Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary)

Breakfast—Cooked wheat cereal with chopped dates, this cream, liver and bacon, creamed potatoes, toasted rolled oats bread, corn muffins, coffee, milk.

Luncheon—Broiled meat patty, baked potato, baked apple with top milk, whole wheat bread and butter sandwich.

Dinner—Baked bluefish, baked sweet potatoes, scalloped tomatoes, lettuce salad with Thousand Island dressing, chocolate bread pudding with whipped cream, milk, coffee.

Roasted Meat Patty

Serape two or three ounces of round steak with a knife. This leaves the fibers of the meat and gives you the clean meat pulp. Season slightly with salt and form in a small flat cake. Broil four minutes, turning often. The meat should be rare, so the thickness of your patty will determine the length of time you broil it.

Chocolate Bread Pudding

One and one-half cups stale bread crumbs without crust, 2 cups hot milk, 1 square Baker's chocolate, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon butter, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 1 egg.

Combine milk and bread crumbs and let stand half an hour. Melt chocolate over hot water. Add to bread and milk with butter, sugar, salt and vanilla. Beat eggs well and stir into mixture. Turn into a buttered pudding dish and bake 30 minutes in a slow oven.

"This is a simple nourishing pudding that is hearty enough to follow a light meat course for grown-ups and for the main dish for very small people. A very small portion of whipped cream should dress the pudding for those from 4 to 6 because the chocolate adds fat to the pudding."

Hints for the Housewife

NEW-STUFFED BAKED CUCUMBER!

The cucumber which has long been served as a raw vegetable, has recently undergone cooking experiments which have resulted in successful dishes. Stuffing and baking the cucumber is one of the new ways of serving it. In this way it can be served with meat and potatoes just like any other vegetable and it is also appropriate for a luncheon dish in itself.

Peel the cucumbers, cut lengthwise into halves, remove the seeds and stuff with the following mixture:

Mix together one cup of sifted bread crumbs, two tablespoons melted butter or bacon fat, one half of a small onion, minced, two thirds of a teaspoon salt, one third teaspoon pepper and one quarter cup stock, gravy, milk or canned tomato, as preferred.

Arrange the cucumbers in an enameled ware baking dish and bake in a moderate oven for one hour.

Serve from the china-like dish in which they are baked.

New Effect

With the fulness shifted to the back of the skirt by a sudden change of feeling on the part of Parisian designers, we find the back sash returning to favor. It is usually narrow and has long ends.

Our Sunday school begins 9:45 to 11:00, come and enjoy the sessions with us. Last Sunday morning was a red-letter day, the register jumped to 50. Why, the church was so full that folks' feet were nearly sticking out the doors. If you're a hand man, can't you see that we need a larger building soon.

This is the long-looked-for Sunday when Rev. Miss Myrtle Mangum, a returned missionary from India, will be with us. Miss Mangum will bring the message at the 11 o'clock hour, and then again in the evening at 7:30. In the afternoon at 2:30 she will speak in interest of the Women's Missionary society. Everyone welcome to all these services.

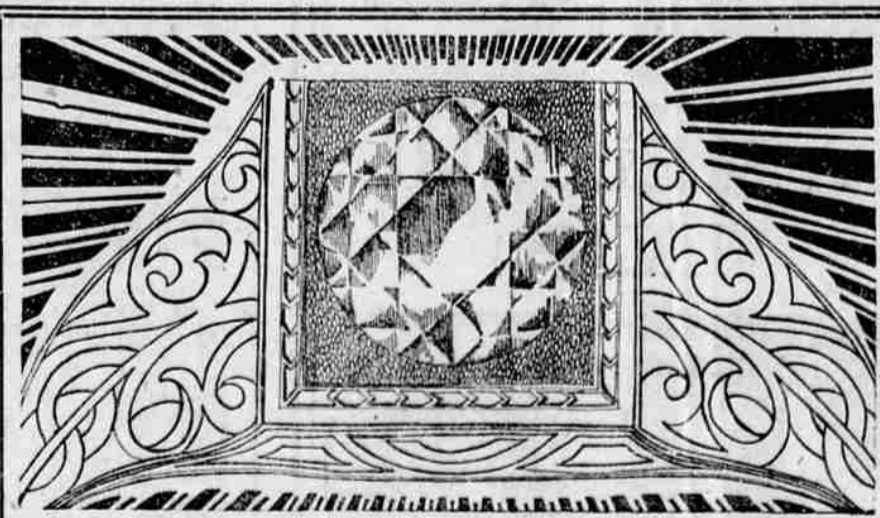

Miss Marybelle Freeman, an outgoing missionary to China, will bring the message in song at these services. Miss Freeman has been a song evangelist for years, a former member of the Aeolian Quartette of Chicago. Come and hear her.

Bible school, 9:15; morning worship, 11 a. m.; Luther League, 6:20 p. m. In material things, the poor only have cultivated souls—and cultivated because they ask graciously and receive graciously. The rich ask not, nor receive, and are the poorer for it. The same law holds in spiritual matters.

Wm. F. Holl, pastor.

Daily day in our church life tomorrow. The call to the colors will sound at 9:45 when our Sunday school will commence its annual Holy Day program and promotion exercises. New classes will be formed and all our members will want to start well the new school year. Our morning worship hour at 11 at which time the Gospel sisters will sing a duet and Mrs. J. A. Tedford will preside at the pipe organ. The minister will speak on a vital theme. You will want to rally to this morning privilege with its inspiration and fellowship. The C. E. will start on a new time schedule at 6:20 for all the young folks as they bid farewell to those of their number who are leaving for college. An evening service is announced for 7:30 to which the community at large is urged to respond. We hope to have a most popular evening hour of music and information. It will repay you to keep this hour for your spiritual development. To our fellowship and membership this church issues a most hearty welcome to all. We live to serve and crave the opportunity in our community.

MARKED CHANGES IN GOWNS NOT IN STORE IN PARIS

PARIS (AP)—For those who have been waiting for the information, a leading authority in the French dressmaking world has declared: "We need not expect any marked change in women's shape this winter."

The women of Paris will persist in keeping to the straight and slender line so becoming to the figure. But as some change must be made, the dressmakers have hit upon the expedient of trimming the backs of dresses, which is quite opposite to what they did last season.

All sorts of designs will be embroidered on the backs of gowns. Strange as it may seem, skirts are coming back into fashion again. Not in the quantity from that great grandmother wore but, made of thread or silk or both, and as delicate as hair. They are made in charming tints and have touches of gold thread, pearls and small precious stones woven into them.
