evening service. Come early.

The Sunday school opens at 10 a. m. Classes for all and all are cordially invited. 11 a. m. sermon topic, "Friendship." The Epworth will be the soloist and Mrs. J. A.

Tedford will provide at the organ.
You will want to share with us in our 11 o'clock worship hour. The Sunday school at 9:45 with classes for all and a newly decorated primary department to welcome the younger members of our school.
Our Christian Endeavor at 6:45 with a most urgent invitation to all young folks to share with us this unique hour. Let us echo Longfellow's challenge:
"Let us then be up and doing,
With a heart for every fate, Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait."
Wm. Crosby Ross, minister.

Nazarene.

There are five things necessary to get to heaven: First, we must accept of the atonement. Heb. 9:22.
"Without the shedding of blood, there is no remission." Second, we read in Luke 12:3, "Except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." II Cor. 7:8-10. Paul says repentance is a godly sorrow for sin.
Third, Heb. 11:6, "Without faith it is impossible to please God. For he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him." Fourth, John 3:3, "Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God." Fifth, Heb. 12:14, "Follow peace with all men and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord." So there are the five essentials: the atonement, repentance, faith, the new birth, and holiness. Are you in possession of them?
You are invited to our services.

Presbyterian.

Jesus Christ was a worker and all who have followed him carefully have imitated that attitude towards the world. Labor day will therefore have a place in our services tomorrow morning as regarding to the ideal that we are regarding workers with the Leader of our Faith. Mr. Lawrence Dutton this company.

Think of the most progressive business house you have ever visited and you will remember that it was well lighted.
If you have goods to sell, people must have light to see them. People like to do business where there is plenty of light. The psychology of good lighting is manifold. It is cheerful, inviting, dispels gloom and creates a good business atmosphere.
People have more confidence in your goods when you use good lighting.
It is profitable.
Successful business houses use plenty of electric lighting. Very few business houses that do not use good electric lighting are successful.
Light is your cheapest salesman. Put it to work. A few cents a day for kilowatt hours will net big returns in profit.
