

Smart New Fall Apparel

Attractive Values in Stylish Coats, Frocks, etc.

The Flare's The Thing

Somewhere there is a flare, very subtle, to be sure, but darting out unexpectedly here and there. They are very youthful—these flares—and very gay and most correct. You'll like the graceful movement of these flaring skirts. You'll like even more the feeling of smartness you experience when you try on this frock of black satin faced crepe. Sleeves and tie of blue chiffon finished with fancy braid in colors.

$19.50 to $65

Many Are The Models

There are Tea-Time Frocks of silk and satin, brilliant wine shades and black. Cloth frocks, duvetyne and flannel with smart and perky pleats. They are quite unlined and trim with high collars and long narrow sleeves.

Yes, when you see these stunning Fall styles in cloth frocks here you'll be glad there's a new season starting.

$19.50 to $65

That— The monkey has been well advertised and we take it that this may be a reason for the contribution his tribe is making toward the trimming of Miady's hat. Monkey fur makes effective novelties for this purpose.

That— Popularity of long sleeves gives the cuff a chance for first place. The collar and cuffs are becoming a very large part of the decorative scheme of the costume.

That— No longer is Madame to mince about and trip. Pleats there are to be a plenty—enough for a long stride and to spare.

That— Dame Fashion deems we shall have flares by night and lines of straightness by day.

The New Coats Are Lovely

Wooltex and Peggy Paris Coats are holding a reception in our Coat Department to which you are specially invited. The styles are specially designed for you from the newest in the Fashion World. First, the straight model which shows that the slim lines remain. Second, and newer, of course, the flared coats; coats that flare markedly by means of groups of godets or circular gores; coats with a slight flare side or front, paneled, pleated; coats with flare gracefully from the shoulders. The narrow collar, plain or of fur is to be noted, often attached to the revers of the cloth.

$60 to $125

Observer Team, After Leading 1 to 0 Until Last Inning, Cracked Following Two-Bagger.

By defeating the Observer team 2 to 1 in a seven-inning pitcher's battle yesterday afternoon, the Athletics became 1925 champions of the La Grande Twilight League.

Both Ledbetter and Carroll were in great form, the former whiffing 10 men and the latter seven. Ledbetter allowed three hits and Carroll four.

The Observer scored in the first inning and no more for either side were chalked up until the last of the seventh when, following a two-base hit by Tom's Garity, the Observer lifted cracked and permitted two runs to come home with one out, ending the game.

Spectators were of the opinion that yesterday's game was the best played in the Twilight League this year.

COAST DRIVER WINS CLASSIC

HEBBIWAY, ALTOONA, Pa. (AP)—Driving 236 miles at the terrific pace of 118 miles an hour without a single stop, young Roy McLaughlin, the speed boy from the west coast, Monday afternoon won the annual autumn automobile race classic on the Altoona speedway. His official time was 2 hours, 6 minutes, 55 seconds.

Two Two minutes later Harry Harris finished across the line, taking second place. His time was two hours 8 minutes and 12 seconds.

The veteran Earl Cooper, who gave the monster gathering of racing fans a sample of high speed during the first 50 miles of the grind, was third, 26 seconds behind Harris. Fred Comer was fourth; Leon Duray fifth; Norman Batten sixth; "Red" Shaffer, seventh; and Vic Spooner, eighth, finished in the ninth.

Billy Evans Says

COBB'S ASPIRATIONS
A ball player is never too old in service to have high aspirations. So thinks Ty Cobb, who after 29 years of continuous play, wants to lead the American league in batting this year.

When I talked with Cobb at Augusta, Ga., this spring, he for the first time admitting he was getting old, complained about the ravages of spring training.

"In my prime I could condition myself with a few days' work prior to the opening of the season," said Cobb, "but it's different now."

Cobb, at that time, said he intended to play 100 games, no more, but lately he has suffered a slight change of mind.

Wolf Ears Made to Order To Win Municipal Bonnies

BRANDON, Man. (AP)—A

rich-quick scheme whereby Indians on a reservation at Griswold, Manitoba, collected municipal bounty on wolf ears manufactured from skins of wolf cubs was discovered here this summer by municipal officers.

To collect bounties on wolves slain, the animal's ears must be turned in. The redskins received bounty on the artificial ears for some time before officers discovered the ruse. Three men and a squaw pleaded guilty and were warned with a year's suspended sentence.

Maybe birds building nests are always happy because they don't try to build them larger every year.
