5 Railroads Contest For Texas Area Control

PLAINVIEW, Tex., (AP)—Rail control of a fertile area of approximately 10,000 square miles is the prize for which five railroads, three of which are connected with main systems, are contending before the Inter-state Commerce Commission.

C. E. Boles, examiner for the commission, said he expected to make his recommendation before October 1. He said the fight may be the last of a competitive nature.

"Only in southeastern Oregon is there a contest among railroads approaching in consequence that of the South Plains contest," he declared. "It probably will be settled before our problem."

Railroads involved for the future control of the South Plains, an area now populated by about 140,000 people but destined to support millions, are the Panhandle and Santa Fe, an Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe road, and the only road now directly serving any parts of South Plains; the Fort Worth and Denver City, a Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad; the Quanah, Acme & Pacific, a subsidiary of the Frisco system; the Texas, Panhandle and Gulf, Texas and Western.

You probably know that Cod Liver Oil is the greatest flesh producer in the world.

Because it contains more Vitamines than any food you can get.

You'll be glad to know that Cod Liver Oil comes in sugar coated tablets now, so if you want to put 10 or 20 pounds of solid healthy flesh on your bones and feel well and strong— ask Red Cross Drug Co., Glass Drugs, Inc., L. & L. Drug Co.,—or any druggist for a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets.

Only 60 cents for 60 tablets and if you don't gain five pounds in 30 days your druggist is authorized to hand you back the money you paid for them.

It isn't anything unusual for a person to gain 10 pounds in 20 days.

"Get McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Oil Tablets."

Harold Lloyd To Be at Arcade Friday and Saturday

"Laugh and the world laughs with you." Not idle words, but a wonderful philosophy. In these enlightened days of the wireless, we know that messages can be sent through the air and reach a predestined destination. So likewise can the thoughts of one person be conveyed to another. Be happy and those near you fall under your spell!

But happiness cannot be imitated. Imitate a smile, and you accomplish only a smirk. Fake a laugh, and it's an empty ha, ha. Shout yourself hoarse telling the world you're happy, but if it isn't true, no one is going to be fooled —except yourself. If it's true, you don't have to talk about it. Happiness is a little seed that takes root in your heart and strangles out discontent, conceit, selfishness, jealousy!

Every Harold Lloyd comedy is a radiant sunburst of happiness that turns the silver lining of clouds into gold. That's the sort of happy chap Harold Lloyd is in real life. He throws out rays, waves and currents of happiness that warm the hearts of millions. Serious of mein, sober of dress, quiet in manners, Harold Lloyd defies all preconceived ideas of a comedian, but it's the heart within, not the grin without, that counts.

Harold Lloyd is a generator of joy, because he is sitting on top of the world and knowing, believing, feeling, "Gee, it's great life if you —Never Weaken."

"Never Weaken," one of the funniest and most thrilling of Harold Lloyd's comedies, come to the Arcade theater Friday and Saturday. Mildred Davis is the leading lady and the cast includes Roy Brooks, Mark Jones and Charles Stevenson.

"House of Youth" Closes at Sherrys This Evening.

"The House of Youth," the screen version of Maude Radford Warren's popular novel of the same name, terminates its run at the Sherry theater tonight. This brilliant photoplay of the follies and triumphs of the young people to whom is given the heritage of the earth stars Jacqueline Logan in the role of a daring flapper, who passes through the fire of a great crisis and emerges a woman gloriously fit to carry on the battle of life.

In support of Miss Logan are seen Malcolm MacGregor, Vernon Steele, Richard Travers, Gloria Grey, Edwin Booth Tilden, Barbara Tennant and other players of note. "The House of Youth" was directed by Ralph Ince. Comedy showing "Wild Papa."

Young Man Gives Hero Three Cents for Rescuing Fiancee

PRESSBURG, Czechoslovakia (AP)—Three cents was the financial measure of the joy experience by a young man when a gypsy saved his sweetheart from drowning in the Danube. The young lovers had a quarrel which ended with the young woman jumping into the river. Her betrothed, becoming frantic, called wildly for help. The gypsy, taking in the situation, jumped into the water and brought the girl ashore.

Her lover expressed his joy at the prompt rescue and then handed the hero an Czech crown, equivalent to three cents.

Leningrad Honors Aged Russian Painter, Foe of Bolshevism

LENINGRAD (AP)—In commemoration of the 80th birthday of the famous Russian painter, Riepin, who is now living in Finland, an exhibition of his work has been opened at Leningrad.

Chief attention was given to his portraiture work. The exhibition contains also some of the less known work of Riepin as a sculptor, including busts of Leo Tolstoi and other Russian writers.

Riepin is known as an "irreconcilable" to the Bolsheviks. He left Russia immediately after the revolution, and despite numerous invitations to return, has declined to do so.
