Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)
 Breakfast—Orange juice, cereal, thin cream, French toast, syrup, milk, coffee.
 Luncheon—Baked spinach and tomatoes, raisin bread, peach tapioca pudding, milk, tea.
 Dinner—Casserole of chicken, rice, potatoes, succotash, peach salad, junket ice cream, sponge cake, whole wheat bread, milk, coffee.
 Luncheons for children who hurry home from school must be nourishing, quickly eaten and easily digested. If a child eats his luncheon in haste with the fear of "hardiness" in his mind his food will do him less good than if he is served a simpler meal that he can enjoy in peace.

Baked Spinach and Tomatoes
 Two pounds spinach, 4 tomatoes, 1/2 onion (minced), 1 teaspoon sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, few grains pepper, 1/2 cup fine dried bread crumbs, 4 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons buttered crumbs, 2 tablespoons grated cheese.
 Wash spinach and cook in its own juice. Chop very fine. Peel tomatoes and cut in slices. Put a layer of dried crumbs into a well-buttered baking dish. Cover with a layer of tomatoes, sprinkle with onion, salt, pepper and sugar and dot with butter. Add a layer of spinach. Begin with dried crumbs and again continue layer or layer with seasoning until all is used. Cover with buttered crumbs, sprinkle with cheese and bake 25 minutes in a moderately hot oven. Serve from the dish in which it was baked.

Japan Maps Out Extensive Program of Road Building
 TOKYO, (AP)—Good roads in Japan are as hard to find as the proverbial haystack needle, but if a bill which is being planned by the home department is enacted by the next diet, automobiles in this country will come in for their own. The proposed plan is either to build new highways or improve the present ones at a cost of some 100,000,000 yen, one-third of which will be furnished by the government.
 Under the proposed bill the government grants would come in ten yearly installments, the first beginning next year. It is planned to widen and pave the important highways in rural districts, which at present are unfit for automobile transportation, and to improve such public roads over which railway construction is projected.

CLERGYMEN TO MEET AT COVE

COVE—(Special)—A clergy conference for the district of Eastern Oregon will be held at Cove beginning September 22. The Rev. Paul Roberts, Dean of St. Michaels Cathedral, of Boise, and the Rev. Thomas Ashworth, of Payette, will attend.

The Rt. Rev. W. P. Remington of Pendleton will be in Cove Sunday, September 20, and will hold services in the Episcopal church both morning and evening.

A school fair will be held at Cove Tuesday, September 22. The material for the exhibit will be furnished mostly by the boys and girls interested in club work. The premium material will be taken to the county fair at Elgin.

The commercial club will give another of their series of dancing parties Friday evening at the hall. The first of the series was a harvest ball given a week ago and was so successful that they have decided to continue the series. The proceeds received from the dances will be expended in premiums for the school fair. The committee on arrangements consists of J. B. Weimer, C. W. Clark and T. B. Conklin.

The chautauqua festival this year will be held October 9 to 14. Miss Eva Roberts, of Salem, who has been visiting her father, E. F. Roberts, has returned to her home.

Glen Roberts, of Pendleton, spent the weekend with his parents here in Cove. His sister, Eva Roberts, accompanied him as far as Pendleton en route to Salem.

Ray Conklin and family, of Union, were visiting in Cove Saturday.

Mrs. Edna Conklin will leave Tuesday for Walla Walla, Washington, where she will spend the winter.

The time draws near when many of the Cove boys and girls will leave for college. Mildred Richards, Claire Smith, Benny Harris and Desmond Polp will attend A. C. Walter and Gladys Daron and Beatrice Coons will go to Monmouth. Stewart French will enter Hill's military academy at Portland and Miss Earline Whisler will attend the Washington State Normal at Cheney, Washington.

The Rev. H. D. Ballard, evangelist of New York City, was at the Baptist church Wednesday evening.

Floyd Burton, of Redmond, Oregon, will soon visit his sister, Mrs. Paul Ellis.

Mrs. A. B. McClain entertained the Dorcas Society on Thursday afternoon.

Grover Duffy spent the weekend in the Minam.

Lee McClain and Ben Harris are camping on the Minam.

LEMON SPONGE PIE
 This pie leaves little to be desired and is, indeed, a worthy representative of the lemon pie family.
 Cream one tablespoonful of butter with one-half cupful of sugar and add the yolk of one egg. Beat all well together and whip in the grated rind and juice of one lemon. Place in an enameled ware piepan, which is not affected by citrus acid and will therefore preserve the delicate color of the mixture. Scald all but two tablespoonfuls of a cupful of milk.
 Blend one tablespoonful of cornstarch with the cold milk and add to the scalded milk, stirring until thickened. Then add to the lemon mixture and fold in the stiffly beaten white of the egg. Cool slightly and pour into a pastry-lined pan. Bake in a moderate oven until the filling is firm in the center. If necessary cover the pie with a piece of brown paper during the baking as it is very liable to brown almost too quickly.

Kansas Boasts About Her

Kansas now boasts of something besides the finest wheat in the world. For beauty it's hard to beat Miss Acklin Nordyke, 13, of Wichita, recently chosen as the most beautiful girl in the state. She will be "Princess Kansas" at the International Petroleum Exposition at Tulsa next month.

2 German Newspapers Laud Minister's Work
 BERLIN, (AP)—Cautious among newspaper comment on the second anniversary of Dr. Gustav Stresemann as foreign minister are those of the conservative Tactelogue Rundschau and the democratic National Zeitung, both of which stand out as exceptions to the general run of criticism.

The Tacelogue Rundschau recalls his courage in taking over the post of chancellor at a time when "the darkness of the Ruhr and Poleneire's victorious insolence" had reached a climax. Dr. Stresemann is congratulated for having been the first to note "a silver lining in the gloomy clouds darkening Germany's political horizon" and that subsequent developments proved that he was right.

As is shown by the fact that Germany is unquestionably progressing.

The National Zeitung, after summarizing events of the last two years, comes to the conclusion that Dr. Stresemann's policy has led Germany forward. Then discussing German foreign policies it concludes: "Such a tenacious struggle does not readily induce popularity, though it is to be hoped that it may come to be appreciated in later years."

That means he can give you better values.

Free State to Spend Millions
 In Improvement of Highways
 DUBLIN, (AP)—A new scheme for the improvement of Irish roads has been decided on by the Free State government at a cost of nearly $20,000,000, to be spread over three years.
 It is proposed to bring 1500 miles of the country's 400 miles of trunk roads to a standard which will give a road life of eight to ten years. The total weight of new motor lorries will be restricted to nine tons, under the plan, and owners of horse drawn vehicles will be compelled to use wheels with wide rims.
