McKAY DAM INSPECTED
PENDLETON, Ore.—McKay dam which is under construction across McKay creek, seven miles south of Pendleton was inspected by a professional delegation which included representatives Louis C. Christian of Michigan, Addison T. Smith and Burton French of Idaho and N. J. Sluoff of Oregon.

At noon the visitors were guests of the Rotary club. Representative Smith told his audience that he does not expect great results from the dam now being made by Van President Dawson to effect a revision of senate rules. Senators should, however, be required to make their speeches and remarks apply to the subject under discussion, the Idaho man declared.

"The Range Terror" Sherrys Today Only.

Laughs, Thrill and Love in Lloyd At the Aroyde

"Help ... fellow dog ... dying ..."

This message, scrawled with the end of a revolver bullet on a scrap of paper, is picked up by the Sheriff, Texas Ranger, in the month of June, and with it, the thrilling action stories were written for the screen. Bob Conroy plays the role of the Sheriff, and "Annie," a dog with great pretensions, plays a stellar role in "The Range Terror." The combination makes a great screen entertainment under the title of "The Range Terror," the third of the Goldburg-C.O.M. pictures starring Conroy, which comes to the Sherrys theater for a one day run. Will Rogers Craft has directed the picture very ably, while Yvonne Vaudeman, Henry J. Herbert and Charlie de Lora play featured roles in the excellent comedy showing, "Heartsie Joe."

Some people entertain the idea that comedies like "Topsy," "Just Married," "Some Comedies" and "The Harold Lloyd Show." There is no other type of broad entertainment that gives more genuine and lasting pleasure and more skill and talent than swift, clean comedies. One of these is Harold Lloyd, that must never be allowed to slip away from the hands of being high brow. Every Lloyd comedy is firmly built on a solid foundation of a real story. The fact that a story here and a trick there may be an inspired after thought, but it is never allowed in if it does not serve the dramatic continuity.

The foundation of "Never Weaken" is a three-act Associated Exhibitions comedy starring Harold Lloyd now at the Aroyde theater. It is the story of a boy who loves a girl, believes her untrue, decides on suicide and changes his mind when he finds his life really in danger—even threw in a little psychology for good measure.

The ornaments—the things that turn this truly amusing plot into a really unique comedy—are the tricks and gags. And what a treasure trove of funny situations! What a pile of "never" situations! What a pile of "never" situations! What a pile of "never" situations!

"The climax of 'Never Weaken' is an interwoven with real danger and other nonsense that it's a toss up whether you have laughed—or snored—yourself breathless."

Colorful Story For Jack Hoxie On at Star.

A stirring dramatic tale of the cattle country is presented for the screen by "A Roaring Adventure," Universal Western starring Jack Hoxie and which will be shown in the Star theater, commencing Saturday. Hoxie is cast in the part of a young chap who comes from the East to visit his father and becomes mixed up in the plot of some cattle rustlers to depopulate the ranch the father owns in the little some miles from a little town where the father makes his home.

The picture is the adaptation of "The Tenderfoot" a story by Jack Tolson, and adapted by Isadore Bergson, supervisor of Western productions at Universal City. Hoxie is supported by a cast that includes Mary McAllister, Marjorie Sain, J. Gordon Russell, Francis Ford, Jack Pratt and Little Margaret Smith. Clifford Smith directed and the Hoxie unit of the famous Universal Ranch Riders contribute some spectacular features to the way of horsemanship.

Duffy Burns, the part portrayed by Hoxie, decided to go to the ranch and see if he can discover who is responsible for the loss of his father's cattle. Because the ranch superintendent's daughter, who resembles in Duffy the man who saved her from him, the ranch foreman, who expects to make the girl his wife, becomes Duffy's bitter enemy.

The picture was filmed on location in one of the most picturesque and scenic spots of California, the famous Mother Lode mine region, one time home of Mark Twain and Bret Harte; home of the "Jumping Frog" of Calaveras and of "Triton's Island" of Table Mountain.

BACK HOME AT LAST! YE GODS! WHAT A RELIEF!

WHY THERES A LIGHT IN TYTE'S HOUSES—HOW DID THEY GET HOME SO QUICKLY?

WHY SOMEONE GAVE THEM A LIFT—THEY COULDN'T HAVE WALKED ALL THE WAY BACK IN TWO DAYS!

I JUST KNOW THEY'RE BOILING MAD AT US AND HATE TO THINK WHAT THEY'VE TOLD THE NEIGHBORS ABOUT OUR QUARREL!

TO HEAR YOU TALK ANYONE WOULD THINK I MISTREATED THEM—THEY AGREED TO SHARE THE EXPENSES OF THE TRIP AND JUST BECAUSE THEY WERE MORE THAN THEY EXPECTED THEY GOT PEEVED AND CAME HOME!

WELL! THIS MISUNDERSTANDING WILL HAVE TO BE SETTLED—YOU CAN GO OVER IN THE MORNING AND OFFER SOME KIND OF AN APOLOGY!

WELL! THERE MR TYTE—HOW'D YOU FOLKS GET HOME?

WE HIRED A TAXI! WE'LL DO OUR TOURING IN ONE IN THE FUTURE BECAUSE IT'S MORE ECONOMICAL—WE CAN THIS AND BEING VICTIMIZED BY YOUR CLEVER SCHEMES TO MAKE US SHARE THE EXPENSE OF REPLACING ALL THE OLD WORN OUT PARTS IN YOUR AUTOMOBILE!
