PLANT OFFERED EUGENE

EUGENE, Ore.—The Washington-Oregon Lumber Mills company, which has been planning establishment of a timber mill at Vancouver, Wash., has made a proposition to the Eugene chamber of commerce to locate the plant here instead, company officials saying Vancouver had failed to meet their requirements.

William E. Douglas, president, and E. J. Galbraith, general manager of the concern, conferred with local financiers and outlined plans on which immediate action is anticipated.

At present there are 29 carloads of machinery on the tracks at Vancouver, having been sent there from Beloit, Wis. This equipment is valued at $105,000 and the demurrage charges of the railroad are $109 a day. Immediate decision as to disposition of the machinery is imperative, the mill officials said. Another meeting will be held here Monday night, at which action is expected to be taken.

WOMAN GETS YEAR TERM

OREGON CITY, Ore.—Mrs. L. H. Trenchel, convicted woman murderer, was sentenced by Circuit Judge Campbell here to serve one year in the state penitentiary and pay the costs of the court action. The sentence was given under the new state law, which provides a penitentiary sentence for persons convicted of owning and operating a still for the manufacture of intoxicating liquor.

Mrs. Trenchel's attorney, G. L. Hedrick, asked for time in which to file a motion for a new trial and Judge Campbell granted a stay of execution for five days. The woman's husband, who had deposited a $2000 bail following her arrest, withdrew that amount following the sentence and Mrs. Trenchel was placed in the county jail to await the decision on the motion for a new trial.

Blair of this city got a two-point buck near that point.

CRIME, WRECKS HELP REAPER

Goro, 24 years old, her clothes in shreds, was found Sunday behind her east side rooming home. Police said they were seeking a well-dressed young man with whom the young woman last was seen. They believe that she collapsed and died because of his attack.

The young woman until two years ago was a stenographer but her health failed and she suffered paralysis of the left side. Subject to fainting spells, she had been under a doctor's care for many months.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The body of John Govear, mechanic, who was smothered throughout the night and morning by police shotgun squads after he had shot and killed his divorced wife and seriously wounded her escort in Golden Gate park Sunday, was found Monday with a bullet hole in the head, in a clump of bushes near the scene of Sunday's tragedy. The police suppose that Govear dozed about the wooded sections of the park for many hours after the shooting, and then when he thought he had thrown off pursuit, returned to the murder scene to kill himself.

MILES CITY, Mont. (AP)—Mrs. Nellie Ottlinger pleaded not guilty Monday in district court to a charge of slaying her husband, Arthur Z. Ottlinger, by poison. Her bond was fixed at $10,000. The complaint on which the woman was arrested charged she poisoned her husband more than a year ago. The body of her husband was exhumed and an examination of the victim revealed traces of poison, county officials declare.

AUGUSTA, Me. (AP)—H. A. Kirby, in jail here since May, charged with the murder of Miss Ada D. Hayward, committed suicide Monday by slitting his wrist with a razor blade.
