

All The Colors Of Autumn In Lovely Silks And Soft Woolens

THE Soft pliant texture and the suppleness of the New Woolens are beautiful and necessary qualities, for without them the flare simply won't flare as gracefully as it should. There are tweeds, homespuns and many fancy weaves, some in stunning color mixture and others with borders.

54 Inch Silks
In Special Display

The gayly printed silks of last season in the 54-inch width having proved themselves so practical, we are now offering lustrous crepes just as wide.

It is surprising how this new width simplifies the cutting—and-making of dresses and other stunning wearables. It also makes possible definite economy in yardage, which, translated, means a real money-saving.

$5.50 to $16.50

For tailored wear, the woolens with invisible striped and checked effects like men's suitings are very smart. The loose-woven woolens have an individuality you will like. Fine quality immediately shows up in woolens and you will see at a glance how excellent these are.

We are showing a number of individual patterns in woolens for your convenience. Just one dress length to the pattern.

$3.50 to $5.50

Accessory Trimmings
We offer the latest in accessory trimmings, braids, laces, buttons, etc., to enable our customers always to make the costumes with every detail correct and smartly up-to-the-minute.

of the league-leading champions to seven games.

This comeback of the Athletics adds fuel to the protest of the American League against the American League's decision to allow only three out of four from the league on each club's schedule. It is still a forlorn and virtually hopeless task for the Mackmen to overcome their rivals. Al Simmons, slugging center fielder; Lefty Baumgartner and Eddie Tamm, veteran knuckle ball twirler, were the heroes of the Athletics' victory, but the mighty bat of Roger Fisk, manager, "old war horse" of the Washington club, almost downed the Mack single handed. Score: R. H. E. Washington 7 13 1 Philadelphia 9 15 1

Batteries: Zachary, Russell, Ballou and Sovereid; Walberg, Baumgartner, Rommel, Groves and Perkins, Cochran.

Boston 5, New York 4.
BOSTON (AP)—The Red Sox defeated the New York Yankees Wednesday, 5 to 4. Flagstad's double with two out in the ninth driving home Rosenthal with the winning run. Babe Ruth had a perfect day at bat with two singles and a pair of doubles and drove in three of the Yankees' runs. Combs and Carlyle made three hits apiece.

Score: R. H. E. New York 4 9 1 Boston 5 9 2 Batteries: Johnson and Bonough; Wingfield and Altschell.

National League Games.
PITTSBURG (AP)—Chicago won the final game of the series from the Pirates Wednesday, 9 to 7, in 11 innings, making the count three out of four from the league leaders. The Cubs broke through the tie in the eleventh when his and errors resulted in three tallies. In the local half Cuyler tripled and Traynor singled, but Kaufmann tightened up and ended a building rally. The game was marked by poor fielding and Kaufmann's wildness. Score: R. H. E. Chicago 9 11 2 Pittsburgh 7 13 4 Batteries: Kaufmann and Hart-Morrison and Smith; Steinmann; Gonsales, Kroner, Adams, Morrison and Smith.

Muddy Creek Fair Held.

BAKER, Ore.—Their ardor undampened by rain, 2998 persons from all parts of Baker county attended the first annual fair at Muddy creek. The district is one of the richest farming communities in Baker county. A 100-foot room was filled with vegetables and grain displays and there were 12 individual farm displays.

A feature of the program was Wilma Moriarty, who delighted with her trick play. The floral exhibits were an unusual feature. John Jenkins, Muddy Creek grange president, presided at an outdoor program. Governor Pierce urged that Baker county hold a county fair and invited the people to send a delegation to Salem to ask for state aid. He said that club work was one of the best ways to check crime among boys and girls.

Billy Evans Says

FREAK PLAY.
The old adage, "There is nothing new under the sun" doesn't hold good for baseball.

As a matter of fact the national pastime just teems with new and unusual oddities.

After one has been actively connected with baseball for a score of years, there is perhaps a tendency to become rather blasé. Such is the case in just a ball game and the players are either out or safe.

Fortunately, baseball produces so many thrills that just as an active participant gets the impression there is nothing new under the sun, something comes up to make him alter his opinion.

In a recent game I had such a happening. Our own pitcher two men being thrown out at the plate almost simultaneously on a two-bagger.

for second as the pill sped on its way.

Flagstead just reached the fly with the tip of his fingers and had no chance to make the catch. However, he so placed down the ball by contact with it that it rolled only a short distance after striking the ground.

When the ball was recovered by Flagstead, Basler was well on his way to third and Hanes wasn't more than 15 feet back of him. The race continued to the plate, Hanes gaining slightly at each step.

Catcher Stokes of the Boston team received the relay just ahead of Basler and touched him out as he slid for the inside of the plate. With the same motion he put the ball on Hanes's spikes as he attempted to avoid the touch by hooking for the outside of the plate.

It would have been a tough spot for a one-arm'd arbitrator. I understand there are several of them in the minors this year.

EXHIBITION BASEBALL.
KINGSTON, N. Y. (AP)—The Brooklyn club of the National league was defeated in an exhibition game here Wednesday by the Kingston Colonians 4 to 2. R. H. E. Brooklyn 4 8 2 Colonians 4 8 2 Batteries: Cautel and Hargrave; Smith and Robins.

St. Louis 5, Lincoln 1.
PORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP)—Joe Bush's home run with Falk on first base, won, 5 to 1, for St. Louis in an exhibition game with the Lincoln Lutes here Wednesday. Score: R. H. E. Lincoln 1 5 0 St. Louis Americans 5 14 0 Batteries: Hodgson, Tarnet and Bauerline; Stauffer, Park and Hargrave.

Devon 6, Cincinnati 1.
DECATUR, Ill. (AP)—Deatur, behind brilliant pitching by Kotzelnick, defeated the Cincinnati Nationals, 6 to 1, here Wednesday. Score: R. H. E. Cincinnati 1 7 9 Deatur 6 11 1 Batteries: Perran, Goodwin and Hargrave, Land; Kotzelnick and O'Brien.

MINING ACTIVE NEAR BAKER
BAKER, Ore.—Five tunnels are being driven at the Toddie Lode mining property, ranging in length from 100 to 410 feet. It was announced here by E. W. C. Nelson. A crew is drifting on a 400-foot vein. Gold, silver, copper and lead have been found. George Roe is foreman in charge.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—It may turn out that the Athletics acquired their good luck mascots, two little peacocks, a trifle late. The tide of fortune, which with the two ebony lined youngsters on the dugout steps turned Tuesday in favor of the Mackmen, after 12 straight defeats, rolled them on to victory again Wednesday in the final game of the series with Washington.

By taking the measure of the Senators, 8 to 7, in a tumultuous, free-hitting battle, the Athletics earned an even break on the four-game series and cut the margin.

Meet Frank McGee, stellar first-sacker of the Peoria, Three-Eye League team, who has been purchased by the Washington Americans. McGee is reputed to be a great prospect, being a hard hitter and sensational fielder. He formerly starred in several sports at Ohio State University.
