a delightful time was spent dancing.

During the evening several of the guests gave a short play; Elwood Williams sang two comic songs; Tave Hendrickson rendered two vocal numbers and Mrs. G. A. Dean sang two solos. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Holman Hostess To Ladies' Aid

Mrs. J. A. Holman was hostess to the Ladies' Aid of the Lutheran church yesterday afternoon at her farm home three miles east of Telford city. There was a large attendance and during the business session plans were made for a cooked food sale to be held the last of this month.

A social hour was observed and a delicious luncheon served before adjournment. Besides the members of the aid eight visitors were present.

South Methodist Ladies Meet

The ladies of the South Methodist church held a missionary meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cameron. Mrs. K. A. Sayre, whose daughter is a missionary in China, showed a number of articles sent to her from China and gave a very interesting talk on the work the missionaries are doing there and conditions existing there at the present time.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)

Breakfast: Baked pearl, cereal, thin cream, crisp rye toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon: Corn custards with broiled tomatoes, graham bread and butter, sandwiches, peach and rice pudding, milk, tea.

Dinner: Smothered veal cutlets, mashed potatoes, creamed celery, cabbage salad, whole wheat bread, grape gelatin, sponge cake, milk, coffee.

This cabbage salad suggested for the dinner menu is made of finely shredded cabbage seasoned with lemon juice, salt and a bit of sugar. If you have never tried lemon juice in place of vinegar with cabbage try it the next time you serve cabbage. It's three times as good and six times as healthful.

Corn Custards with Broiled Tomatoes

One cup corn cut from the cob, 6 slices broiled tomato, 6 tablespoons grated cheese, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon sugar, 1/4 teaspoon onion juice, 2-3 cup milk, 3 eggs.

Beat eggs well with milk, salt and sugar. Add corn and onion juice and mix well. Turn into six well-buttered custard cups. Place in a pan of hot water and bake 20 minutes in a hot oven. When firm to the touch the custards are done. In the meantime cut tomatoes in slices about 1 inch thick, sprinkle with salt and pepper and a little sugar. Dip in cracker crumbs, egg slightly beaten and again in crumbs. Broil six or eight minutes in a well-oiled broiler. Arrange in a hot, heat-proof platter. When custards are done remove from cups and put one on each slice of tomato. Sprinkle with grated cheese and put in a very hot oven just long enough to melt and brown the cheese.

Fashion Notes

LONDON (AP)—High shoes for women, after banishment for 11 years, again will be fashionable in London this winter.

The shoes will not be the plain black and tan ones of years ago, but will be of highly colored leathers and snake and crocodile skin. Jeweled and other fancy heels will add a pleasant touch to them.

Men's footwear also will undergo some radical changes—green, red, blue and brown to match clothing worn. Also the heels will be higher than usual.

Shingle Roof Lasts 37 Years

EATONVILLE, Wash. (AP)—Thirty-seven years was the life of a shingle roof that T. C. Van Eaton a pioneer after whom this city was named, renewed this summer. The structure houses a department store, whose proprietor declared that not a cent's worth of wood had been damaged by leakage. The shingles were split out of red cedar cut nearby.

Among the rare animals which are in danger of extinction in the gorilla, though between 100 and 200 still remain in the Belgian Congo Game sanctuary in the Congo.

Castle for Honeymooners

This tiny chapel, perched on a cliff high up in the Arroyo Seco Canyon of the Sierra Madre mountains in California, is known as "Honeymoon Castle." Here romantic couples came to wed and many have spent their honeymoon in its vicinity.
