Sister Mary Says:

(By Sister Mary.)
Breakfast—Cranes, cereal, thin cream, crisp whole wheat toast, creamed dried beef, milk, coffee.
Luncheon—Cream of tomato soup, croutons, hard-cooked eggs and lettuce sandwiches, baked peaches, milk, tea.
Dinner—Boiled salmon with egg sauce, potatoes in parsley butter, jellied vegetable salad, deep dish apple pie, rye bread, milk, coffee.
This season of the year when vegetables are so plentiful here are sure to be a variety of leftovers. A jellied salad is a most attractive and ideal way to make use of these. Season the jelly well with lemon juice, salt and pepper and use onion juice in place of minced onion. This is added to the jelly or sprinkled over the vegetables.
Baked Peaches
Four fine large peaches, 4 teaspoons sugar, 4 teaspoons butter, orange juice, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 8 rounds of sponge cake, whipped cream.
Pare peaches and cut in halves. Remove stones. Arrange in a shallow baking dish and fill each cavity with 1/2 teaspoon sugar, 1/4 teaspoon butter, 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon and 1 teaspoon orange juice. Bake 20 minutes in a moderate oven. Place on sponge cake with any juice in the pan and serve when cool masked with whipped cream.

Feeds and Doctors Pigeons as a Hobby

CHICAGO (AP)—Feeding peanuts to pigeons in Grant park on busy Michigan boulevard costs him approximately $150 a year, but to Harry J. Lane, the benefactor, it is a small item in his recipe for kindness.
Four or five times daily Mr. Lane who is treasurer of the Orchestra Hall association in a skyscraper overlooking the park, crosses the avenue with bulging pockets of peanuts to ration the birds, many of them of four years' acquaintance. His appearance causes a winged offensive.
Mr. Lane carries a knife with a small sharp blade which, as the birds feed, he used in removing strings entangled in their feet and to perform any small bit of surgery. Wherever he travels Mr. Lane feeds pigeons in the parks. He is never feared, whether friend or stranger.
The city allows feed for the pigeons, but frequently the caretaker is absent. Mr. Lane fills the breach as provider.

Banking powers are meeting in London. Banking powers are like baking powders. They raise the dough.

LARGE SUGAR CROP IN STORE.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The present outlook is for another large world sugar crop, the department of agriculture believes.
In Europe sugar beet prospects were said to be generally favorable and although the acreage is about the same as last year the better condition of the crop indicates a larger sugar production than in 1924.

EXPECTS SMALLER CROP
SALT LAKE (AP)—Belief that the world sugar crop for 1925 will be anything smaller than that of 1924 was expressed by Stephen H. Love, president of the United States Sugar Manufacturers' association in a statement here.
Mr. Love was commenting upon a Washington dispatch quoting the department of agriculture on the present outlook.
"It is rather early, in my opinion," Mr. Love said, "to say what the final out turn of the European beet sugar crop is likely to be, but from what information I have been able to obtain, it will not materially exceed that of last year."

Haskell Enrollment 100 Per Cent American

LAWRENCE, Neb. (AP)—Haskell Institute may set down its claim to honor as "one hundred per cent American." For only true Americans may enter here.
Largest of the government's Indian schools, already opened for its fall term, Haskell Institute last winter drew 1049 American Indian girls and boys from nearly eighty tribes. From Key West to Ketchikan they came, and from Yakima to Yukon.

Twenty-eight states sent quotas of students to Haskell last year. Oklahoma's delegation numbered 333, almost one-third of the student enrollment. Yet her neighbor state to the south, Texas, had but one representative in the student body. Kansas was second in numbers with 164 and South Dakota, next with 163. Alaska was represented by a single student of the Eyak tribe.

Outnumbering any single Indian tribe are the Sioux, whose 139 members here came from five Middle Western states. Cherokee and Delaware made up the third largest tribal delegation.

The Chippewa came from the greatest area. They had roved the continent. Then there are Apache, and Navajo, Navaho and Papago, Hopi and Pima from the southwest; Hanoock and Nez Percé, Flathead and Shoshone from the north-

MOTHER REFUSES BODY
ALBANY, Ore.—The mother who was shot by State Traffic Officer C. P. Talent near Jefferson when Louisignot was fleeing in a stolen motor car, has sent word to the county coroner here that he can do as he pleases with the body of the man.
It was learned through the sheriff of Washington county that Louisignot's mother, Mrs. Harriet Louisignot, lives at Strassel, a hamlet 25 miles west of Hillsboro, and that two sisters, Mrs. Rhoda Hagen and Mrs. Earl Coffman, live in the same vicinity.

Louisignot's companion, Genia Owen, 18-year-old Grandview, Wash., girl, is being cared for by the Red Cross and Salvation Army.

LINEN CENTER FORECAST
EUGENE, Ore.—Thomas R. Kay, state treasurer, told 100 Eugene citizens at the luncheon of the chamber of commerce, that the Willamette valley is destined to become the linen manufacturing center of the United States.

Mr. Kay was brought here by the chamber of commerce to tell something of flax growing and linen manufacturing inasmuch as there is a proposition before the people of Eugene to establish a linen mill here, employing 200 people. Mr. Kay declared that there is no other section in the United States so well suited to flax culture as the Willamette valley.

Marauder?

Police believe Henry Horn, big negro, is the "midnight marauder," who has been terrifying Nashville, Tenn., for the last four weeks. The marauder, wearing a mask and armored vest, has been attacking women in their homes and cutting the throats of their husbands. Horn was shot in the thigh when attempting to enter a home, but denies he is guilty of the crimes.
